MARSHVILLE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Alex Martin, Pastor

Here at First Baptist Church of Marshville, we believe that our church exists to share and live the Good News of God's kingdom by becoming a family of faith that worships God, grows in Christ and serves others.

The First Baptist Church of Marshville was organized on September 18, 1883, as the Grove Springs Baptist Church. Elders J.L. Bennett and D.A. Snyder preached on alternating Sundays to the 15 charter members under a brush arbor just north of the Marshville cemetery. Reverend Augustus Marsh served at several intervals and made significant contributions to the spiritual growth of the young church.

A building was erected in 1888 and was remodeled in 1903. The sanctuary was completed in 1927. The educational building was added in 1957, and the sanctuary was remodeled in 1960. The basement of the sanctuary was renovated to provide space for a fellowship hall in 1994.

The name of the church was changed from Grove Springs Baptist Church to Beaver Dam Baptist Church in 1888, to Marshville Baptist Church in 1890, and to First Baptist Church of Marshville in 1987.

In March 2009, the church family voted to relocate, building a new and more accessible facility on a larger piece of land a little more than one mile away from its historic site. The facility opened in 2010.

This annual is dedicated to the following:

In Memory of

Rev. Robert Byrd

Rev. Robert T. Byrd was born in Montgomery County, NC, May 2, 1930, but lived most of his life in Union County. He was born near Troy, NC, the son of T. R. and Annie Byrd and married his childhood sweetheart, Jewel 'Jackie' McRae Byrd in 1950.

After working with his father for 12 years in the lumber business, he announced the call to preach, attended and graduated from Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in 1962. He served as pastor of Eldorado, Liberty Hill, and Laurel Hill Baptist Churches in Montgomery County before being called as pastor of Austin Grove Baptist Church in Marshville, NC, in 1964. During the 1960s and 1970s, Pastor Byrd served as moderator of Union Baptist Association and also served in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Board of Directors. He later pastored Clarkton Baptist Church in Bladen County and then Lee Park Baptist Church in Monroe, NC. In 1971, Rev. Byrd participated in a crusade in Anchorage, Alaska, working alongside pastors from 49 states. He retired in 1995 from the Second Baptist Church of Dillon, SC, after serving 36 years in the ministry.

Pastor Robert and his bride of sixty years spent most of their life doing the thing he loved doing more than anything else: preaching and sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ to anyone that would listen. Pastor Robert T. Byrd, 80, died August 4, 2010, at his home in Wingate, NC, where Jackie still lives. They have two children: Wanda Byrd Denton of Jacksonville, FL and Pastor Barry L. Byrd of Fayetteville, NC, as well as six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Though she misses him dearly, Jackie knows that her husband has reached his ultimate goal – to be at home with his Heavenly Father.

This annual is dedicated to the following:

In Memory of

Rev. Roy Yow

Rev. Roy Yow was born on March 23, 1929, in Union County. He met his eventual wife, Monty Marsh, when he was thirteen years old, and the couple attended school and church together while growing up in the same community. They wed in 1950 and were married for almost sixty years.

Rev. Yow served in the U.S. Navy from 1951-53, during the Korean War. He was stationed in Newfoundland, North Africa and Rhode Island. Rev. Yow answered the call to ministry in 1957 while a member at his home church, New Salem Baptist. He was employed as a meat cutter in Five Points Food Store at the time. He attended Wingate College and also took seminary extension classes. Ordained on August 2, 1964, Rev. Yow was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church for 31 years (1964-1995). Following retirement in 1995, he served alongside Rev. Vance Edwards as co-interim pastor of Secrest Grove Baptist Church (1997-1998). The Lord brought him back to full-time ministry as pastor of Friendly Baptist Church (2000-2009), retiring only when his health demanded it. He also served on several Union Baptist Association committees.

A sportsman, Rev. Yow enjoyed fishing, softball and bowling. He had a passion for golf, and he and son Rod participated in annual tournaments at Camp Caraway. They often brought home trophies.

Rev. Yow went to be with the Lord on October 29, 2010. He is survived by wife Monty, son Rev. Rodney Yow and wife Lorie, granddaughter Melissa Bordeaux and husband Jackson, granddaughter Mallory Parker and husband Jeremy, and four great-grandchildren, Cameron Phillips, Bryson Parker, Conley Bordeaux and Maci Parker. Deceased loved ones include mother Ona Deese, stepfather Bazel Deese, son Kevin Marsh Yow, daughter Joan Lynette Yow, sister Sadie Butner, and brother-in-law Barry Butner.

Monty remembers her husband as a man who loved his family, his church and life. Above all, he loved the Lord whom he served faithfully for decades. Rev. Yow was often known to say, "I wish I could love Him more!" His wife is assured that he is more alive today than ever before.

Bylaws

ARTICLE 1 - AFFILIATED CHURCHES

Those Missionary Baptist Churches which have applied for membership, and by vote of the Association are accounted to be in fellowship with the purpose and undertakings of this body, shall comprise the list of affiliated churches. The vote of the Association to extend fellowship, or to withdraw fellowship, shall be a two-thirds vote.

All churches not affiliated with another Association of like faith may be admitted as members into this union by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided they comply with Article 23 of the Bylaws and make known their desire to become members of the Association at the annual meeting of the Association when the Association will take action on their requests.

All churches composing the body of the Union Baptist Association, and those asking for membership in this body, shall believe and practice the doctrine of the New Testament as interpreted by Baptists through the years: that all churches presently composing this body, and all others seeking membership into the body at a later date, shall practice baptism by immersion only.

Messengers from one-fourth of the churches shall constitute a quorum at all sessions of the Association, and the decision of those present shall be considered the action of the Association.

Failure to report annually to the Association or failure to be represented by messengers for two consecutive sessions without sufficient cause shall raise the question of fellowship. The Association may withdraw fellowship from any church which consistently fails to maintain a spirit of cooperation to support the objects of this Association. It shall be responsibility of the Associational Council to investigate and make recommendations to the Association with regard to withdrawal of fellowship from any member. At all times any action of the Association must conform to the following principles.

(1) The Association shall regard the churches as independent bodies in all their internal affairs and exercise no ecclesiastical jurisdiction or claim any legislative or judicial power over them.

(2) As every church is an independent body, amendable so far as authority is concerned to the Great Head of the Church alone, any church shall have full power to terminate its connection with the Association whenever it may see fit. While, however, a church chooses to continue this connection, the Association must have a relative right to inquire into its standing whenever it may be necessary to do so, and in case of dissatisfaction to withdraw from it.

ARTICLE 2 - OFFICERS

The officers of the association shall be elected at the annual session in October and shall assume their duties, with the exception of the Clerk and Treasurer, at the close of the session at which they are elected and serve until their successors are elected and assume their duties. Those filling the office of Clerk and Treasurer will serve in conjunction with the fiscal year.

Officers shall be: Moderator, Vice Moderator, Treasurer, Historian, Discipleship Supporter, Sunday School Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Music Director, Evangelism Director, Youth Director, and other such officers as the Association deems necessary in the continuation of its work. Each officer must be a member of a Union Baptist Association church.

The term of the Moderator shall be limited to two consecutive years; other officers shall be limited to five consecutive years, with the exception of the Treasurer. If for any reason the Moderator cannot serve out his term, the Vice Moderator shall become the Moderator of the Association. When the need arises to replace the Vice Moderator, the Associational Council shall present to the Association a nomination of the person to complete the unexpired term of Vice Moderator. This person shall assume the position of Vice Moderator after the approval of the Association.

The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. (These persons will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the new corporation.)

The total program of the Association shall be under the leadership of the person holding the office of Director of Missions. His selection shall be upon the recommendation of the Staff Relations Committee, and subject to the approval of the vote by the Association in session. The terms and conditions of the call shall be clearly set forth and published in the minutes of the Association. The supervision of the office of Director of Missions shall be the responsibility of the Staff Relations Committee.

ARTICLE 3 - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the Moderator, Vice Moderator, Treasurer, Discipleship Supporter, Sunday School Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Brotherhood Director, Music Director, Evangelism Director, Stewardship Chairperson, Missions and Outreach Chairperson, Historian, Youth Director, Director of Missions, Church and Community Ministries Director, Staff Relations Chairperson, Media Director, Literacy Director, Seminary Extension Director, Baptist State Convention Agency Committee Chairperson and two laymen messengers appointed by the Moderator. A Parliamentarian, appointed by the Moderator, shall be an ex officio member of the Associational Council. The General Board Member(s) from our Association shall be ex-officio member(s) of the Associational Council. Each person serving must be a member of a Union Baptist Association church. The Clerk shall record all minutes of the council when meeting.

The Vice Moderator shall be the Chairman of the Council.

The Council shall meet at least once each quarter prior to the regular meeting of the Association in session. The Chairman shall bring to each meeting of the Association a report of its work.

The Council shall study carefully the program of work for the entire Association and the needs of all the churches. In the light of this study, the Council shall work out an annual Calendar of Activities for the Association which shall run concurrently with the calendar year. The Calendar of Activities is subject to the approval of the Association.

ARTICLE 4 - PROCEDURE

The business of the Association shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, where not otherwise provided by this Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE 5 - AMENDMENT

This Constitution and Bylaws may be amended by the Association with a two-thirds vote, provided:

1. All proposed amendment(s) shall first be referred to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee for clarification and correlation before being presented to the Association.
2. These amendments may be recommended and presented for approval either during the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the October Annual Session and voted on during the Tuesday evening meeting, or at a quarterly session and voted on at the next quarterly session of the Association.

Between sessions, the Constitution and Bylaws Committee may recommend changes to the Associational Council. If the Council recommends approval, each associational member church will be furnished a written proposal of any change and, not earlier than 20 days thereafter, a special called meeting of the Association may be held for the purpose of voting on the changes.

No resolutions adopted by this Association shall become a part of this Constitution.

ARTICLE 6 - TIME OF ASSOCIATION SESSIONS

The Association shall meet quarterly on the Tuesday evening immediately following the fourth Sunday in October, January, April, and July. The October meeting shall be deemed the "Annual Session" and shall also meet on Tuesday afternoon. However, in case of some unavoidable circumstances that require changing the date of any meeting, the Association Council shall have authority to change said date, provided a notice of such change shall be mailed to each church at least two weeks before the stated time for the meeting and at least two weeks in advance of the new date for the meeting.

A special meeting of the Association may be called by the Associational Council, provided that a notice of the time, place, and purpose of such a meeting shall be mailed to the pastors and clerks of the churches of the Association at least two weeks in advance of the time set for the special meeting.

ARTICLE 7 - OPENING

Meetings of the Association shall be opened with a devotional service and closed with a prayer.

ARTICLE 8 - ORDER OF BUSINESS

Any order of business shall be adopted at the beginning of each session and shall be changed only by a two-thirds vote.

ARTICLE 9 - CHURCH PROFILE

Each affiliated church shall send to the Annual Session of the Association, or mail to the Clerk earlier on forms furnished by the Clerk, a full report of the church work for the year ending September 30. The church profile shall reach the Clerk by October 10.

ARTICLE 10 - MODERATOR AND VICE MODERATOR

The Moderator and Vice Moderator shall preside at all meetings of the Association. As opportunity may permit, they shall represent the fellowship of the entire Association as fraternal visitors to the churches. The Moderator shall appoint one association member annually to fill a vacancy for a three year term on the Nominating Committee. The Moderator shall also appoint two laymen messengers to serve an annual term on the Associational Council.

The Baptist of this Association came directly from the efforts of the early Christian workers of Wales and England. Their first settlements were in Old Welsh Neck section in South Carolina and Old Sandy Creek section in Chatham County. Union County Baptist came from the Old Welsh Section. The Welsh Neck Baptist Church was organized in 1738. In 1793, Lanes Creek was organized about two miles west of Philadelphia Church. This Church was the stock of the Welsh Neck Church. The churches that came out of the Welsh Neck Church organized into the Moriah Association in 1815. For convenience of the North Carolina side of the Moriah Association, the Brown Creek Association was formed in 1854. In 1885, the name of Union Association occurred. The association submitted Articles of Incorporation, which were approved with non-profit status on December 31, 1991, in the name of Union Baptist Association of Union County, North Carolina by the Secretary of State, Rufus Edmisten. These Articles of Incorporation were recorded on February 4, 1992, Book 538, Page 295, in the Union County Register of Deeds office.

PROCEEDINGS

156th Annual Session of Union Baptist Association
October 26, 2010 – Marshville First Baptist Church– 2:30 pm, 7:00 pm

Theme: On Mission

FIRST SESSION: "On Mission"

"Peter fairly exploded with his good news: It's God's own truth, nothing could be plainer: God plays no favorites! It makes no difference who you are or where you're from – if you want God and are ready to do as he says, the door is open. The Message he sent to the children of Israel – that through Jesus Christ everything is being put together again – well, he's doing it everywhere, among everyone." Acts 10: 34-36 (The Message)

Congregational Hymn: "Jesus Saves." UBA Music Minister Rev. Jack Little (Harvest Ministries) led congregational hymns throughout the annual session, with Mrs. Ronda Montgomery (Pianist, Lee Park) providing musical accompaniment.

Call to Order/Words of Welcome: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) called the annual session to order and shared the annual session theme and scripture. He introduced Rev. Alex Martin (pastor, Marshville First).

Scripture and Invocation: Rev. Martin welcomed messengers to the new church building, which has been occupied for one month. He urged messengers to seek him or an usher for any needed assistance, then led an opening prayer.

Roll Call of Churches: UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) conducted the roll call. Quorum was met with 30 churches represented.

Presentation and Adoption of 2010 Book of Reports/Approval of Summer and Special Session Minutes: The clerk made a motion for adoption of minutes from both the UBA summer session held July 27, 2010 at Mary Elizabeth Baptist, and a special called session held September 7, 2010 at the UBA Mission Resource Center (MRC). The motion carried unanimously. The clerk next made a motion for adoption of the 2010 Book of Reports, as presented to messengers with minor corrections. Instructions were given for submitting additional changes. The motion carried without opposition.

Recognition of New Ministers: The moderator recognized the following new ministers: (1) Dr. Phillip Hunter and wife Kay, Mill Creek, and (2) Dr. Chris Baucom and wife Deanna, Benton's Cross Roads.

Recognition of Agency Representatives: Ms. Debbie Pilson of NC Baptist Aging Ministry was recognized as being in attendance.

FIRST BUSINESS SESSION

Church Group Coordinator's Report/Memorials: UBA Church Group One Coordinator Mrs. Brenda Lee (Austin Grove) referred messengers to her committee's report (Book of Reports, p. 20). The association quarterly sessions are scheduled as follows: (1) Winter session – January 25, 2011 at Trinity, (2) Spring session – April 26, 2011 at Lanes Creek, (3) Summer session – July 26, 2011 at Christ, and (4) Annual session – October 25, 2011 at Sandy Ridge. Mrs. Lee led messengers in a moment of silent prayer honoring UBA church members deceased during the year (Book of Reports, p. 30-33). She read from I Corinthians 15, a passage containing Paul's comments on death and the challenge to those left behind.

Miscellaneous Business: UBA vice moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) read the following proposed amendment to the UBA Constitution and Bylaws.

Article 2, Paragraph 4 Current Reading: The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and

Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. (These persons will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the new corporation).

Article 2, Paragraph 4 Amended Paragraph: The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. The Moderator, or Vice-Moderator, in the absence of the Moderator, will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the corporation.

The vice moderator called for questions. An inquiry was made regarding where the proposed amendment was written in the Book of Reports. In response, handouts containing the text were distributed to messengers. The vice moderator explained that the recommendation to amend comes from the UBA parliamentarian based on a change in state law. A vote will be taken during the evening session.

Musical Meditation: Rev. Little performed a solo. He welcomed back the accompanist, Mrs. Montgomery, who has suffered recent health issues.

Treasurer's Report: UBA Treasurer and Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) referred messengers to the Book of Reports (pp. 51-52) for the 2011 UBA Missions Budget, then to the Treasurer's Report (pp. 55-58). He noted that total income for the month of September was just under $26,000, with a year-to-date total in excess of $196,000. UBA is spending slightly more than it is taking in, but Dr. Funderburk is confident that God will supply the need if we remain faithful.

Motion From UBA Council: The moderator read the following motion from the UBA Council:

> To loan funds to El Buen Pastor to pay off their mortgage. The note will be at 4% and will be held for up to two years without payment. Funds to retire this mortgage will be borrowed from a businessman. El Buen has agreed to a provision to be placed in the documents that should the church close or leave the association, the property reverts to Union Baptist Association.

The vice moderator called for questions. A question was raised regarding how much is needed to retire the debt. The response: $27,000. A question was raised whether UBA will be responsible for the funds if El Buen defaults. The response: Yes. The vice moderator noted that El Buen Pastor faces hardships largely due to the return of a large number of members to Mexico and a high unemployment rate among remaining members. A vote on this motion will be taken during the evening session.

Moderator's Address: The moderator thanked the association for the opportunity to serve, calling it a great experience and a joy. He commended UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) and the UBA staff as the finest leadership of any association in the state. Messengers were thanked for their prayers and support of UBA. UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) was recognized for his efforts in bringing Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute classes to the Missions Resource Center (MRC). The pastors of the association were thanked for their tireless efforts to preach the Word of God to our community. The moderator recalled a time from his childhood when Sunday School roll call was answered with a memory verse. He was particularly proud to learn John 3:16. In today's world, sin is as widespread as the common cold. The lost need Christians to bring them the truth that, without God, there is the certainty of an eternity in hell. The moderator read Romans 6:23. The Lord is returning for his church, and it will require the use of all Christians' talents to defeat Satan. The task at hand is to watch, wait and work.

Fruitland Testimony: Rev. Dustin Knight (pastor, Friendly) reminded messengers that at Saul's conversion, recounted in Acts 9, God called him "a chosen vessel." Today, there are "chosen vessels" called to spread the Gospel from the pulpit. With this comes a call to prepare, and the Fruitland Baptist Bible Seminary Institute classes now offered at the MRC, are helping pastors and others to do just that. Rev. Knight was given the chance to use the knowledge learned in these classes just two weeks ago when witnessing to a 14-year-old girl on his church playground. She was a foster care child and had been exposed to many world philosophies in her short lifetime. She accepted Christ that day. Rev. Knight believes it is a privilege and blessing for Union and surrounding counties to have Fruitland classes available at the MRC. He expressed gratitude to Rev. Hawkins for his years of work to bring these classes to UBA. It is an invaluable resource, especially for pastors with young families who find it impossible to travel to the Hendersonville campus. The vice moderator urged anyone interested in enrolling in seminary classes to contact Rev. Hawkins for details.

SECOND SESSION: "Our Mission"

"In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I gave them a mission in the world."
John 17:18 (The Message)

Bi-Vocational Ministers' Report: UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) asked messengers to review his report in the Book of Reports (p. 18). He noted that bi-vocational ministers constantly juggle the demands of family, church and job. It is difficult to find a balance, and not all succeed. In addition to this, the economic downturn of the last year has further strained churches. Rev. Medlin urged any church facing conflict to seek Dr. Burton's guidance. Also, the lack of young people in attendance at UBA quarterly sessions concerns Rev. Medlin. He urged association churches to make a strong effort to include a broader range of ages when selecting messengers. Senior members are unquestionably a great asset to our churches, but there is also much to be gained by harnessing the youth and enthusiasm of younger members. They must prepare to lead UBA churches in the future. The vice moderator led a prayer for UBA bi-vocational pastors.

Associate Director of Missions' Report: Rev. Hawkins remarked that UBA has seen an exciting, great year. Five hundred UBA youth will volunteer at the Operation Christmas Child distribution center in December, and plans are underway for another successful year for the Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store. The president of Fruitland has encouraged Rev. Hawkins to refer to local seminary classes as the Fruitland Bible Baptist Institute Monroe Campus, not simply a "satellite." Four classes are currently offered, meeting on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Faculty members are Dr. Stephen Stewart, Dr. Billy Belk, Dr. Ron Lynch and Dr. Mel Winstead. Rev. Hawkins encouraged UBA churches to continue to pray for these classes and their students, noting that perhaps a future Billy Graham is enrolled in these courses today. Rev. Hawkins' complete report is found in the Book of Reports (p. 15).

Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: Dr. Funderburk (Shiloh) directed messengers to his report in the Book of Reports (p. 35-36). He reported that UBA churches have traveled all over the world this year. Numerous trips have been made to Aberdeen, NC, to work on completion of Camp Duncan, a camp for at-risk girls. A group recently returned from Guatemala, and another trip is planned to this region in October 2011. Mission trips to Haiti are planned for February and April 2011. Locally, the next series of Spanish for Missions classes will begin in January 2011. Tracts, evangecubes and copies of the Jesus movie are available at the UBA office.....purchased at bulk rates to offer better prices for mission groups. Dr. Funderburk is optimistic that a disaster recovery class will be offered in Union County in 2012. He closed by offering his assistance to any group needing help in the planning of a mission trip. Dr. Burton praised Dr. Funderburk and Rev. Carrol Anthony (pastor, Philadelphia) for their actions during a recent international mission trip. They encountered a medical team battling an outbreak of ringworm that had infected every member of a village. Both Dr. Funderburk and Rev. Anthony kneeled on the ground to wash and medicate children's feet. Dr. Burton shared that Dr. Funderburk is facing a health crisis, with a mass, cysts and stones recently identified in his kidneys. Exploratory surgery will be performed next week; Dr. Burton led messengers in a prayer for healing.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton referred messengers to his report in the Book of Reports (p. 24). He expressed appreciation to the UBA staff, calling them wonderful servants who are always willing to give 120 %. He has served as UBA Director of Missions for 16 ½ years and has seen many examples of God's grace and blessings during this time. Dr. Burton stressed that God has a mission for each of the 37,000 resident members of UBA churches. Messengers were asked to challenge their churches to be more mission-minded in 2011, reaching further than ever before. Touch lives for God. Plans are still in development stages to offer a Young Leaders Institute in Union County, targeting church members age 35 and younger in whom pastors see leadership potential. The course will be offer one or two nights each week for six weeks. There will be no cost for enrollment. Dr. and Mrs. Burton will depart for South Africa later this week; Mrs. Burton will return earlier, but Dr. Burton will be out of the county until Thanksgiving Day. While in South Africa, Dr. Burton will visit Johannesburg, Cape Town and other locations, working with local church leaders/congregations, seminary students/faculty, and IMB missionaries. The keynote address at tonight's session will be delivered by Dr. Linzay Rinquest, Principal of Cape Town Baptist Seminary in South Africa. Dr. Burton encouraged messengers to attend this meeting, as well as the provided dinner and missions presentations.

Workshop Preview and Room Directions/Benediction and Blessing for Dinner: Rev. Hawkins described upcoming breakout sessions. Mission presentations will be offered in the sanctuary by Hermon and Hopewell. The one-hour personal evangelism crash course – covering topics such as marked New Testament, evangecube, tracts and personal testimony – will meet in the choir room. Breakout sessions end at 5:00 pm, at which time messengers should gather in the sanctuary for the annual sermon. Dr. Burton gave instructions for completion of attendance cards, and Rev. Medlin led a blessing for the upcoming dinner. Breakout sessions began at 3:52 pm.

SECOND SESSION (resumed at 5:00 pm): "Our Mission"

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed "Amazing Grace."

Annual Sermon: Rev. Kenn Hucks (pastor, Sardis) delivered a message describing the "Fundamentals in Following Jesus." (1) Exalt and Confess the Leadership of Christ Through Our Lives: Rev. Hucks read Philippians 2:9. Christians are obligated to continually, consistently and persistently proclaim Jesus as personal Lord and Savior. Attempts to witness will be fruitless unless Christ is predominant in our lives. (2) Love Those Around Us As Jesus Loves: The Christian's love is inadequate unless it is modeled on Jesus' example. There are no limits or exceptions to this type of love…..and no excuses. With Jesus, love never ends. (3) Practice: Christians must be active, not passive, in their walk with Jesus. There will be many obstacles, but no Christian can effectively carry out the mission that God has planned for another. No one can love Jesus for you. The good news is that God calls each Christian to do what they do best….and each Christian does have a calling. It is through Jesus that Christians can put self aside and accept the surrender and sacrifice that are necessary to complete God's plan for their lives. Rev. Hucks closed by leading messengers in prayer.

Dinner/Mission Fair: Dr. Burton gave instructions for dinner and the missions fair. The afternoon sessions adjourned at 5:30 pm.

THIRD SESSION: "His Mission"

"But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that you should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light; Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." I Peter 2: 9-10 (The Message)

Call to Order: The moderator welcomed messengers back and called the evening session to order. He announced the theme of the evening session as "His Mission" and read I Peter 2: 9-10.

Welcome/Scripture and Invocation: Rev. Martin invited messengers to return to his church in the future. He remarked that the afternoon session illustrated that inspiring and creative things are happening within UBA churches. He thanked Rev. Hucks for his annual sermon, then led a prayer.

Second Roll Call of the Churches: The clerk conducted roll call and declared a quorum with 36 UBA churches represented.

Recognition of UBA Council and Committee Members: The moderator reminded messengers not in attendance at the afternoon session to complete an attendance card. UBA Council and committee members were recognized by standing.

Missions and Outreach Committee Report & Bivens/Funderburk Award for Missions Excellence: UBA Mission and Outreach Committee Chairman Mr. T. C. Carter (Hermon) announced Bivens/Funderburk Awards for Missions Excellence recipients. Euto Baptist Church received the church award, with the individual award presented to Rev. Carrol Anthony.

Congregational Hymns: "Oh, How I Love Jesus," My Jesus, I Love Thee," and "I Love You, Lord."

Offertory: The offering was designated to the UBA Missions Resource Center. The vice-moderator led the offertory prayer. Instrumental music, "How Great Thou Art," was provided by Mrs. Montgomery.

Miscellaneous Business (Continued from Afternoon Session): The moderator repeated the motion regarding the El Buen Pastor mortgage as presented to messengers at the afternoon session (see text above). He called for questions; there were none. The motion passed unanimously by show of hands. The vice-moderator read the proposed constitutional amendment as presented to messengers at the afternoon session (see text above). He called for questions. A typographical error was noted from the floor, and a request was made to change the word "respectfully" to "respectively," as it correctly appears elsewhere in the amendment. A motion was made to accept this change; it passed unanimously. The vice moderator called for further questions; there were none. The motion to accept the corrected amendment passed unanimously by show of hands.

Youth Committee Report: UBA Youth Committee Chairman Mr. Frank Casstevens (New Salem) referred messengers to his committee's report in the Book of Reports (p. 65). He believes that a great need in UBA churches is to continue to find ways to effectively reach students. These youth face perils, and they desperately need to be heard and loved by the adults surrounding them. Mr. Casstevens noted that while he requested 600 volunteer slots for the December 3 UBA night at Operation Christmas Child distribution center, he was granted only 500. These slots have already been filled and a waiting list begun. He is optimistic that 600 slots will be granted for 2011, and his goal is to see 1000 UBA youth at the distribution center in a future year. Four major youth events will be planned for 2011, including a Praise and Worship Night at West Monroe in March, Operation Inasmuch in the Spring, a large outdoor fellowship in the summer (location to be determined), and Operation Christmas Child volunteer night in December. Mr. Casstevens stressed that churches must plan to participate in order for these events to be successful. He closed by welcoming four new members to the UBA Youth Council.

Women's Missionary Union (WMU) Report: UBA WMU Director Mrs. Brenda Carter (Hermon) encouraged messengers to read WMU reports, including a list of leadership, in the Book of Reports (pp. 61-64). She thanked the ladies of WMU for their faithfulness and assured messengers that WMU remains strong in UBA churches. Mrs. Pat Haigler (Centerview) was introduced as the new WMU director; she began service in September. She thanked association pastors and congregations for their support of WMU projects during her years of service as WMU director.

Resolutions and Nominating Committee Reports: Dr. Burton requested that messengers read the Resolutions Committee report in the Book of Reports (p. 49). He stated that the Nominating Committee report appears in the Book of Reports (pp. 38-47) as well; elected officers begin service at the close of this evening's session.

Election of Officers: Dr. Burton announced that both the moderator and vice moderator are eligible for re-election to their respective offices. The floor was opened to nominations for moderator. Mr. Gene Williams, current moderator, was nominated for re-election. No further nominations were made, and messengers unanimously approved the motion. Next, nominations were taken for vice moderator. Current vice moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) was nominated. No further nominations were made, and messengers unanimously approved the motion.

Introduction of Keynote Speaker: Dr. Burton recalled his first sabbatical in Cape Town, South Africa when he taught for three months at a small college. He met the college registrar, Linzay Rinquest, who now serves as principal of Cape Town Baptist Seminary. The seminary, which has struggled under Apartheid, includes a mixed culture of international students. Most students attend on scholarship, and few are able to afford to buy textbooks. Dr. Rinquest faithfully leads faculty and students who sacrifice to work and attend the seminary. He and his family are making a real difference in South Africa. UBA churches are encouraged to pray for them.

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed "When We All Get to Heaven."

Annual Sermon: Dr. Rinquest began by thanking Dr. Burton and UBA for their partnership with his seminary. UBA support, both prayer and financial, has had a tremendous impact. He delivered a message titled "The Nature of Christian Ministry," focusing on scripture from John 13: 1-17. Dr. Rinquest is dumbstruck by the mercy principles shared by Jesus in this passage. The Lord washes His disciples' feet, then instructs them to follow his example. Church politics too often fall into the system of "survival of the fittest." Leaders struggle to keep their churches "on top," forgetting that the Lord's instruction is to serve, not to be served. In fact, Christian ministry is best summarized by the word "serve." It is the ultimate Christian attitude. Dr. Rinquest declared that there are Three Ministry Principles Illustrated by Jesus: (1) The Motivation of Jesus' Ministry was Love – Jesus' love was, above all else, self-sacrificing. This level of love requires more than mere words. It mandates action. (2) The Method of Jesus' Ministry was Service – Jesus illustrated that true ministry is the equivalent of servitude, and it requires a blend of self-sacrifice and action. Today's Christians often become misdirected, seeking position and title. (3) The Manner of Jesus' Ministry was Humility – Washing the feet of another was considered humiliating servants' work, yet Jesus did not hesitate to kneel before his disciples and do just that. For Christians to follow this example, we must overcome a natural tendency to strive for importance. Dr. Rinquest shared that each graduate at his seminary is presented with a towel as a tangible reminder of this lesson. He urged messengers to remember three important words – love, service, humility – then closed in prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Wherever He Leads I'll Go."

Benediction: The vice moderator thanked messengers for their attendance, then issued a challenge to "leave in humility and love and go in service of our Lord Jesus Christ." He led a closing prayer, and the annual session adjourned at 8:32 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins

BIVENS-FUNDERBURK INDIVIDUAL AWARD FOR MISSIONS EXCELLENCE 2010

The Bivens-Funderburk Award for individual excellence in missions was presented to Rev. Carrol Anthony, pastor of Philadelphia Baptist Church. He is a true example of someone committed to missions, having traveled with mission trips to Mexico, Honduras, Guatemala, South Africa and many other locations. He has also served in the past as moderator for UBA. Rev. Anthony leads his congregation to engage, support, and pray for missions at every level. He is active in disaster relief efforts, and his active social ministries include an affiliation with many service agencies in the community. He is always willing to serve, give and go as called by the Lord.

BIVENS-FUNDERBURK CHURCH AWARD FOR MISSIONS EXCELLENCE 2010

The Bivens-Funderburk Award for missions excellence in an association church was presented to Euto Baptist Church. The award was accepted by Missions Director Mrs. Donna Whitley. This church has a long history of assisting with disaster relief efforts as well as supporting UBA projects. The congregation embraces the 10/10/10 concept of missions support, and for several years has increased its financial contribution to missions on an annual basis. The many outreach projects supported by Euto include Belarusian childrens ministry, after-school program, disaster relief, literacy education, Operation Christmas Child, sports programs, Harvestfest, back-to-school activities, prison ministry, food pantry, motorcycle ministry, Peru missions, and more.

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ASSOCIATION QUARTERLY SESSION MINUTES

WINTER SESSION MINUTES
January 26, 2010 – Ebenezer Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Welcome/Invocation: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) welcomed messengers and gave instructions for the completion of attendance cards. He announced the session theme as "A Living Faith of Hope and Service," then read scripture from Jeremiah 17: 7-8. The moderator extended thanks to the ladies of church group 6 for providing the meal. Rev. Tim Rogers (pastor, Ebenezer) added his words of welcome.

Musical Meditation: UBA Music Director Rev. Jack Little (Harvest Ministries) introduced the Taylors, a vocal quartet of siblings from Lillington, NC. He encouraged UBA churches to invite the group to perform for their congregations. The Taylors sang two selections.

Call to Order: The moderator called the session to order and recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Annual Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 34 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA annual session held October 27, 2009, at Monroe First Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Recognition of New Ministers: The moderator recognized Dr. Maurice Henson as the new pastor at East Campus.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report: UBA Treasurer and Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) asked messengers to review the December 2009 Monthly Church Contributions Report. He brought a recommendation from the Stewardship Committee that the group be authorized to continue monitoring the 2010 budget and make changes as necessary. There was no discussion; the motion carried unanimously. A second motion was brought on behalf of the Stewardship Committee and Staff Relations Committee that the UBA staff be granted a 3% raise for the 2010 calendar year. Raises have been frozen for two years, with compensatory time granted in 2009. This will necessitate a revision to the 2010 budget. Dr. Funderburk stated that the increase is affordable based on current UBA income, but the Stewardship Committee reserves the right to freeze raises in the event of economic downturn. Rev. Chris Justice (pastor, Lee Park) noted that it was gracious for the UBA staff to relinquish raises in past years. He suggested that the motion be amended to include an opportunity to seek financial cuts elsewhere in the budget before freezing raises. Rev. Bill Fogarty (pastor, Weddington

First) suggested a further amendment that the budget status be presented at each quarterly session, charging the messengers with making the decision to suspend raises. A motion was made to add the two amendments to the motion; it passed unanimously. The subsequent vote on the revised motion was likewise unanimous.

Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: Dr. Funderburk asked messengers to review flyers describing several mission opportunities. Union Baptist Church is sponsoring a trip to Sisseton, South Dakota on June 12-20 to conduct an American Indian summer camp, Dakota Sonshine. Cost for participation will be under $300. Volunteers will be needed to conduct Bible school, prepare meals, witness and assist with construction projects. Mr. David Seymour is seeking additional volunteers in the construction of Duncan Girls Camp in Aberdeen, NC. Teams are assembling to work on March 6-8 and March 18-20. Information on an October trip to Guatemala will be presented at a later date. Dr. Funderburk noted that the mission trip to Mexico may be cancelled in order to channel all available resources into Haiti earthquake relief. There will be large-scale emphasis on Haiti within UBA, including mission trips into the region once the infrastructure can support volunteer efforts. Messengers were provided with a preparation list – including topics such as passports, vaccinations, insurance, travel and lodging – for volunteers planning to travel to Haiti. There is a great need for both physical and spiritual relief in that country.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Missions and Outreach Committee Report: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chair Mr. T. C. Carter (Hermon) brought a motion on behalf of his committee that New Life Brazilian Baptist Church be received into UBA watchcare. The church is located in the Ballantyne community. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously. New Life Brazilian's lay pastor, Jean Paul Faria, who is currently completing seminary training, briefly addressed messengers on behalf of his congregation. A second motion was made that Harvest Ministries of Monroe, NC, pastor, Rev. Jack Little, be received into UBA watchcare. This is a new church plant partnering with Lee Park. Current average attendance is 20. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously. Mr. Carter recognized Rev. Rogers to discuss a third motion that Foundation be moved from watchcare status to full fellowship within UBA. The church, led by Rev. Victor Dermid, originated within Ebenezer. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously.

Congregation Hymn: "I Love You, Lord." Rev. Little led congregational hymns throughout the evening, with Mrs. Pam Grooms (pianist, Indian Trail First) as accompanist.

Offering: The offering was designated for Haiti disaster relief. The moderator led an offertory prayer. The offering totaled $1008.65.

Unfinished Business: UBA Vice Moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) gave praise to God for the church plants supported by the association. He proceeded to bring the following motion from the Community Baptist Church Property Study Committee:

- That the property be sold for the best attainable price
- That the proceeds be used to
  - a. Retire the mortgage of $120,000 on the property
  - b. Retire the mortgage of the UBA Missions Resource Center
  - c. The majority of the remaining balance be invested and utilized through the Baptist Foundation for the missions causes of Union Baptist Association

The vice moderator informed messengers that the UBA Council met in a called session on October 15, 2009, and was informed that the members of Community voted to disband. A clause in the church's covenant stated that the property would revert back to UBA in the event that the church cease operation. A $120,000 mortgage remains on the property, which is located in a prime location off of Old Charlotte Highway. UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) spoke regarding this issue, noting that the UBA study committee appointed to oversee the Community property has obtained an independent appraisal valuing the property in excess of $1 million. After several meetings and much discussion, the study committee concluded that sale of the property would be in the best interest of the association. Based on past experience, the committee was not confident that other church starts would succeed in that location. A layman has paid the Community mortgage at no cost to UBA, offering a two-year period to the association for sale of the property. The building has been secured and insured. The moderator called for questions. There were none. The motion passed unanimously.

New Business: The vice moderator called for new business. None was noted.

Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) remarked that he counts it a great privilege to work with the UBA staff and member churches. He recently preached at Mt. Olive in the absence of the interim pastor. Five people told him of the positive impact that UBA has had on them and their church. Rev. Hawkins introduced Mr. Duane Helms, a member at Mt. Olive, to messengers.

Associational Testimony: Mr. Helms described his 177-year-old church as very small (25-30 members), led by a bi-vocational pastor. He thanked the UBA staff for their willingness to offer guidance through any problem, either large or small. The church has sought assistance with pastor search procedures, Bible study workshops, growth classes, conflict resolution, and more. Mt. Olive is making great strides as a friendly and Christ-centered congregation of believers. Mr. Helms noted that it is a great comfort to know that UBA is an association willing to stand behind and assist its member churches. He also recommended that churches contact Rev. Hawkins when a guest preacher is needed.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton thanked messengers for their support of the motions and recommendations brought before them tonight. He noted that a Dell projector is overdue for return to the UBA office; timely return of borrowed equipment is important as there is frequent demand for it. Dr. Jim Ballard will offer a training class "Pastoral Counseling and How to Conduct an Assessment" on February 9 at the MRC. Fellowship is at 9:30 a.m., followed by the class at 10:00 a.m. Dr. Ballard briefly addressed messengers, extending an invitation to visit his office to any church leader or lay person in need of counseling. Dr. Burton encouraged messengers to attend a personal finance seminar led by Mr. Jimmy Godwin, president and CEO of Forms and Supply. Topics will include paying off debt, saving, tithing, missions support, and more. The 1 ½ hour seminar will be offered at the MRC on February 16, with a repeat session at Community Baptist on February 23. Dr. Burton asked UBA churches to engage in earnest prayer and preparation for Haiti disaster relief efforts. Churches will take special offerings during the month of February. There is also a great evangelistic need in that country, which does not host any International Mission Board missionaries. Dr. Burton urged messengers to exercise caution in donating to the many available Haiti relief funds; many funnel little of the money received into actual relief efforts. He noted that 100% of funds donated through the Baptist Men relief agency are sent directly into Haiti; there is no reduction for overhead. Dr. Burton closed by encouraging messengers to visit the MRC.

Musical Meditation: The Taylors performed two selections. They also described the "Taylors on Mission" project, which assists soup kitchens and homeless shelters in Vermont. Sixty-three professions of faith have resulted from this outreach. Rev. Little thanked the group for their performance, noting that the siblings received no financial compensation for this evening. He urged those in attendance to visit the Taylors' display/sales table in the church foyer. All proceeds will be donated to the "Taylors on Mission" fund.

Message: Rev. Shad Hicks (pastor, Mount Pleasant) delivered a message titled "Learn How to Walk," with scripture from Romans 13: 10-14. In this letter, Paul instructs Romans on Christian conduct. He tells them to walk properly with God in order to arrive where He wants them to be. The same instruction holds true for today's Christians. Rev. Hicks asserted that there are five steps for learning to have a proper Christian walk: (1) Christians must respond to each other in love, seeking to do no harm to one another, (2) Christians must perform self-evaluation to determine their hearts' true condition, (3) Christians must clothe their lives in the proper attire, putting away sin in favor of living holy, (4) Christians must begin walking in righteousness and holiness, turning their backs on lust, strife, jealousy, alcohol, lewdness, fighting and other sinful behaviors, (5) Christians must rely on what God can do in their lives every day, which is far superior to what the individual can achieve. Rev. Hicks closed by remarking on the supernatural power of God to do all things. His is a hand that will never shorten. Nothing is impossible through God.

Congregational Hymn: "Lord, Be Glorified."

Benediction & Adjournment: Rev. Little led messengers in a closing prayer, and the session adjourned at 9:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Winter Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 32 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA winter session held January 26, 2010, at Ebenezer Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report & Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: UBA Treasurer and Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) asked messengers to review the March 2010 Treasurer's Report. He noted that year-to-date revenue totals are "fair." There is a need for continued support. Dr. Funderburk announced plans for an assembly in front of the Union County Courthouse in recognition of the National Day of Prayer on May 6. This will be a short prayer meeting open to the public. A medical/construction mission team will depart for Haiti on May 9. Though this trip is closed to new participants; there will be other opportunities to volunteer in the earthquake ravaged region. There is an upcoming mission trip to West Virginia, sponsored in conjunction with the Stanly Baptist Association. Guatemala is the destination for an October 2010 mission trip. Volunteers will work with the Hearts for Heaven mission group to feed impoverished children. Three "blitzes" have been held to date to complete construction of Camp Duncan, an at-risk girls' camp, in Aberdeen. A UBA Youth Blitz is planned for June 2010. WMU is planning to oversee cleaning prior to the facility opening. In addition, many UBA church groups and individuals are volunteering their time at the camp. Dr. Funderburk urged any church interested in beginning a missions' ministry to contact him for help with logistics.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Council Recommendation/Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) brought forth a recommendation from the UBA Council that the association enter into a covenant agreement with Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute to offer its program of pastoral education. These courses are to begin in the fall of 2010 and will be applied toward an Associate's Degree." The vote was taken and the recommendation passed unanimously. Rev. Hawkins explained that two classes will be offered at the UBA missions resource center (MRC) on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. UBA will provide the facility and utilities. Most work will be completed locally, with students required to travel to Fruitland for a two-day, Friday and Saturday, session. Local, qualified teachers will be used. Cost of classes, which represent Fruitland's first satellite program, will be $150 per course. Rev. Hawkins noted that 25% of North Carolina pastors are Fruitland graduates. He asked for prayerful support of this venture, which will have an impact for generations to come. Anyone interested in registering for courses should contact Rev. Hawkins.

WMU Report: UBA WMU Director Mrs. Brenda Carter (Hermon) announced that a plant and bake sale benefiting Christian Women's Job Corps will be held at the MRC on Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1. Ladies groups willing to donate cakes, pies and cookies should contact Ann Dora Rollins. A community Fun Day is scheduled for May 29 at the apartment complex behind Bojangles, across from the Union County Bus Garage. Volunteers are needed to interact with the neighborhood children. Events for the day include clown entertainment, music, games, snacks, fellowship and Bible stories. Mrs. Carter encouraged UBA women to attend the Windows of the Heart Conference on October 9 at Marshville First Baptist Church. Phyllis Elvington will be the guest speaker. She is a dynamic and powerful speaker whose sessions at Ridgecrest are always popular. A fee of $18 includes registration, lunch and breakout sessions. Mrs. Carter shared that, following a recent conference focusing on the power of prayer, she was convicted of failing to pray for our nation as God commands. She issued a call to UBA women in the April newsletter to pray for the U.S. in the month of May. She also prepared a "Suggested Prayer Guide for our Nation," which was provided to messengers. In 2 Chronicles, God promises that He will heal a land if the people appeal to him via prayer. Mrs. Carter encouraged all UBA churches and families to make prayer for the nation a focus in the month of May.

Congregation Hymn: "Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)." Rev. Little led congregational hymns throughout the evening.

Offering: The offering was designated for Union Baptist Association.

Unfinished/New Business: The Vice Moderator called for unfinished business. None was noted. He called for new business. None was noted.

Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator's Report: UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) declared his appreciation for powerful lay leaders in the association. He also expressed concern over low attendance at some associational training sessions, such as the recent Vacation Bible School training clinic. He urged churches to better support those elected to leadership in UBA committees. A two-hour seminar titled "Sunday School in a Transformational Church" will be offered by UBA on May 10 at Lakeview. It will be led by Dr. Thom Ranier, President and CEO of LifeWay Christian Resources. Rev. Medlin called the meeting "a rare -- perhaps once in a lifetime -- opportunity." He appealed to UBA pastors to promote the event extensively within their churches. The Bi-vocational Ministers Conference will be held July 9-10 at Caraway. The cost is $50 per person, which includes lodging, three meals, speakers and breakout sessions for wives. Registration forms will be mailed to pastors.

Director of Missions' Report: UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) stressed that the upcoming Fruitland satellite courses are open to lay people as well as church pastors and other leaders. He noted that Dr. Jerry McGee, President of Wingate University, has agreed to open his school's library to enrollees. Dr. Burton recognized the UBA staff. Food and cleaning supplies are being collected this week at the MRC for Baptist Children's Homes. Additional volunteers are needed to organize donations. Dr. Burton urged UBA church members to participate in the National Day of Prayer gathering at the Union County Courthouse on May 6. He reiterated Mrs. Carter's plea to pray for the nation, thereby demonstrating ourselves to be proud, not bashful, Christians. The Community Baptist Church property continues to generate interest. Several parties have toured the facility, and a special session may be called in the event that an offer is made. Dr. Burton announced a change of location for the summer session on July 27. There is a conflict due to construction at Weddington First. Messengers will be notified once a new site is selected. The format for the meeting may be changed to include a covered dish supper, music and fellowship with minimal business. The Union County Health Department is compiling a volunteer database to be used in the event of a public health emergency. Registrations forms were provided to messengers. UBA church members were encouraged to frequently visit the association website, www.unionbaptist.com, for a wealth of current information. Dr. Burton noted that this week marks 16 years of service with UBA for him and his wife. He closed by noting two prayer requests: (1) UBA clerk Ashley Hawkins: upcoming hand surgery following an auto accident, and (2) Robert Byrd: hospitalized in intensive care unit at CMC-Charlotte.

Recognition of New Ministers: The vice moderator led a standing ovation in honor of the Burtons' years of service to UBA. The following new ministers were recognized: (1) Rev. Marty Quick, Mt. Olive, began service on March 7, and (2) Rev. John Miller, Pleasant Hill, began service on March 28.

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed one selection.

Message: Dr. John Hewett, Senior Pastor at First Baptist Church Monroe, brought a message titled "Where the Lord Looks," with scripture from 1 Samuel 16:1-13a. The scripture tells the story of Israel as a nation experiencing pain. Israelites had entered the Promised Land, only to find their loose collection of tribes quickly falling apart. God established a sanctuary in Shiloh, but the Israelites turned to pagan worship led by corrupt priests. Two civil wars followed. The Israelites cried out to God for a young leader, and God answered their pleas by sending King Saul. He proved to be a disappointment. Eventually Samuel followed God's command, embarking on a journey to Bethlehem to anoint a new king. Dr. Hewett used Samuel's journey to reveal five truths regarding how today's Christians can become people after God's own heart. (1) Faith often means letting go of a painful past and going into the future: This is often one of life's hardest lessons, (2) God does not leave us to do the difficult tasks He calls us to on our own: God always provides guidance and instruction, (3) When Christians obey God specifically, He never fails to provide protection: The result of disobedience is spiritual dryness, (4) One must be patient for God's revelation: Attempting to "get ahead of God" always leads to regret, and (5) Only God has the ability to see beneath the surface to the heart of a person: As Christians, we must allow God to see for us rather than indulging in our own flawed reactions. Dr. Hewett closed in prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Draw Me Close."

Benediction & Adjournment: Rev. Little led messengers in a closing prayer, and the session adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

The annual is dedicated in memory of Mrs. Donna Pittman, the driving force behind creation of the association's Christmas toy store in 2007. It was her dream and vision to reach out to families in need, giving parents the opportunity to provide Christmas gifts to their children for pennies on the dollar. The gospel is shared with each participating family. In addition, Mrs. Pittman was active in both music and missions at Faulks Baptist Church, participated in a prison ministry, served as WMU director and volunteered on the association's WMU Council as church-wide missions consultant. Shortly before cancer claimed her life in March 2009, the UBA toy store was renamed the Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store and a memorial fund was established at her request. Dr. Burton presented the 2009 UBA annual to Mrs. Pittman's son Gabe and family friend Mrs. Teresa Polk.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

This has been a very busy, thrilling, and rewarding year for our Union Baptist Association. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute began a Satellite School in our UBA Resource Center at 1744 Williams Road, October 5. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute is owned and operated by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and is dedicated to helping those who are called of God to become "workmen that need not to be ashamed." (II Timothy 2:15)

Fruitland is dedicated to serving the needs of students without regard to previous academic preparation. In the classroom and in the total experience of preparation for ministry, Fruitland seeks the spiritual development of its students.

Those of us who have been students at Fruitland can and will tell you about, "The Fruitland Experience."

During this first quarter, four classes are being offered: New Testament 101 (Professor Steve Stewart) and Research 101 (Professor Billy Belk) on Tuesday evenings; Theology 101 (Professor Ron Lynch) and Old Testament 101 (Professor Mel Winstead) on Thursday evenings.

I want to urge you to pray for Fruitland, the students, the faculty and your UBA Staff as we enter into this new ministry. It is an honor and a privilege to be a part of the Union Baptist Association. The Lord continues to bless this Association. I am grateful for the Staff that I have to work with and all of our churches.

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." II Corinthians 13:13 HCSB.

BAPTIST MEN'S MINISTRIES REPORT

The Baptist Men in Union County have worked on several projects this year—from helping erect a wilderness camp in Aberdeen to building wheel chair ramps in needed areas for residents in Waxhaw, Monroe and Marshville. A couple of area churches have Handyman Ministries within their group that reach out regularly to the needs in our local communities. We applaud all of you guys...and gals... for taking time out of your busy schedules to assist those less fortunate. These small acts of service prove to the world that you are living the call—to serve God through the selfless act of helping others.

"And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!' Matthew 25:40 (NLT)

Thank you for your willingness to serve!

BIBLE DRILL REPORT

On Sunday, March 28, 2010, the UBA Missions Resource Center was host to the 2010 Association Bible Drill Program. Ten students from Lakeview Baptist Church and Weddington Baptist Church participated.

Mrs. Connie Rape from Mountain Springs Baptist Church served as our Bible Drill Director. This year, she was assisted by Mrs. Angie York from Lakeview Baptist. The Association thanks both of these ladies for their work to promote and conduct this program.

We would like to encourage churches to consider implementing this program for your children and youth. The Bible Drill program includes a variety of activities that appeal to children and youth while providing them a strong foundation for life application of the Scriptures.

To request more information about the Bible Drill and Youth Speaker's Ministry, please contact Deborah Robson, Bible Drill Coordinator for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, at 1-800-395-5102, extension 5652 or email Deborah at drobson@ncbaptist.org.

BIVOCATIONAL MINISTRIES COORDINATOR'S REPORT

It is my privilege to serve the UBA again this year. Most of my service has been in the bivocational and small church arena.

Some of the churches are doing well while others are struggling financially and in attendance. I have discovered many people like the small church community rather than the big church setting. Either way, many are seeing decline in financial support and growth.

I want to say "Thank You" to all bivocational pastors and wives. They work a regular job and still minister to the people. This involves preparing a message for Sunday morning, possibly Sunday night and Wednesday night. It is a struggle balancing family time, church and work.

We were sorry to inform our association that Thom Rainer had to cancel his plan to be with us on May 10, 2010. Nashville, TN had a flood, and Dr. Rainer's home was damaged. The meeting was three years in the making and changed in one day. Special thanks to Dr. Donnie Gamble and his efforts in promoting Sunday School in Union Baptist Association.

I also serve on the state board as the Secretary Treasurer of the Bivocational Ministers. I serve with the Bivocational Conference as Vice-President. I work to encourage the state conference, a helpful tool for the bivocational pastor and wife. Our last conference was "Church Relationships: Stretching Our Faith While Surviving the Stress".

For the past six years I have stressed the importance of evangelism in associational VBS training. I believe "as the twig is bent so the tree is inclined". It has been my privilege to work with the associational VBS directors in promoting evangelism. Two of the greatest outreach avenues of the church are VBS and Sunday School.

Many thanks to all those in our association who have been assisting me in serving this year.

Rev. Tony Medlin

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S JOB CORPS OF UNION COUNTY

Christian Women's Job Corps was founded by the Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1994. CWJC of Union County is a ministry of the Union Baptist Association. The purpose of the ministry is to provide a Christian context in which women in need are equipped for life and employment and a mission context in which women help women.

We are accomplishing this task by ministering to the total woman spiritually, physically, emotionally, and educationally. Each woman is paired with a mentor. The mentor commits to spend time with the client each week. This accountability is provided until she graduates from the program.

At the present time we have 5 clients and only 3 active mentors. Our greatest need is additional mentors. Please pray for God to meet this need, perhaps through you.

WAYS YOUR WOMEN ON MISSION CAN HELP CWJC

1. Pray for the Ministry.
2. Volunteer to be a mentor. Training will be provided to equip you for ministry.
3. Adopt a client and her family for Christmas. Provide gifts and/or food.
3. Adopt a client for a year by providing a Bible and Bible Study materials.
5. Donate Walmart or Gas Cards for clients to use.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

THE CHALLENGE OF BEING MISSIONAL

I need to begin this report with a confession. In a year where money is extremely limited and people are struggling to even meet basic needs, it is easy to think in terms of retrenchment. Even the office has had a few months where we were cutting it close to try and make ends meet. I have found myself thinking more than once, "When this recession is over we can begin to do more in the way of missions." There have been times when I have wondered how we were going to fulfill even the commitments we have made this year and have felt they were a stretch.

I have had an opportunity to remember that the New Testament is full of mission experience where there were no resources but faith available to those who first told the Gospel Story to their world. I, also, in preparing to return to South Africa, have been reminded of former students who have gone into Prisons, Squatter Camps, Tribal Regions and City Slums with no funding, buildings, materials – only a Bible and themselves and they are reaching thousands for Christ.

The last church Gay and I served began at the close of the Civil War and many of the turn-of-the- century clerk's minutes survive. Reading the minutes of the church during the Great Depression often brought many tears as I saw their faith, commitment and service. Many pledged only a dime a month and often could not make that contribution.

Perhaps, today, there is an opportunity for us to not only rediscover the providence of our Lord, but also His simple mandate to go and be His living presence in the midst of a lonely world. It costs little or nothing to share His love and comfort with those in grief, only our time is needed to visit and listen to a home bound person and only a willingness to go and serve a meal at the Homeless Shelter. Jesus, in a prayer for his followers (and all who would come after them) offered a prayer to the Father in John 17. The eighteenth verse is more than applicable to us today: "In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I gave them a mission in the world". That mission has never changed. There are still those who simply accept and believe the Lord when he instructed us, "This is why I tell you: "Don't worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothing?" (Matthew 6:25) The first disciples and many in the body today, have taken ministry and mission at its face value. It is the most valuable opportunity on the earth today.

The state of the Union is solid, and we have a clear vision of where the Lord is leading us. Every member of the UBA Team is committed to supporting the ministry and mission of our member congregations. Every effort, conference, class or use of the Mission Resource Center is available to assist our churches in reaching our world for Christ. As never before, let us go on mission. Let us do missions. Let us support missions. Let us pray for missions. Let us be missions.

Thank you for the privilege of serving you in the calling you have given to Gay and me. It has been and is the most rewarding of our lives.

THE DONNA PITTMAN CHRISTMAS TOY STORE

The Toy Store ministry began in 2007, under the direction and leadership of Mrs. Donna Pittman, a faithful WMU worker and member at Faulks Baptist Church. After an extended illness, Donna passed away in March 2009. Before her death, the Toy Store was named in her honor, The Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store. A memorial fund for the Toy Store was established and has enabled this ministry to continue.

The third annual Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store was held on Saturday, December 12, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center, beginning at 8:00 am and ending at 7:00 pm. Many dedicated women and men volunteered for this ministry. Many individuals and church groups provided toys and food items for this event, along with prayers for the success of this ministry to families in Union County.

All parents come to shop at the Toy Store by referral. Referrals are received from church members, pastors, community leaders, school counselors, teachers, and agencies. In 2009, we were blessed to serve 75 families and 192 children.

A large variety of age appropriate, new toys, games, books, bicycles and tricycles were provided through generous donations. The UBA Missions Resource Center becomes a beautiful and colorful Christmas Toy Store, opening the doors to parents who cannot afford to buy toys for their children for Christmas. The parents are allowed to shop for new toys offered at the price of 10¢ on the dollar value of the toy. But, before leaving the Toy Store, each parent meets with a Counselor (a UBA pastor or lay leader) who shares the plan of Salvation and offers to pray with them to accept Christ as their Savior. It is a blessed event for those who shop and those who volunteer.

There is a place for everyone to be involved in this ministry. Contact the UBA Missions Resource Center for more information. Plans are well underway for the 2010 event which will be held Saturday, December 11, 2010. Monetary contributions continue to be received, payable to the Union Baptist Association for The Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store.

"To God be the glory, great things He hath done."

EVANGELISM REPORT

In Matthew 9:37 Jesus said to His disciples, "The harvest is truly plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

As long as we are in the world the work of evangelism is never done. Gospel laborers are always needed because the need is so great. Sadly today very few Christians actively share their faith on a regular basis.

This past year the association has focused on preparing our church members to go into the harvest fields wherever, whenever, and however they could. Three major training events have been held to equip individuals with skills and resources to share their faith. For the second year we have offered the Personal Evangelism – "Crash Course" which is a training session intended to equip believers to share their faith in a variety of ways. These sessions are only the beginning. Our hope is that churches would have their own training sessions and teach every member how to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

These sessions were held at West Monroe, Euto and here during our annual Meeting. In a one- hour period, four methods of personal evangelism were offered:

The Personal Evangelism "Crash Course" Included:

• Using The EvangeCube	Led By:	Henry Funderburk
• Giving Your Personal Testimony	Led By:	Brenda Carter
• Using Gospel Tracts	Led By:	Ted Wright
• Using a Marked New Testament	Led By:	Clyde Hawkins

Following one of the training events, the youth group of Midway Baptist went out to use what they had learned the following weekend and witnessed to several people!

We appreciate all those whose time and effort helped to make these events a reality and a witness for Christ. Our prayer is that God would use our efforts to further the Kingdom of God in Union County through the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted by,
Ted Wright, Chairman
Evangelism Committee

HILLCREST: We enclosed our open shelter and made it into a really nice fellowship building. We had outgrown our old building and it is so nice to have seating capacity for everyone. God has blessed us as we have seen a total of 92 folks saved since Jan. of 2010, even though not all have joined our church. It is such a blessing to see how God is working in lives. We have licensed two men into ministry – Gene Mullis Jr. (Bubba) and John Terry, which we support them in their work.

The summer camp held every year is always a blessing. We are so very thankful for all the volunteers who work so hard every year to make this successful. Especially when souls are saved, friendships & memories are made to last a lifetime. Our older youth are amazing in their spiritual growth. Even in the valleys of life we all are finding more and more that God is so good! Our theme is “Everybody is Somebody, but Jesus is ALL!” We started a web page this year and also Preacher Gene is on the radio every Sunday from 1:30-2:00 pm on 1190 am “Mighty WIXIE”

Church plant of Hopewell Spanish Church here on campus and Freedom Biker Church of Monroe NC.

LEE PARK: Over the past year Lee Park continued to embrace change due to growth. We added a third Sunday morning worship service in English and a fourth worship service in Spanish. Our service times have moved to 8:30 and 9:45 and 11:00 (English and Spanish)

In 2010 we were also blessed with additional staff. Rev. Miguel Santos has been added to lead our Spanish-speaking congregation. Maleah Fraley has been brought on as a full-time Director of Children’s Ministry. Josh Farley has been added to our Youth Department as an Associate of Student Ministries. Robin Hargett and Lorraine Matthews have joined our staff to work in the office. We also have had great volunteer work in the office from Joanne Biggers and Judy Moore.

Small group Bible study space has been limited in our current facility. To help deal with growth issues, we have expanded our small groups – or Link Groups-to Wednesday night and Sunday night. Again, our people have adapted extremely well to the changes.

Also this year, the membership at Lee Park has voted to move forward with plans to build a new Worship Center. We are calling our program Vision 2010. The building has been approved, additional land has been purchased, and we are now in the process of negotiating a loan for the project. Our hope is to begin construction sometime in 2011.

As we look forward to 2011, we are excited about the addition of an Executive Pastor, more office help and a Facilities Manager. We're excited about even more changes in 2011 as God continues to lead.

A dedication service of the gazebo and time capsule took place after lunch. Centennial history books were published and could be purchased.

MISSION COORDINATOR'S REPORT

Acts 1:8 and Matthew 28:18-20 are worded differently but give the same message. These are some of the last words Jesus said before He ascended into heaven. If we are soldiers in the Christian army, these scriptures must be viewed as God's marching orders. There may be scriptures that we can debate and not fully understand, but nowhere in the Bible is the language any more clear than in Acts 1:8 nor in the Great Commission. Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments."

When Jesus gave these orders, the church was hardly greater than the small group of disciples who watched Him return to the Father. There was technically no church until the Holy Spirit empowered this small body of believers at Pentecost. And, what power they had. The church went from zero to three thousand in one day. People were witnessing. People were doing miracles. People were being saved, all under the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus gave the command. The Holy Spirit empowered the church. And, we are to obey and share the gospel with a lost and dying world. Although we worship in separate buildings and even in separate denominations, we are all members of one church which is the bride of Christ. It is the responsibility of that bride to reach people for Christ. The UBA is pleased that member congregations are doing wonderful mission projects all over the world.

We have many full time missionaries from Union County, some of whom are putting their lives on the line every day. Many missionaries are commissioned by the International Mission and North American Mission Boards and many others are raising their own funds. Some are Baptist and some are not. Nevertheless we should pray regularly for all of our Christian missionaries.

Many of our member churches send people on short term mission trips to one or more countries. When you consider all the countries aided by so many of our mission teams and missionaries, you can see that much of the world is covered by Union County Baptists alone. Several of our churches have taken on specific areas and are partnering with churches in Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Liberia, South Africa and other nations.

During the 2010 year, there has been a significant focus on Camp Duncan, a camp in Aberdeen for at-risk girls. David and Frances Seymour were the construction coordinators for North Carolina Baptist Children's Homes. There were teams from the association and from various churches as well as individuals who went to do grading, fencing, electrical, painting, roofing, plumbing, HVAC, carpentry, demolition and other kinds of work, all for the purpose of helping to build a camp in ministry to these girls. This camp is similar to the boys' camp, Camp Cameron.

We have conducted classes in Spanish for Missions and have plans for new classes beginning in January of 2011. We buy mission aids such as tracts, evangecubes, and the Jesus Movie at bulk prices and make them available at reduced prices.

Church teams have worked separately and in collaboration with UBA in construction projects in Union County. Two of the most notable projects involving the UBA were Help Crisis Pregnancy Center and Community Health.

In 2010 the UBA sponsored two foreign mission trips. One was to Guatemala to feed hungry children and to share with them and their families the message of Jesus Christ. The other was in response to the devastating earthquake on January 12, 2010. The Union Baptist Association sent 279 five-gallon buckets of food to Haiti in the statewide Buckets of Hope program. A construction mission team sent by the UBA saw many of those buckets in use as Haitians were using them to port water from communal wells. This team of six along with five Haitians hired by N. C. Baptist Men built 20 frame houses covered with tarp material and tin roofs. Union County Baptists gave over $12,000 as disaster relief for Haiti. There are plans for similar trips to these and other countries in 2011.

UBA makes resources available for churches planning mission trips.

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH COMMITTEE

(Title Missions) - This committee shall function in three areas of work (new church, church starts, and missions ministries).

In the area of new church, this committee shall receive applications from all churches desiring to affiliate with the Union Baptist Association. The committee shall make such investigation as is needful into the Statement of Faith and Order of the applicant, and at such time as it deems proper, shall make a recommendation to the Association that the applicant come under the watchcare of the Association for the period of at least six months. During this period, the church shall appoint the pastor and one lay member who shall attend the Association sessions and give a brief report of the work of their church including cooperation with the Association and Conventions. At the end of this period, the Missions and Outreach Committee shall make further recommendations to the Associational Council for their joint recommendation to the Association concerning the applicant's request.

In the area of church starts, this committee shall meet periodically to survey areas for possible future missions and/or churches, and shall conduct the necessary census and surveys to determine the needs. When such need has been determined, the Committee shall, with the approval of the Association, purchase such lands as are desirable for the future development of missions and/or churches at such time as a sponsoring church can be found and is deemed appropriate by the Committee.

In the area of mission ministries, this committee shall determine the need for ministries (benevolence, literacy, ethnic, blind, deaf, etc.) which are too large to be sponsored by one church. The committee would study the need and determine the associational resources needed to provide the ministry. The committee would recommend to the Association the approach to providing a ministry in this area.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Sunday School exists to assist the church in accomplishing its God-given mission of making disciples. Sunday School's disciple-making process is best implemented as an open small group ministry strategy with intentional evangelism, foundational discipleship and life-changing Bible study at its core. Every local church should be committed to providing the best in resources and leadership development in order to make Sunday School a successful ministry.

There are several learning opportunities made available to our association to further develop the leadership skills of our Sunday School leaders. Here's a list of what is offered:

- Regional REAL Leadership Training: this conference focuses on Relationships, Evangelism, Assimilation, and Life-changing Bible study through Sunday School ministry.
- Sunday School Growth Plan Seminar: this three-hour seminar is for church leaders and pastors who want to customize a Sunday School growth plan. Additional coaching by a specialist is provided beyond the seminar.
- Sunday School Mentoring: A Sunday School mentor works with up to 10 churches for 12 months and provides training, accountability, and continuous coaching. Mentors give each church action steps to complete before the next meeting. Each church receives an on-site, individual mentor consultation.
- PowerUP Your Sunday School Conference: This two-hour conference introduces PowerUP to your Sunday School. This is a seven-week, evangelistically driven plan for enrolling new people in Sunday School and culminates with a high attendance Sunday.
- Coaching: Coaching is a one-on-one approach in which one coach works with one church in three to four sessions to identify ways the Sunday School can become a disciple-making ministry.

If your church is interested in additional information regarding any of these equipping models, please contact the UBA Resource Center to arrange a consultation.

Respectfully submitted,
Donnie Gamble, UBA Sunday School Director

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL REPORT

The UBA VBS Clinic was held Saturday morning, April 24, 9-11 am at the Missions Resource Center. The Saddle Ridge Ranch Theme was presented, Roundin' Up Questions and Drivin' Home Answers. The VBS theme was based on James 1:5. "Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives to all generously and without criticizing, and it will be given to him."

Our VBS Team put together an informative, motivational clinic. From 17 UBA churches, 58 people attended.

The 2010 Team members are listed as follows. And, we thank each one of them for their diligent work, cooperation and dedication to the task of presenting the curriculum and all the rotation areas to complete a Vacation Bible School for our member congregations.

Our thanks to Sonya Gaddy (Antioch) VBS Director, for her enthusiastic leadership again this year. She put together a great team as follows:

Rev. Tony Medlin, (Euto) our resident cowboy, shared an evangelistic emphasis with those in attendance, generating this responsive comment..."The Cowboy's job is to take care of the cattle, and our job is to take care of the children!"

The VBS theme music with sign language was demonstrated by Megan & Anna Spurlock, Katie Nicholson, Amber Privette, & Kelsey Drake. These young ladies, from Antioch, willingly and cheerfully shared their musical gifts.

The theme-related refreshments were prepared by Anne Arp and Catherine Fowler, (Lakeview), assisted by Catherine's daughters, Christi, Sarah and Laura. Recipe cards were on display and samples prepared.

Holly Sadowski (Antioch) provided instructions for the crafts. She and her Mother, Cathy Kiker, made the crafts to display and made themselves available for helpful tips for VBS Craft Departments within the churches.

The literature was displayed by Kelly Hamilton (Lakeview), who made herself available to answer curriculum related questions.

A new item of instruction on the agenda was "Global VBS" given by Beverly Austin (East Campus). Beverly shared a mission trip experience to Trinidad last year where East Campus members conducted a Vacation Bible School using extra materials collected from our churches. How wonderful to see the materials used to make a difference in children's lives in Trinidad.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY UNION (WMU) REPORT

WMU EMPHASIS THEME 2009-2010: "CALLED TO LOVE"

EMPHASIS WATCHWORD: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:37-39 NIV, adapted)

In the second year of this WMU theme, WMU members were challenged with the call in verse 39 to "love our neighbor as ourself". Loving others begins with a response to God's overflowing love to each of us. We are to freely give what we have freely received relentlessly, faithfully, and patiently. It is hard to love someone we do not know or understand; however, we can as we allow the Holy Spirit to help us see others with His eyes, think with His thoughts, and feel with His heart.

The following events were held, mission projects and scholarships supported by WMU organizations in the association during the 2009-2010 WMU Year.

- WMU Church Leadership Training September 28, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. Leadership Team members shared new ideas and updates on the work of WMU.
- Windows of the Heart Women's Conference was held October 24, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. Zoe Elmore, Proverbs 31 Ministries shared from her life experiences, "Discover God's SECRET to Inner Beauty". Approximately 45 women attended this conference.
- Seeing God's Creation with New Eyes was the theme for the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer on Tuesday, November 2, 2009 at the Union Baptist Association Missions Resource Center. Total offering for North American Baptist Women's Union was $226.00.
- Annual WMU Celebration, March 29, 2010 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. A focus on Mission Friends was celebrated as Shirley Davis, Mt. Pleasant Church shared personal experiences of teaching young children about missions and ways they can participate in sharing Jesus' love. A report of Mission/Ministry Activities by WMU ladies of Mill Creek was inspiring and challenged all present to be more mission minded. Lisa Warren, Euto Baptist Church was the guest speaker. Lisa shared about God's call on her life to be involved in the work of Operation Christmas Child and then the opportunity for her family to be International Service Corp members from August 2008 until August 2009 in Swaziland, Africa. Her family has a heart for the Swazi people and looks forward to returning to this mission opportunity as God leads and directs their steps. Becky Simpson presented The Leadership Team report for the new WMU year. The following women were elected to serve as Associational leaders. WMU Director – Pat Haigler, Women on Mission/Adults – Brenda Carter, Churchwide Missions – Bobbie Lee, Acteens/Youth – Lynn Gentry, GA's/Children – Crystal Rowell, Missions Friends - Shirley Davis.
- 2010 Mary Blair Scholarship recipient:
  Rebecca Ellen Stegall, East Campus First Baptist Church-Indian Trail
  Rebecca was a Home Schooled student with a passion for music. This $500.00 scholarship will be used to pursue a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education at Wingate University.
- Mission Projects:
  "Red Box" Christmas ministry to NC Correctional Institute and Raleigh Correctional Center for women inmates. (Toothpaste)
  Collection of "Personal Hygiene Kits" for local community ministries.
  The goal was 100 kits – over 260 kits were received. These kits were shared with Turning Point, Community Shelter, Dorcas Ministries Inc. and D-Vine Ministries.
  "Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store" for needy families December 12th
  "Fun Day" at the Apartment complex on Venus Street on May 29th

For more than 20 years, WMU worked with the UBA Prison Ministry at the North Carolina Correctional Center located on Sutherland Avenue. One of the major mission projects for WMU was collecting personal items for Christmas gift boxes and providing home-made cakes for a Christmas Party to approximately 100 inmates. This project received the largest percentage of participation by our churches than any other mission project supported by our association. In the summer of 2009, the North Carolina Department of Corrections announced that the Union County facility would be closed in October, 2009. This was a big disappointment to those who had embraced this ministry; giving much time but receiving so many blessings during this long period of partnership. Only God knows the number of people whose lives were touched through this act of kindness and expression of His love. Thank you to everyone who participated in this mission endeavor.

Thanks be to God for the blessings He has bestowed on the work of WMU through the churches of Union Baptist Association and the lives that have been changed as people responded to God's "call to love". TO GOD BE THE GLORY!!!

Serving with Others in His Strength,
Brenda Carter, UBA WMU Director

YOUTH COMMITTEE REPORT

As another year is being written in the books, we celebrate the awesome work that so many of our local congregations are providing through youth ministry. Last Dec. in 2009, we witnessed 450 students and their leaders from over 23 congregations, join together to represent the UBA at "Operation Christmas Child" operations center in Charlotte, NC. This year, our 7th year to attend, we have over 500 registered and our prayer is to see this grow and possibly double one day. We will enjoy pizzas and drinks and the fellowship of working for His glory through a simple box. Pray for this team on Dec. 3, 2010.

Our committee shared in a Christmas social together in January and then have met throughout 2010. We were excited to hold our first ever Praise and Worship Night at West Monroe Baptist with 275 in attendance. The service had two bands, a youth choir and guest speaker from Fruitland. It has been the prayer of myself as chairman to see our committee strive to have more opportunities to worship, minister and be together with our students. The committee that has just finished service has set that in place with 4 events planned for 2011. We will have a second annual Praise and Worship Night in March at West Monroe, "Operation In as Much" mission blitz in the spring, a county wide outdoor event in Sept. at Belk Tonowanda Park and hopefully 600 for "Operation Christmas Child" in Dec. 2011. We need all of our churches to join with us as together we can be a mighty force to reach our students.

If anyone of our youth committee can be of assistance, maybe you have new leadership, need new ideas, would love to just talk, call us, that's why we are here. Please let the UBA know of all events for students and invite other groups to attend. Our prayer is that every church will love their students and young adults and lead them in the paths God has intended for them. What is most needed by so many of our students today, you ask? We believe it is someone to listen. Let the students talk, ask questions. If you are confused, reflect on what the student says and take time to really listen. Prayerfully give Christ centered responsive feedback that is possible for them to accomplish. We may not know what lies ahead for each of them, but we should know and teach, they do not have to walk alone. Let's Love our students!

Franklin Casstevens – Chair (New Salem)

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA REPORT

(July 2009-July 2010)

LaShanda is thankful. Her path to the future is brightly marked. This past year the young woman walked across the stage and received her college diploma. LaShanda dreams of operating her own day program to help adults with disabilities. Her possibilities are wide open.

LaShanda could not have imagined this future years earlier. While the path forward reveals opportunity to realize goals and dreams, the road behind her was shrouded in darkness, uncertainty and pain.

"I was filled with doubts and fears," LaShanda reveals. "I felt all hope was gone." Since age five, LaShanda suffered abuse from the adults she trusted the most. She remembers going to bed so hungry she could not rest. Her past includes a drug-addicted mother, the inappropriate advances of an adoptive parent, and feelings of being unloved and abandoned.

The darkness dissipated once LaShanda came to Baptist Children's Homes. At Mills Home in Thomasville, Christian houseparents showed her the love and care she needed. Most importantly it's through BCH's Christ-centered ministry that LaShanda encountered God. Her relationship with Jesus empowered LaShanda to put the past behind her and forge ahead towards a bright future.

Today, LaShanda is active in her church leading the praise team and serving as a youth leader. She is grateful to North Carolina Baptists for their unwavering support and to BCH where she embraced a loving Savior.

"I am thankful to everyone for believing in me and for letting their love shine," LaShanda says. "Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for giving me a future."

BCH Celebrates 125th Anniversary…Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina observes its 125th anniversary, or "Quasquicentennial," on November 11, 2010. In preparation for the historic occasion, BCH president Michael C. Blackwell formed the "Committee of 20," a group of staff members and trustees leading a year-long celebration of events to commemorate BCH's milestone in ministry. All current residents and all staff from BCH's statewide locations gathered together on June 15 for "Family Gathering 3," a celebration day at Mills Home in Thomasville, the organization's first residential campus. Anniversary events culminate the week of the 2010 Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro. The "Growing Hope Tapestry," comprised of approximately 10,000 squares of artwork created by North Carolina Baptists, will be displayed. Staff members and residents make a dynamic 30-minute presentation to messengers at the meeting's evening session on Monday, November 8. A special "11/11 Celebration" occurs the following Thursday at Mills Home.

Volunteers Construct Girls Camp…Camp Duncan is a reality thanks to more than 2,000 church volunteers who lent their talents and resources to renovate the 700 acres of property in Aberdeen. In partnership with North Carolina Baptist Men, almost every aspect of BCH's new wilderness camp for at-risk girls was constructed through volunteer efforts. A final gift from the Gay T. and Haskell A. Duncan Foundation, which provided the property for the project, completed BCH's fund-raising campaign for Camp Duncan, which will be officially dedicated on October 30.

Children Accept Christ…In 2009, 65 children in Baptist Children's Homes' statewide care accepted Jesus. BCH remains committed to Christ-centered ministry through all its programs to children and families. Residents attend church, participate in daily devotions led by their child care workers, and North Carolina Baptists frequently visit BCH's residential locations helping encourage and minister to boys and girls.

Churches Tackle Renovations…Volunteer workers from statewide churches are helping BCH with much-need renovations across the state. Associations and churches organized to refurbish Stokes Cottage, York Cottage, the parsonage, and the Development and Communications building at Mills Home in Thomasville. Groups assisted with projects at Developmental Disabilities Homes in Winston-Salem and Marshville. Volunteers are also renovating Williams Cottage at Kennedy Home in Kinston which will become BCH's fourth transitional living home to assist older youth.

Baptists Empower Northeastern Home…BCH held a groundbreaking on April 25 for Britton Ministries in Ahoskie, a new group home providing residential services in northeastern North Carolina. The small congregation of Connarista Baptist Church in Aulander led a charge of support by giving a $10,000.00 gift for the new home, the largest financial contribution in church history. Other area churches followed in Connarista's footsteps pledging their own support to help the nine children who will call Britton Ministries "home." Construction of the home is nearing completion and will accept its first residents in early 2011.

Blackwell Is Longest Tenured BCH Leader…On July 1, 2010, Michael C. Blackwell observed 27 years as President of Baptist Children's Homes in North Carolina. Blackwell, who joined BCH in 1983, is now the longest tenured leader of the 125-year-old ministry, eclipsing former BCH general manager Martin Luther Kessler who served in the role from September 1, 1905 to August 19, 1932.

BAPTIST RETIREMENT HOMES OF NC, INC., REPORT

They shall be fresh and flourishing….

"Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall bear fruit in old age; they shall be fresh and flourishing.

Psalm 92: 13-14 (NKJV)

At Baptist Retirement Homes, our mission is to make life or older adults "…the best of times." For over 59 years now, we have been giving consistent, compassionate care because we believe that each individual is a unique child of God and as such should be given a chance to remain fresh and to flourish!

- Daily activities designed to refresh and renew body, mind, and soul.
- Baptist chaplains stationed on each campus to assist with spiritual vitality.
- Financial assistance to some 40% of "Homes" residents.
- Annual Benevolent care in excess of $2 million, helping to provide the opportunity for lifetime care to every resident, and making admission possible to many of the poor elderly in our state.

At Baptist Retirement Homes, we work to keep those among us who have been "planted in the house of the Lord" the longest "bearing fruit." We are grateful to generous North Carolina Baptists and Baptist churches for their help in making our ministry possible.

BIBLICAL RECORDER ANNUAL REPORT

Equip your Great 8 with the tools they need.

How do you prepare your members to face the relentless challenges that rise with every sun? People face uncertain futures best who are equipped with knowledge. In Baptist life, the best source of knowledge – of inspiration, information and ideas for ministry – is in the Biblical Recorder, the newspaper for North Carolina Baptists since 1833.

Each member of your leadership team needs to receive the Biblical Recorder to be exposed to the ministry ideas of other churches; to be encouraged by the Kingdom advances detailed in its pages and to be equipped to face the issues with which each local church, association, state convention and national convention is dealing.

The Southern Baptist Convention just endorsed the findings of its Great Commission Resurgence Task Force. If the recommendations are implemented by the entities to which were referred, they have the potential to prompt significant changes in how Southern Baptists promote and conduct missions and how entities relate to each other. Where will you find North Carolina Baptist response to these issues outside the Biblical Recorder?

Because the best indicator of an informed, involved and animated membership is an informed leadership, it is vital that those in your congregation who lead the mission, education and worship areas of your church be informed leaders. As a "thank you" to North Carolina Baptists for their Cooperative Program support of the Biblical Recorder, we send each church a copy of the newspaper. But your leadership team of Sunday School Director, men's and women's mission leaders, deacon chair, other church staff and worship leaders all need also to receive the paper.

The Biblical Recorder's board of directors has created a special "Great 8" subscription price of just $96 if you add eight subscriptions for your leadership team.

The Recorder was honored with first place awards in all the significant categories in 2010 competition in the Baptist Communicators Association, including the grand prize for news writing. Economic conditions prompted the early retirement of one staff member and the continuing vacancy in another position. Recorder staff is responding to these challenges with dedication and commitment to their ministry to North Carolina Baptists.

Readership on our online version at www.biblicalrecorder.org continues to grow. A complete redesign in 2008 is proving inadequate and the Recorder is implementing a change to a better architecture to serve the growing audience online. Eventually the Recorder will have to find a way to make its online service financially viable to counter the trend lines of its print edition, which provides the bulk of revenue required to provide the service.

You will find in every issue of the Biblical Recorder stories about fellow Baptists who encounter God and engage the culture to change lives. Our great and constant prayer is that these stories inspire you to "go and do likewise."

Biblical Recorder readers are an interactive community. Writers submit letters and guest columns; staff covers news and plans features and welcomes story ideas from others. There are Sunday school lessons and church news and other information that keep North Carolina Baptists informed about each other. We want to publish photos of your mission trips and special events in our online photo albums. Send us 8-12 photos with identification of the event and we'll put them up for the world to see. Your Kingdom efforts, whether next door or in another nation, deserve a wide audience to help readers of the Recorder be inspired, informed and immediate.

The Recorder was privately owned and operated for most of its history, then in 1939 became a Convention agency. As it has from its founding, the Recorder serves as the official news publication of the BSCNC, and serves the full spectrum of its churches.

As a BSCNC agency, the Biblical Recorder receives annual support from Cooperative Program contributions from churches, making it possible to offer the Recorder at subscription rates below the actual cost of production. You can receive a free three-month subscription for yourself and your friends. Contact:

INTERNATIONAL MISSION BOARD 2009 ANNUAL REPORT

In 2009, churches and individuals responded to the International Mission Board's (IMB) theme "Who's Missing? Whose Mission?" The emphasis led people to respond personally to the call to pray, give and go. Missionaries and volunteers crossed geographic barriers as they continued strategies to plant churches within affinity groups and focus on unreached peoples.

In spite of increased urgency to reach the peoples who are missing from God's family, Southern Baptists took a hit from continued economic hardships in the U.S. IMB trustees made the painful decision to reduce the number of missionaries being sent and temporarily suspended programs such as International Service Corps and the Masters Program. This initiated a gradual reduction in missionary numbers. IMB remained committed to its pledge not to recall any personnel or lay off home office employees, but to accomplish the reduction of personnel through completions of service, retirements and resignations.

A weakened U.S. economy did not stop the work of the Holy Spirit, however, or IMB's commitment to reach the missing. Southern Baptists stayed true to their passion for evangelizing the nations by giving $148.9 million to the 2009 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering®. It is the third-largest Lottie Moon offering in history.

"We are not disappointed as God proves His faithfulness through Southern Baptists, and giving through Lottie Moon reflects the heart of our churches and their Great Commission commitment," said Jerry Rankin, IMB president. "Constituting more than half of the IMB's annual budget, the Lottie Moon offering dramatically impacts our ability to take the Gospel to the lost world. I am deeply grateful for the increase in giving, some $7.6 million above the 2008 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, and for the sacrifice made by Southern Baptists during these difficult economic times."

More than $4 million came from a special offering challenge issued in the summer of 2009 by Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary President Daniel Akin and others. The extra funds allowed the IMB to send missionaries placed on hold by financial shortfalls earlier than planned and prevented even deeper reductions in IMB's global missionary force. World Hunger and General Relief fund receipts totaled $5.8 million, proving that Southern Baptists don't stop caring for a world in need when times are tough.

While a troubled economy saturated the news, the Holy Spirit was sweeping the globe and Southern Baptists joined the work. IMB missionaries reported that they shared the Gospel among 1,089 people groups and were a part of 24,650 new churches planted and 506,019 believers baptized. At the end of 2009, the total number of missionaries serving through IMB was 5,344.

IMB's passion to reach the lost also didn't waiver with the September 2009 announcement of Jerry Rankin's retirement as president, effective July 31, 2010. As IMB awaits new leadership, it remains committed to the vision of providing all peoples the opportunity to respond to Jesus Christ's offer of salvation. Latest global research data indicates 6,426 unreached people groups which still have not had that chance. Southern Baptists remain committed to seeing that number decrease each year. Giving through the Cooperative Program and to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering makes it possible for Southern Baptists to have a hand in seeing God's kingdom grow to the uttermost parts of the earth.

IMB is a Southern Baptist Convention entity supported by the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

At the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, we believe everything we do will immediately or eventually impact Kingdom causes because our mission is to increase awareness among North Carolina Baptists of the importance of Christian estate stewardship as a vital means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission efforts on a permanent basis. More than ever before resources are needed to evangelize, to grow disciples and to mobilize God's army. We see the work of the Foundation as an important part of meeting the mission challenges that are before us.

This year the Foundation marks a milestone as we celebrate our 90th birthday. We're the oldest state Baptist Foundation, officially established by the Baptist State Convention at the annual session in 1920. After 42 years, in 1962, the Foundation Board of Directors employed the first two staff members, an executive director and an administrative assistant. By that time, assets had reached a quarter of a million dollars. By 1972, when Ed Coates was employed as the second executive director, assets had grown to $2.6 million. When Ed retired in 1997 assets had reached $70 million. In the last 12 years assets under management have grown to $133 million.

The Lord continues to bless our ministry! Even in the midst of the recent recession we had contributions to accounts in 2009 of %5.4 million. Even more impressive is the fact that we distributed $1.8 million to individuals through charitable trusts and $6.4 million to Christian causes. Since the establishment of the Foundation 90 years ago, some $37.9 million has been distributed to individuals through trusts and more than $84.3 million to Christian causes, making a grand total of some $122 million in distributions.

Even as we approached our 90th year, the Foundation had the joy of beginning a new ministry in 2009 when we established North Carolina Baptist Foundation Services. Through May 2010 our Loan Committee has approved 18 loans totaling nearly $15 million. There is another $7 million in loans already approved. Individuals, churches and associations have invested over $9 million in our Church Growth Investment Fund which provides funding for the loans.

We have so much to celebrate and so much to be thankful for, but also so much to look forward to. In speaking of his church, pastor David Jeremiah said, "Our dreams are greater than our memories." That can also be said of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. We are thankful for what the Lord has done through this ministry in the past 90 years, and we eagerly wait for what he will do through our ministry in the next 90 years.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

"Touching Lives With Hope"

LEGACY AND VISION

In 1919, God inspired the leaders of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (BSCNC) to build a hospital that would extend the healing ministry of Jesus Christ. Expert medical care and compassion for patients in need formed the foundation for the 88-bed hospital that opened in 1923. In 2010, the founder's legacy continues to unfold. North Carolina Baptist Hospital (NCBH) is an integral part of one the nation's leading academic medical centers, Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. We are humbled to see God at work, bringing healing and hope to those we are privileged to serve.

THE SCHOOL OF PASTORAL CARE

Dynamic and life-changing ministries are extending God's healing presence through the School of Pastoral Care. North Carolina Baptists provide vital support, and we are grateful to be co-laborers in the mission of sharing Christ's love.

CareNet of North Carolina, our statewide network of 21 counseling centers will provide nearly 35,000 hours of compassionate, faith-integrated counseling in 2010.

- Nearly 50% of our clients are Baptists, and they come from over 1,000 NC Baptist churches.
- Thanks to the Cooperative Program, CareNet's services are affordable to all who need their care, and no one is turned away because of inability to pay.
- "I'm so thankful for the CareNet counselor who helped me sort through the frief in my heart and feel re-connected to God and the church," a client recently said.

The Center for Congregational Health will provide consultation ministries to nearly 200 churches in 2010, many of them in the BSCNC.

- "Our church was falling apart in conflict after our pastor left. The Center provided a consultant who helped us find a new level of trust, and the hope that God will lead us to a bright future"- N.C. Baptist church member.
- Nearly 700 ministers and church leaders will receive leadership training and coaching to enhance their pastoral skills and enrich their spiritual lives.

The Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education department will train nearly 50 ministerial students, pastors and chaplain residents in 2010.

- Our chaplains will provide ministries to patients and families through nearly 50,000 ministry contacts in 2010.

THE MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING

North Carolina Baptists generously gave $663,013 to the Mother's Day offering in 2009! Your gifts change fear into hope, helping our patients in serious financial need pay their hospital bills. They "fall between the cracks," having too much for government assistance but not enough to pay their hospital bills. Fearing financial disaster, they receive a letter from NCBH that says, "Your hospital bill has been paid by compassionate and mission-minded N.C. Baptists in the name of Jesus Christ and His love."

> "There aren't enough words to thank North Carolina Baptists for helping us pay our daughter's hospital bill. They have reminded us that God keeps His promises never to leave us nor forsake us."
>
> "We are so thankful to God for the Mother's Day Offering. We were worried sick—and this was the answer to our prayers. I had felt far away from God but now he's always been there. Thank you with all our hearts."

THE MINISTER'S SUBSIDY

Ministers, and their families, serving N.C. Baptist churches receive a subsidy of up to 25% for their hospital bills for care received at Baptist. This support is made possible by the earnings of our W.K. McGee Patient Service Fund, with help as needed from the Mother's Day Offering. The subsidy will surpass $110,000 in FY 2010.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT

We are grateful as a Hospital and Medical Center family for the dynamic partnership in ministry we share with North Carolina Baptists. We are privileged to build on the legacy of our Baptist founders, representing Christ and extending His healing power. God bless you for all of your prayers and support. Please call on us if we can ever be of service to you or your family.

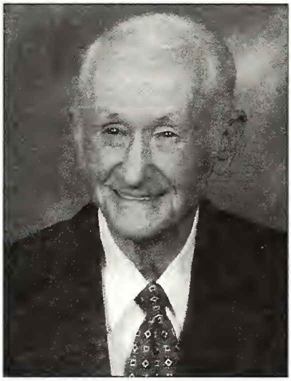
Dr. Lee Pigg, Pastor

Hopewell Baptist Church will celebrate its 131st anniversary in His service in September. The past decade has brought such incredible blessings to our congregation – blessings in souls brought to His Kingdom, blessings in membership and opportunities for outreach to many different groups of people, both locally and worldwide.

These new opportunities are funded in large part by our Vision 10.10.10 program which has been a congregation-wide success. The 10.10.10 formula is simply this: on the 10th day of each month, we pray 10 minutes for our various missions – fast for one meal and give the $10 that meal would have cost to Vision 10.10.10. With approximately 170 members, it is easy to see how these minimal monthly contributions provide adequate funding for discipleship, without putting a huge financial burden on our church members. It has allowed us to glorify the Lord locally through Crisis Pregnancy Center, our motorcycle ministry "Sons of Thunder", Good News Club in schools, the Stegall Men's Home and With Love From Jesus in Indian Trail. Our mission trips to Alaska and Bolivia are also funded in part by Vision 10.10.10.

The future for Hopewell brings many new challenges and as we continue to seek God's will we are keeping our focus on three areas that Pastor Lee feels are the strength of our faith. Ecclesiastes 4:12 tells us "a cord of three strands is not quickly broken" and we believe that if we focus on Worship, Discipleship and Ministry, we will fulfill our Mission Statement of Leading People to Accept and Follow Christ so that they will lead others to Accept and Follow Christ.

This annual is dedicated to the following:



In Memory of

Rev. Vance Edwards

Rev. Vance Edwards, a well known and much loved figure in Union Baptist Association, went home to the Lord on October 1, 2008.

A Union County native, Rev. Edwards was born on May 14, 1915. He was called to ministry at the age of 30 and served in 12 North Carolina churches prior to his retirement. Upon leaving full-time ministry, he continued his service to the Lord by acting as interim pastor for 22 congregations. He was known throughout Union Baptist Association and neighboring associations as a man with a genuine love for the Lord. His outgoing personality touched countless people, and he was never at a loss when given the opportunity to share the message of salvation with others.

His love for the scripture was always evident and he could quote many Biblical passages on just about every topic. He believed in the power of the scripture to change lives and that Christians should not only read their Bibles but memorize its truths.

The cause of missions was also close to his heart, and he readily supported mission opportunities and was a strong advocate for others to do the same.

Rev. Edwards is survived by daughter Janet Brown and her husband Charlie of Monroe, NC, and daughter Phyllis Walton, also of Monroe. He also leaves behind five grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren.

Rev. Clarence Vassar

Rev. Clarence Vassar, former Director of Missions for Union Baptist Association, went home to the Lord on October 5, 2008.

Born July 21, 1926 in South Hill, Virginia, Rev. Vassar was a member of the Army Air Corp and a graduate of Virginia Tech. He pursued a career in aircraft design with Lockheed Martin before answering the call to full time ministry in 1962. He graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary the following year, and was ordained on July 23, 1972 at Spring Hill Baptist Church in Mobile, Alabama.

Rev. Vassar faithfully sought the Lord's will for his life as he served churches in Texas, Virginia, Alabama and North Carolina. He held the position of Director of Missions in the Yadkin Baptist Association before serving in the same role for Union Baptist Association from 1987-1991.

He was instrumental in several new church plants in Union Baptist Association and in the purchasing of land for new church starts during his service here.

Following his retirement, Rev. Vassar and his wife Barbara established their home in Black Mountain, North Carolina.

Rev. Vassar is survived by Barbara, his wife of 59 years; son Richard Holt Vassar and his wife Janet of Palo Alto, California; son Hugh Edward Vassar and his wife Xiu Juan of Fremont, California; and granddaughter Rachel Louise Vassar of Palo Alto, California.

Bylaws

ARTICLE 1 - AFFILIATED CHURCHES

Those Missionary Baptist Churches which have applied for membership, and by vote of the Association are accounted to be in fellowship with the purpose and undertakings of this body, shall comprise the list of affiliated churches. The vote of the Association to extend fellowship, or to withdraw fellowship, shall be a two-thirds vote.

All churches not affiliated with another Association of like faith may be admitted as members into this union by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided they comply with Article 23 of the Bylaws and make known their desire to become members of the Association at the annual meeting of the Association when the Association will take action on their requests.

All churches composing the body of the Union Baptist Association, and those asking for membership in this body, shall believe and practice the doctrine of the New Testament as interpreted by Baptists through the years: that all churches presently composing this body, and all others seeking membership into the body at a later date, shall practice baptism by immersion only.

Messengers from one-fourth of the churches shall constitute a quorum at all sessions of the Association, and the decision of those present shall be considered the action of the Association.

Failure to report annually to the Association or failure to be represented by messengers for two consecutive sessions without sufficient cause shall raise the question of fellowship. The Association may withdraw fellowship from any church which consistently fails to maintain a spirit of cooperation to support the objects of this Association. It shall be responsibility of the Associational Council to investigate and make recommendations to the Association with regard to withdrawal of fellowship from any member. At all times any action of the Association must conform to the following principles.

(1) The Association shall regard the churches as independent bodies in all their internal affairs and exercise no ecclesiastical jurisdiction or claim any legislative or judicial power over them.

(2) As every church is an independent body, amendable so far as authority is concerned to the Great Head of the Church alone, any church shall have full power to terminate its connection with the Association whenever it may see fit. While, however, a church chooses to continue this connection, the Association must have a relative right to inquire into its standing whenever it may be necessary to do so, and in case of dissatisfaction to withdraw from it.

ARTICLE 2 - OFFICERS

The officers of the association shall be elected at the annual session in October and shall assume their duties, with the exception of the Clerk and Treasurer, at the close of the session at which they are elected and serve until their successors are elected and assume their duties. Officers shall be: Moderator, Vice Moderator, Treasurer, Historian, Discipleship Supporter, Sunday School Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Music Director, Evangelism Director, Youth Director, and other such officers as the Association deems necessary in the continuation of its work. Each officer must be a member of a Union Baptist Association church.

The term of the Moderator shall be limited to two consecutive years; other officers shall be limited to five consecutive years, with the exception of the Treasurer. If for any reason the Moderator cannot serve out his term, the Vice Moderator shall become the Moderator of the Association. When the need arises to replace the Vice Moderator, the Associational Council shall present to the Association a nomination of the person to complete the unexpired term of Vice Moderator. The Baptist of this Association came directly from the efforts of the early Christian workers of Wales and England. Their first settlements were in Old Welsh Neck section in South Carolina and Old Sandy Creek section in Chatham County. Union County Baptist came from the Old Welsh Section. The Welsh Neck Baptist Church was organized in 1738. In 1793, Lanes Creek was organized about two miles west of Philadelphia Church. This Church was the stock of the Welsh Neck Church. The churches that came out of the Welsh Neck Church organized into the Moriah Association in 1815. For convenience of the North Carolina side of the Moriah Association, the Brown Creek Association was formed in 1854. In 1885, the name of Union Association occurred. The association submitted Articles of Incorporation, which were approved with non-profit status on December 31, 1991, in the name of Union Baptist Association of Union County, North Carolina by the Secretary of State, Rufus Edmisten. These Articles of Incorporation were recorded on February 4, 1992, Book 538, Page 295, in the Union County Register of Deeds office.

PROCEEDINGS

154th Annual Session of Union Baptist Association

October 28, 2008 – Hopewell Baptist Church – 2:30 pm, 7:00 pm

Theme: Crossing the Boundaries to Tell the Story

FIRST SESSION: Sending the Word

"But how can they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe without hearing about Him? And how can they hear without a preacher? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How welcome are the feet of those who announce the gospel of good things!" Romans 10: 14-15 (HCSB)

Congregational Hymn: "I Love to Tell the Story." Mr. Tim Blankenbeckler (Music Director, Hopewell) led congregational hymns during the afternoon sessions, with Mrs. Anita McCarver (Pianist/Organist, Hopewell) providing musical accompaniment.

Call to Order: UBA Moderator Rev. Caroll Anthony (Pastor, Philadelphia) called the annual session to order.

Words of Welcome: Rev. Lee Pigg (Pastor, Hopewell) welcomed messengers and instructed them regarding where to find the missions fair, workshop sessions and meal, later in the evening.

Scripture and Invocation: The moderator read Romans 10: 14-15 and led in prayer.

Presentation of Bivens-Funderburk Individual Award for Missions Excellence: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chair Rev. Joel Collette (Minister of Music, Weddington First) announced Rev. Don Whitener (Pastor, Shiloh) as recipient of the Bivens-Funderburk Individual Award for Missions Excellence. He noted that the presentation was made at the afternoon session because Rev. Whitener had to depart for an induction ceremony for the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame later in the evening.

Roll Call of Churches: UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) conducted the roll call. The lack of a quorum was declared with only 34 UBA churches in attendance. Consequently, presentation of the 2008 Book of Reports and approval of summer session minutes was postponed until the evening session.

Recognition of New Ministers & Agency Representatives: The moderator noted that Rev. Joe Hickson began service at Union Baptist Church on October 12. He and wife, Mary Ann, have four children. No agency representatives were present.

Church Group Coordinator's Report & Memorials: UBA Church Group Three Coordinator Ms. Elizabeth Starnes (Hopewell) announced locations for the 2009 quarterly sessions as found in the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 22). These sessions are as follows: (1) Winter Session – January 27, 2009 at Corinth Baptist Church, (2) Spring Session – April 28, 2009 at Centerview Baptist Church, (3) Summer Session – July 28, 2009 at Waxhaw Baptist Church, and (4) Annual Session – October 27, 2009 at Monroe First Baptist Church. Messengers were directed to a memorials list in the 2008 Book of Reports (pp. 33-36). A moment of silence and prayer honored UBA church members who died this year.

Treasurer's Report: UBA Stewardship Committee Chairman Rev. Eddie Powers (Pastor, Sandy Ridge) directed messengers' attention to the 2008 Book of Reports (pp. 52-58) for the complete financial report, including 2009 missions budget, treasurer's report and church contributions report. He urged messengers to pray that a decision could be reached without worry or stress regarding the proposed budget. Alluding to the upcoming presidential election, Rev. Powers urged messengers to vote their faith and remember to keep Jesus as president over their personal lives, churches, nation and world.

Constitution and Bylaws Committee Report: UBA Constitution and Bylaws Committee Chair Mrs. Claudette Smith (Lee Park) oversaw distribution of copies of a proposed amendment to change the quorum requirement for UBA annual sessions. The constitution currently states that one half of churches constitute a quorum at the annual session, while one fourth of churches constitute a quorum at all other sessions. The proposed amendment states that all sessions, including the annual session, carry a quorum requirement of one fourth of churches. UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) spoke to the motion. He noted that when the constitution was originally written, UBA numbered 40 churches. Only one messenger session was held per year, with an executive committee meeting quarterly. Today there are 85 UBA churches. For several years, there has not been a quorum at the afternoon session of the annual meeting. The UBA Council discussed the issue and feels that a blanket 25% attendance requirement is the answer. There were no questions or comments. Dr. Burton stated that, in keeping with the rules of the constitution, the amendment was being distributed at the afternoon session with a vote to follow during the evening session.

Friendship House: Friendship House, Inc., Director Mr. Gary Locklear thanked UBA churches for their support of his substance abuse, residential treatment program. A former resident, Mr. Locklear has served as director for 20 years. Friendship House is modeled on a 12-step program with a strong evangelical basis. Residents are asked to maintain fulltime jobs, participate in group counseling and learn to assist others facing addiction. Services are provided for residents as well as their families, with referrals and follow-up provided for residents upon leaving the program. Mr. Locklear stressed that residents learn to set personal goals, achieve a sense of self worth and gain spiritual strength while learning to live in harmony with themselves, others and God. He noted that UBA support has greatly assisted in making all of this possible.

Moderator's Address: The moderator began his message by sharing from the writings of Max Lucado. God has called Christians into service on His warship. Each person has had a personal encounter with the Captain and been given a different task. Though the boat is unsinkable, there is a lack of harmony among the crew. As the boat becomes more unstable, Christians onboard concentrate on their bickering at the expense of those drowning in the sea all around them. The moderator noted that God commands in the Great Commission that Christians take the Good News to all the world. Many boundaries must be crossed in order for missions to be successful. These include the following: (1) Financial boundaries – Mission trips are expensive, yet nothing compares to the success of personally going to spread the message of salvation. First-hand experience has a greater impact in encouraging others to participate, and there is no substitute for the human touch. (2) Cultural boundaries – Time and effort are required to learn the customs and language of another culture. (3) Fear Boundary – There is an inherent danger to missions work. Sickness, poor living conditions and personal attack are all very real possibilities. (4) Boundary of Unwillingness to Work Together – Sadly, there is an uncooperative spirit in many churches. Prejudices, denomination differences, and disunity all contribute to make this the greatest boundary to demolish. The moderator encouraged those in attendance to make a conscience effort to overcome these boundaries to God's Great Commission, then led a prayer.

SECOND SESSION: "Becoming a Faithful Witness"

"Then the report about them reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to travel as far as Antioch. When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he encouraged all of them to remain true to the Lord with a firm resolve of the heart – for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith and large numbers of people were added to the Lord. Then he went to Tarsus to search for Saul, and when he found him he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught large numbers, and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch." Acts 11: 22-26 (HCSB)

Vice Moderator's Remarks: UBA Vice Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) expressed gratitude to messengers for their attendance and to Hopewell for hosting the session. He shared the theme "Becoming a Faithful Witness" and read Acts 11: 22-26.

Bi-Vocational Ministers Report: UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) asked messengers to review a flyer describing Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University. The goal of this program is to teach realistic strategies that individuals can implement to release themselves from financial bondage. UBA will offer the course at the Missions Resource Center (MRC) on 13 consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning January 6. In addition, Rev. Gary Dohrman (Hermon) will coordinate with pastors to teach the program in individual churches. Rev. Medlin stated that he has enjoyed working with UBA's Bi-Vocational Pastors this year. He noted that bi-vocational pastors typically lead small congregations, and there is nothing wrong with being a small church. In fact, half of UBA churches have fewer than 150 people enrolled in Sunday School.

Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) expressed his appreciation for the hard work of the UBA staff, noting that UBA is one of the strongest, most active associations in the state. He also extended personal thanks to the pastors and staffs of UBA churches. Rev. Hawkins announced the following upcoming UBA events: (1) Bible conference, (2) Adrianne Rogers conference "What Every Pastor Should Know," (3) Personal soul winning conference, and (4) Pastors' conference.

Missions' Report: UBA Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) referred messengers to his complete report in the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 37). He thanked UBA churches for their support of numerous mission trips in the past year. In addition to trips sponsored by individual churches, UBA combined the resources of multiple congregations for trips to Mills Home (local); Elizabethtown, PA (national); and Mexico City (international). He stressed that the primary goal of the association must be to bring others to Christ. Messengers were encouraged to review a new missions webpage, ubatrips.com, for up-to-date information regarding missions opportunities. Dr. Funderburk noted that he is open to suggestions for missions opportunities in 2009 and asked UBA churches to pray for missions outreach.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton expressed his regret for missing the summer session. He and his wife were injured in accidents at their home while preparing to leave for the meeting. He gave instructions to messengers for completion of attendance cards, then referred them to the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 26) for his complete report. Dr. Burton exclaimed that 2008 has been a phenomenal year at the MRC, with the building in continuous use by various groups. Renovations at UBA's International Baptist Church are nearing completion, thanks to many volunteer hours. Hopewell has been especially active in this renovation project. Three congregations are currently using the facility, with a fourth expected to begin services soon. Dr. Burton encouraged messengers to take home complimentary pocket calendars provided in the pews. He reminded those in attendance that early voting is available in North Carolina and encouraged all to take advantage of it for this year's presidential election. Dr. Burton announced an upcoming workshop at the MRC. Dr. Pete Steinke, a world renowned expert on congregational health, will offer his seminar for a nominal fee on November 15. Messengers were asked to support the upcoming Lottie Moon Christmas offering. Dr. Burton asked messengers to review the congregation summary table in the 2008 Book of Reports (pp. 23-25). He gave praise to God for the baptism total of 1,102. He expressed his desire to see many more baptisms in 2009. Dr. Burton noted that each quarter of 2009 will see a different emphasis for "Crossing the Boundaries to Tell the Story." He has a burning passion to see souls reached for Christ and urges local congregation members to participate in the numerous training opportunities that will be offered. In closing, Dr. Burton expressed his gratitude to the UBA staff for their hard work for the kingdom of God.

Musical Meditation: Don and Pam Brantley performed two selections.

Missions Presentation: International Mission Board (IMB) missionary Rev. Andrew Privette (Benton's Cross Roads) spoke regarding his work as a church planter in Indonesia. He related the story of Ache, who first heard the name Jesus from a missionary at the age of 13. The seed was planted, and years later he committed his life to Christ. His Muslim family banned him, and he was chased from his native village at knifepoint. Ache got a job distributing water filters and used every opportunity to witness for Christ. Now, his village has been converted to Christianity, with 40 heads of household attending a Bible study that Ache leads. Rev. Privette stated that Ache's story is an illustration of Lottie Moon dollars at work. In addition to supporting the annual Christmas offering, he encouraged messengers to partner with the International Mission Board by giving to the Cooperative Program, participating in short-term mission trips, receiving the e-mail newsletter, hosting him or other IMB speakers at local churches, and praying for missionaries. He closed by leading messengers in a prayer for the lost people of Indonesia.

Workshop Preview and Room Directions: Dr. Burton announced that the following workshops would be available to messengers between the afternoon and evening sessions: (1) Parliamentary Procedure 101, (2) How to Operate a Church Sound System, (3) How to Greet, Meet and Keep the Guests Who Visit Your Church, and (4) Pastoral Skills for Ministering to Today's Church. Also, 24 presenters are available at the Missions Fair in the fellowship hall.

Benediction and Blessing for Dinner: Rev. Bill Fogarty (Pastor, Weddington First) led a prayer, and messengers were released to attend workshops, tour the missions fair, and enjoy dinner before returning for the evening session. The afternoon session adjourned at 4:50 p.m.

THIRD SESSION: "Becoming a Ministry of Presence"

"I assure you: Whatever you bind on earth is already bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth is already loosed in heaven. Again, I assure you: If two of you on earth agree about any matter that you pray for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in My name, I am there among them." Matthew 18: 18-20 (HCSB)

Call to Order: The moderator called the evening session to order.

Welcome/Scripture and Invocation: Rev. Pigg welcomed messengers back for the evening session. Rev. Phil McLean (Senior Pastor, Mountain Springs) read Matthew 18: 18-20, then led a prayer.

Recognition of UBA Council and Committee Members: The moderator recognized members of the UBA Council and all committee members by standing.

Church Awards: On behalf of the IMB, Dr. Burton presented an award to Mount Harmony for the top per capita giving in UBA for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering and top overall giving. On behalf of the Southern Baptist Convention and Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Philadelphia received an award for top percentage given to the Cooperative Program. This church was one of the top 10 in co-op dollar contributions in the state. Dr. Burton noted that UBA giving awards will be presented beginning in January.

Missions and Outreach Committee Report & Bivens/Funderburk Award for Missions Excellence: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chairman Rev. Joel Collette (Weddington First) reviewed the many ways that God has blessed UBA in the past year, especially with the formation of the International Baptist Church. He proceeded to present the Bivens-Funderburk Church Award for Missions Excellence to Philadelphia.

Congregational Hymn: "Make Me a Blessing." Rev. Collette led congregational hymns during the evening session.

Offertory: The night's offering was designated for the Missions Resource Center. Instrumentals were provided by UBA Youth Committee Chair Mr. Frank Casstevens (New Salem).

Second Roll Call of the Churches: The clerk conducted roll call and declared a quorum with 42 UBA churches represented.

Presentation and Adoption of the 2008 Book of Reports/Approval of Summer Session Minutes: The clerk moved for the adoption of the 2008 Book of Reports as provided to messengers. Corrections should be submitted to the UBA office. The motion passed without opposition. Minutes from the summer 2008 session were approved as distributed.

New Business: The moderator called for new business. None was noted.

Youth Committee Report: Mr. Casstevens directed messengers to the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 63) for his full report. UBA will send 400 youth to volunteer at the Operation Christmas Child Distribution Center on December 5. There is a waiting list in the event space becomes available. Mr. Casstevens hopes to secure additional volunteer slots next year, possibly sending UBA youth to volunteer on two nights. The Youth Council will meet on November 3. Mr. Casstevens noted that there are youth in crisis across Union County, all of whom need prayer support as well as encouragement. He asked UBA churches to reach out to these youth and love them.

Women's Missionary Union (WMU) Report: UBA WMU Director Mrs. Brenda Carter (Hermon) thanked WMU representatives for their attendance at this evening's session. She encouraged messengers to read the Christian Women's Job Corps (CWJC) report in the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 20). She noted a need for mentors in the CWJC, as well as a need for the donation of a car for program participants. CWJC currently has 14 women enrolled with only 7 mentors. Next, messengers were asked to note the Christmas Toy Store 2007 report in the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 21). This outreach met with great success in its first year and will operate again in December 2008. There are already twice as many applicants this year, and a goal has been set to assist 50 families. Each person who shops at the store receives counseling and is presented with the Gospel. Anyone wishing to serve as a counselor should contact the UBA office. Next, Mrs. Carter asked messengers to turn to the Women's Missionary Union Report in the 2008 Book of Reports (p. 61). November 3 is Baptist Women's World Day of prayer. A service will be held at Friendship Baptist Church. Sandy Day, co-founder of Caleb Ministries, will speak at a Women's Conference at the MRC on November 8. This year's topic will be "Embracing the Heart of God in the Storms of Life"; a $10 fee includes a light lunch. Mrs. Carter reminded messengers that WMU is now raising its own funds. Churches were asked to remember WMU through a special offering or by adding it to the church budget.

Constitution & Bylaws Committee Report: Mrs. Smith and Dr. Burton reviewed the recommendation to change the quorum requirement for annual sessions as distributed to messengers during the afternoon session. The recommended new reading in Article 1: Affiliated Churches was declared as follows: "Messengers from one fourth of the churches shall constitute a quorum at all sessions of the Association, and the decision of those present shall be considered the action of the Association." There were no questions or comments. Messengers voted by show of hands, and the recommendation passed unanimously.

Election of Officers: Dr. Burton noted that both the moderator and vice moderator have served one year and are eligible for a second. There was no discussion. Both were nominated from the floor for a second term, and the motion passed unanimously.

Director of Missions' Remarks: Dr. Burton advised messengers at the evening session of the November 15 workshop at the MRC presented by Dr. Pete Steinke, a world renowned expert on congregational health. Lay people and pastors are encouraged to attend the multi-denominational event. Seating is limited to 100.

Musical Meditation: Wingate University's ensemble "Canon" performed four vocal selections. Performers included David Hatchell, Brian Hehn, Seth Joyner, Corey Link, David Mosely and Taylor Vancil.

Message: Rev. Dale Brooks (Senior Pastor, Euto) read from Philippians 2: 1-13 for a message titled "Pride Versus Humility." He noted that his message was especially important for pastors to hear and take to heart. He related the story in John 13 when Jesus washed the disciples' feet. In doing so, Jesus taught by example. His message was simple: "Don't do as I'm doing, but think as I'm thinking." Rev. Brooks noted the following truths regarding how today's Christians can think as Jesus did. (1) Have the mind of Christ: Do not act for self, seeking personal glory. Instead, let Christ rule your lives and govern your actions. Pastors must realize that they are not building their churches. God is. As such, pastors should resign all to God. (2) Have the right motive: Be happy in the success of others. Pastors, in example, should not envy the success of other churches but instead should rejoice in the spread of God's Word. Whether large or small, all churches have a role to play in God's kingdom and should support the efforts of the local association. Rev. Brooks asserted that today's churches place too much emphasis on numbers. For a pastor to boast of his growing church only serves to add to a feeling of failure in pastors of declining congregations. It is far more productive to actively uplift and support one another. (3) Have the right method: Everything done in the church should lead to the praise and worship of God. One of the greatest ways to bring glory to God is by reaching out to those who are struggling. Rev. Brooks recalled a time when he led one of the fastest growing churches in the state, then eventually saw the congregation dwindle as members left by the hundreds. The most valuable lesson he took from the difficult experience was to get his identity from God, not from a growing church or any other source. Now, he is secure in who God made him and will never feel himself to be a failure again. He urged fellow pastors to take this lesson into their own lives, then led those assembled in prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "To God Be the Glory."

Benediction: The moderator led messengers in a closing prayer. The annual session adjourned at 8:47 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins
UBA Clerk

BIVENS-FUNDERBURK INDIVIDUAL AWARD FOR MISSIONS EXCELLENCE 2008

The Bivens-Funderburk Award for individual excellence in missions was presented to Rev. Don Whitener (Senior Pastor, Shiloh). Rev. Whitener leads his church as a committed crusader for local, state, national and international missions. He has been a member of numerous mission teams, and during the past year he led Shiloh in conducting a food drive, participating in Operation Christmas Child, operating a sports camp, traveling to Mexico City to spread the Gospel, and much more. Rev. Whitener has proven himself as a strong, capable leader, and his church follows his lead to be unwaveringly committed to the Great Commission.

BIVENS-FUNDERBURK CHURCH AWARD FOR MISSIONS EXCELLENCE 2008

The Bivens-Funderburk Award for missions excellence in an association church was presented to Philadelphia Baptist Church. This church is fully committed to missions. The congregation has sent a medical mission team to Honduras for the last six years, and this year sent two members with the UBA mission team to Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania. Philadelphia sponsors a "Helping Hands" ministry and played a vital role in sending teams into Mexico City and providing Hurricane Katrina disaster relief. The congregation never hesitates to open their hearts and their checkbooks to benefit the cooperative program; this year the church was recognized as one of the top ten contributors to the co-op program in North Carolina. Philadelphia pastor Rev. Anthony and deacon chair Mr. George Davis accepted the award.

ASSOCIATION QUARTERLY SESSION MINUTES

WINTER SESSION MINUTES
January 22, 2008 – New Salem Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Welcome/Invocation: UBA Moderator Rev. Caroll Anthony (Pastor, Philadelphia) welcomed messengers and gave instructions for completion of attendance cards. Rev. Douglas Rumley (Pastor, New Salem) echoed this welcome before leading a prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Come, Christians, Join to Sing." UBA Music Director Mrs. Gay Burton (Shiloh) led hymns throughout the evening, with organist and UBA Youth Committee Chair Mr. Frank Casstevens (Youth Director, New Salem) providing accompaniment.

Call to Order: The moderator called the session to order, then recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Annual Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 35 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA Annual Session held October 23, 2007, at Philadelphia Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Recognition of New Ministers: The moderator recognized Rev. Rob Hinson as new Pastor of South Monroe (formerly Sunset Park).

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report: UBA Stewardship Committee Chairman Rev. Eddie Powers (Pastor, Sandy Ridge) brought a motion from the Stewardship and Staff Relations Committees to increase the 2008 UBA budget by $7400 for staff salary, insurance and tax increases. There was no discussion, and the motion passed unanimously. Messengers were encouraged to review the provided treasurer's report and monthly church contributions report.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Vacation Bible School (VBS) Report: UBA VBS Director Mrs. Donna Moore (Euto) announced the 2008 theme as Outrigger Island: Living God's Unshakeable Truth. A VBS Clinic will be offered Saturday, March 29, 2008, at the UBA Missions Resource Center. This conference is targeted at all pastors, VBS directors and leaders. Mrs. Moore expressed her deep appreciation for VBS and urged messengers to pray for this year's program.

Missions and Outreach Committee Report: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chair Rev. Joel Collette (Minister of Music, Weddington First) announced that Foundation Church in Monroe has requested UBA watchcare status. The church has been meeting since August 2007 and is under the leadership of Pastor Victor Dermid. The Missions and Outreach Committee has met with church leadership repeatedly and wholeheartedly supports this request. The motion was made to accept Foundation Church under watchcare, and the floor was opened for discussion. In response to an inquiry regarding the size and location of this church, Rev. Collette responded that average attendance is currently 65, and the congregation is preparing to move to temporary meeting space at Porter Ridge High School. There was no further discussion, and the motion passed unanimously. Next, Rev. Collette brought forth a motion that Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) be appointed as Associational Missions Coordinator for UBA. In this role, Dr. Funderburk will assist churches in the coordination of mission trips, especially those involving the "cross pollination" of several churches for one event. This will exclude disaster relief. In response to a question from the floor, it was noted that the position is voluntary and Dr. Funderburk will be afforded a small office at the Missions Resource Center. The motion passed unanimously. Rev. Collette reported that work with church planters at Estrella Baptist Association in Phoenix, AZ continues. He urged messengers to review a flyer listing volunteer opportunities in this region and consider planning a mission trip.

Congregation Hymn: "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine."

Offering: The offering was designated for Friendship Home of Monroe, a faith-based addiction treatment facility. The moderator noted that most people in attendance know of someone affected by drug or alcohol addiction. He urged messengers to give generously, noting that many UBA churches will receive offerings this Sunday for Friendship Home.

Unfinished/New Business: UBA Vice-Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) called for unfinished business. None was noted. He next called for new business. None was noted.

Musical Meditation: Mr. John Darr (New Salem) sang a selection entitled "Audience of One."

Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) reported that the first session of the Adrian Rogers Pastor Training Conference "What Every Pastor Ought to Know" was a great success. Fifteen pastors — representing Union, Anson and Metrolina Associations — enrolled in this DVD conference, and additional sessions are planned for the near future. Also, Dr. Steve Cromer of Myrtle Beach, SC, will lead an upcoming conference entitled "To Dream Again."

Director of Missions' Report: UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) extended his thanks to New Salem for hosting tonight's session, also adding his appreciation for the UBA staff. He requested prayer for UBA Secretary Bessie Bent. Her son deployed for Iraq on Christmas Eve, and Bessie has recently suffered medical problems and is undergoing tests. Dr. Burton encouraged UBA churches to generously support the Focus on WMU Week, February 11 – 17, with both prayers and offerings. He also reviewed an email he recently received from the North Carolina Baptist Men regarding a Hurricane Katrina disaster relief update. To date, work in Gulfport has included 1,400,000+ man hours with 580,229 meals provided and 719 rebuild jobs completed. A seminary extension course "Understanding the Bible," taught by Dr. Donnie Gamble, will begin at the Missions Resource Center on January 24. Several UBA churches are currently collecting items on a wish list from Friendship Home. Dr. Burton expressed his personal appreciation for this facility, noting that room and board are provided for clients at a cost of only $75 per week. Friendship Home has as 20+ year history of service, and UBA churches are encouraged to support it on a regular basis. Dr. Burton continued by briefly reviewing the five challenges that he issued to UBA churches at the Annual Session in October 2007, noting that progress has been made in all of these areas. Healthy churches are indeed growing in UBA. Visionary leaders are being groomed at ongoing training sessions, including the upcoming "To Dream

Again" conference. Four workshops will be included at this event, including instruction for visionary budgeting, greeting church guests, organizing mission trips, and transitioning from small, rural to larger congregations. The Multicultural Counsel approved at the annual session has begun work toward the goal of growing cooperative hearts. To this end, a Multi-Cultural Festival is in the preliminary planning stages. This event will help UBA identify additional people groups not represented in current member churches. Dr. Funderburk is eager to use his new role to help congregations become more mission-minded people. Finally, dollars will become even more available for missions as UBA churches work to reduce the debt on the Missions Resource Center. The loan rate was recently lowered, and the remaining obligation for this building is $420,000. Dr. Burton requested that UBA church members devote prayer to this issue.

Messenger's Remarks: Retired pastor Rev. Raymond Owens (Union Grove) expressed his appreciation for Dr. Burton, Rev. Hawkins, UBA Bi-vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) and the UBA staff for their work in support of the association. He expressed concern over the lack of attendance and financial support exhibited by several UBA churches, and noted that this is a cause for deep concern. He urged messengers to daily pray for a spirit of unity within UBA and the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. The Vice-Moderator added that prayer is, in fact, the greatest tool that God has given to Christians.

Musical Meditation: Miss April Hanson (New Salem) noted Psalm 73:26 as a favorite scripture, then sang "It Is Well With My Soul."

Doctrinal Sermon: Rev. Peter Cha (Pastor, Korean Baptist Church of Charlotte) brought a message entitled "Let Us Build the Church," with scripture from Matthew 16: 16-19. He asserted that three things are vital to the formation of a strong church. First, the foundation must be strong. Jesus is the firm ground from which the church rises. Second, the right materials must be available, i.e. activities, missions, evangelism, programs, etc. Finally, a strong adhesive must be used to bind the materials together – prayer. Prayer is the first priority when building a strong church. Rev. Cha continued by recalling the time 2 ½ years ago when he arrived at Korean Baptist Church of Charlotte from Washington, DC. Average Sunday attendance was 20 – 25, and no prayer meetings were in place. Rev. Cha began a 5:30 a.m. prayer service, and only one person was in attendance the first day. Since that time, the church has grown tremendously through the power of prayer. Two well-attended early morning prayer services are held every day, and average Sunday attendance is 120-130. Rev. Cha follows a schedule of an early bedtime, then rising daily at 3:00 a.m. for his personal prayer time – the period of his day which remains most precious to him. Prayer is vital, and it will be accompanied by revival. Rev. Cha noted the six points of the C-H-U-R-C-H as follows: "C" – Christ centered, "H" – Holy Spirit driven, "U" – Unity in diversity, "R" – Reconciliation in the Blood, "C" – Celebrating salvation, and "H" – Hope in eternity. These points must not be overlooked or dismissed if the church is to succeed and glorify King Jesus.

Congregational Hymn: "How Firm a Foundation."

Benediction & Adjournment: The Moderator read from Psalm 133 regarding how good it is for brethren to live in unity. He announced the evening's offering total as $600, then led a closing prayer. The Winter Session adjourned at 8:53 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
SPRING SESSION MINUTES
April 22, 2008 – Love Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Welcome/Invocation: UBA Vice-Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) welcomed those in attendance and expressed his gratitude to Love Baptist Church for hosting. Rev. Don Thompson (pastor, Love) encouraged messengers to pray for his growing congregation and led an opening prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Faith of Our Fathers." The Love Ladies' Trio — comprised of Diane Belk, Dana Quick and Ann Thompson — led hymns throughout the evening, with Mrs. Donna Hill (pianist, Love) providing accompaniment.

Call to Order: The vice-moderator called the session to order, then recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Winter Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 37 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA Winter Session held January 22, 2008, at New Salem Baptist Church were not available for messengers. Approval of these minutes will be postponed until the summer session.

Recognition of New Ministers: The Vice-Moderator recognized the following new ministers: (1) Rev. Jeff Whitecotton and wife Cindy, Secrest Grove, (2) Rev. John Lindsay and wife Cheri, Mt. Zion, (3) Rev. Brad Phifer and wife Sharon, Mt. Olive, and (4) Rev. Gene Mullis, Hillcrest.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report: UBA Stewardship Committee Chairman Rev. Eddie Powers (Pastor, Sandy Ridge) encouraged messengers to review the March 2008 treasurer's report and monthly church contributions report. He asked that UBA church members pray for wise stewardship of God's resources both in the home church and as they reach out to the world for Christ. He encouraged each church to carefully consider how much is allocated to missions. Rev. Powers noted that both UBA and the Cooperative Program are worthy recipients of financial support, then, challenged each UBA church to educate its members about the importance of good stewardship.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Missions and Outreach Committee Report: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chair Rev. Joel Collette (Minister of Music, Weddington First) brought two recommendations before messengers. In the first, he moved that UBA establish the International Baptist Church. When Grace Covenant recently voted to dissolve as a congregation, their property on Stallings Road in Matthews, NC, was deeded to UBA. UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) described the property as a one acre tract with a furnished building, including a sound system. A non-Baptist Hispanic congregation currently meets in the building but is rapidly outgrowing the space. UBA leadership, including the missions and outreach committee, recommends using the site to house several multi-cultural church plants. Korean Global Mission is already in the facility, and additional groups that could begin services in the near future include Indian-Asian (see motion two), Hispanic, and Vietnamese – each currently averaging 35 in attendance. This site could house church starts until they reach attendance of approximately 100, at which time more permanent housing would be sought. UBA churches have already offered to sponsor each congregation, and a local businessman toured the facility before donating $10,000 for remodeling. A UBA church has volunteered to make needed repairs. Dr. Burton shared his excitement over this great opportunity. He knows of no other venture like it in North Carolina. If approved, the International Baptist Church would be occupied at least five nights per week. Rev. Collette called for questions and discussion; there were none. The motion passed unanimously. In the second motion, the missions and outreach committee recommended that the Indian-Asian Fellowship be accepted under UBA watchcare. The pastor, his wife and members of the congregation were recognized by standing. This church will meet at the International Baptist Church. Rev. Collette called for questions and discussion; there were none. The motion passed unanimously.

Recommendation Regarding UBA Missions Resource Center: While information packets were distributed to messengers, the vice-moderator described "The Finish Team" Campaign, a fund-raising plan targeted at repaying the missions resource center loan. In this challenge, 25 individuals are sought to commit to give $5000 per year for three years or build a team of people to reach the $5000 per year goal. The campaign can also be undertaken by church groups such as Sunday School classes, WMU, Baptist Men, etc. Two people have already volunteered to lead teams; 23 more are needed. Currently, the Missions Resource Center carries a mortgage of $400,000. Annual interest totals $25,000. The goal of The Finish Team will be to retire the debt so that these interest dollars can become mission dollars as soon as possible. Dr. Burton also encouraged messengers to take The Finish Team packets back to their churches, review the enclosed materials and prayerfully consider ways to help.

Group Plan for UBA Churches via Church Mutual Insurance: Dr. Burton noted that pastors should have received a packet of information from Church Mutual Insurance in the mail. This well-regarded carrier, which has operated for 100 years and currently insures 50% of UBA churches, has recently established a group insurance plan. If already insured by Church Mutual, then enrollment in the group plan is automatic, including a 5% premium discount at time of renewal. Church Mutual representatives are available to meet with any interested churches not currently insured by the carrier. Dr. Burton stressed that UBA and its staff benefit in no way – they are neither selling insurance nor gaining any profit. He simply encourages church leaders to be certain that property is properly insured, including liability coverage.

International Festival: UBA Volunteer Missions Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) announced that the UBA Multi-Cultural Committee will sponsor an International Festival on September 13, 2008. The festival will be located at Shoppes at Nottingham on Highway 74 in Monroe. To date, five ethnic groups have expressed interest in participating. Exhibits will highlight the culture, music, food and dance of these groups.

Offertory: The offering was designated for International Baptist Church. Mr. James Helms led a prayer, and music was performed by the Love Ladies' Trio.

UBA MINISTRY REPORTS

Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) stated that the establishment of the International Baptist Church marks a historic moment for UBA. It is an avenue for reaching some of the people behind the 32 dialects currently spoken in Union County. Rev. Hawkins noted that the Sunday School Leadership Banquet is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on May 20 at West Monroe. All pastors, Sunday School directors, educational ministry staff as well as spouses are encouraged to register and attend. Guest speaker will be Rev. Phil Stone, senior consultant with the NCBSC Sunday School Ministries Department. Sessions of the Adrian Rogers pastor training conference "What Every Pastor Ought to Know" will be held on upcoming Friday evenings and Saturday mornings, May 16/17, 23/24 and 30/31. Thirty individuals completed the conference when it was previously offered; pastors and deacons are encouraged to attend. The UBA outdoor baptism will be held August 24 at 2476 Old Charlotte Highway in Monroe, the same site used last year. Finally, Senior Adult Days are currently being planned for mid-October.

Volunteer Missions Coordinator Report: Dr. Funderburk reminded messengers of the Great Commission, the last words that Jesus spoke on earth. Several UBA missions projects are planned to give UBA church members the opportunity to fulfill these "marching orders." A trip to El Buen Pastor Baptist Church in Mexico City is planned for November 22-29. UBA pastors, including some multi-cultural pastors, have already volunteered for this trip, but there is space available for two more. Interpreters will be available. A trip to Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania – Amish Country – will be held on August 2-9. Opportunities include painting classrooms in Emmanuel Baptist Church as well as gospel saturation, personal witnessing, prayer walking, and showcasing the "Jesus" movie. This trip will conclude with a day of sightseeing in Amish country. A one day mission trip to the Baptist Children's Home in Thomasville, NC, will depart May 24. The morning will be devoted to gardening and "Spring cleaning," with the afternoon reserved for lunch, a facility tour and meeting the children. Any church willing to donate use of a van for this trip should contact Dr. Funderburk. Summer 2008 will bring Operation Backpack – an opportunity for UBA church members to purchase and stock book bags for indigent children near Fort Ashby, Virginia.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton explained that his wife, UBA Music Director Mrs. Gay Burton, is currently with family in California and unable to attend tonight's session. He expressed his appreciation to Rev. Thompson and the members of Love Baptist Church for hosting the meeting. UBA staff members were recognized by standing, and pastors were reminded of Secretary's Day tomorrow. Dr. Burton requested prayer for South Monroe pastor Rev. Rob Hinson, who must begin dialysis following a viral infection. Also, he expressed sympathy to Rev. Joe Stroud (Pastor, Centerview) on the loss of his mother and Rev. Alan Rushing (Pastor, Olive Branch) on the loss of his father. Dr. Burton reported that the associational Vacation Bible School clinic held March 20 was attended by 112 people with 20 churches represented. The Missions Resource Center was recently the site of a WMU meeting with 100 ladies in attendance. Five churches participated in the Associational Bible Drill. The Baptist Children's Home food drive is currently underway. Churches are encouraged to bring donations to volunteers at the Missions Resource Center through Friday. Dr. Burton asked messengers to review the Cooperative Program newsletter included in their information packets. He announced that he will be unable to attend the Sunday School Leadership Banquet on May 20. Dr. Burton reminded churches to send announcements to the UBA office for inclusion on the outdoor scrolling message board.

Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator's Report: UBA Bi-vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) shared that Mt. Olive recently celebrated its 175th anniversary. Several UBA churches have their roots in this church, which was established with 21 members. The pastor and members were recognized by standing. Rev. Medlin asked messengers to review the Sunday School Resolution for 2008 in their information packets. He reminded everyone of the vote last Fall to make 2008 the Year of Sunday School, then encouraged church leaders to attend the upcoming Sunday School Leadership Banquet.

Unfinished Business: The Vice-Moderator called for unfinished business. None was noted.

New Business: Dr. Steve Jirgal (Pastor, Lakeview) invited pastors to a luncheon at Lakeview on Tuesday, June 3 to learn about the Truth Project, a 12-week, small group DVD training course promoted by Focus on the Family. The course teaches individuals how to reach those who refuse to believe and trust in God. Lakeview completed the course and saw remarkable results; the church is now "on fire with it." Lakeview will host a simulcast of the Truth Project on September 27.

Musical Meditation: Mr. Roger Deese (Love), soloist, performed.

Message: UBA Sunday School Director Dr. Donnie Gamble (Pastor, Hermon) brought a message titled "Building Upon Baptist Foundations – Is Sunday School Still Relevant?" He read scripture from Deuteronomy 31:26, 28 and Matthew 28:18-20. Sunday School is all about gathering together to develop relationships and be taught the word of God, which is important for Christians. Of current Southern Baptists, 87% came through Sunday School. In fact, Dr. Gamble would encourage anyone willing to attend only one portion of a Sunday service to select Sunday School over the worship service! Dr. Gamble went on to give a history of Sunday School. He sees the program as a church's army, a tool for building Christians to spread the Good News. He asserted that there are four results when Christians carry out the Great Commission: (1) Numerical Growth, (2) Spiritual Transformation, (3) Ministries Expansion, and (4) Missions Advance. He discouraged churches from the all-too-common practice of dropping from enrollment the names of people who do not attend Sunday School. No name should be struck unless the person requests it, moves membership or dies. In a day when only 20% of Southern Baptist Churches are experiencing growth, churches need real revival. Dr. Gamble encouraged church leaders to take action – contacting him for a list of available resources and making plans to attend the Sunday School Leadership Banquet. He closed his message with a prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Higher Ground."

Benediction & Adjournment: Dr. Burton instructed messengers to complete attendance cards and pass them to the center aisle. He noted that the Pope is currently in the United States. He is called "Holy Father" by members of the Catholic faith who revere him, and he is respected by those of many other faiths. Dr. Burton reminded messengers that our holy father doesn't live in Rome – He is the Lord Jesus Christ. He closed the meeting by asking everyone in attendance to place their hands on a pastor in attendance as he led in prayer. The session ended at 9:02 p.m.

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
SUMMER SESSION MINUTES
July 22, 2008 – Oak Grove Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Greetings and Invocation: UBA Moderator Rev. Caroll Anthony (pastor, Philadelphia) welcomed messengers, then, recognized Rev. Rich Myers (pastor, Oak Grove). Rev. Myers added his own words of welcome and led a prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "He Keeps Me Singing." Mr. Doug NeSmith (Oak Grove) led hymns throughout the evening, with Mrs. Brenda Hilton (pianist, Oak Grove) providing accompaniment.

Call to Order: The moderator called the session to order, then, recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Winter and Spring Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 32 UBA churches represented. Minutes from both the UBA Winter Session held January 22, 2008, at New Salem Baptist Church and the UBA Spring Session held April 22, 2008, at Love Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Recognition of New Ministers: No new ministers were in attendance.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report and Presentation of 2009 UBA Budget Proposal: UBA Stewardship Committee Chairman Rev. Eddie Powers (pastor, Sandy Ridge) asked messengers to review three financial documents included in their information packets: (1) June 2008 Treasurer's Report and Monthly Church Contributions Report, (2) Financial Flow Chart 2005-2007, and (3) 2009 UBA Missions Budget Proposal. He noted that the proposed budget shows a total decrease over the preceding year, due largely to a better understanding of the overall financial picture as well as an effort to bring a close-fitting budget before the messengers. A motion was made to approve the 2009 Missions Budget Proposal; it was unanimously approved with no further discussion.

Remarks: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) announced that UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) and his wife, UBA Music Director Mrs. Gay Burton (Shiloh), were injured in an accident at their home earlier in the evening. While details were not available, Rev. Hawkins had been informed that none of their injuries were life threatening. They will not be in attendance at this evening's meeting.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Missions Commissioning Service for IMB Missionaries: Bert & Lisa Warren (Euto) and their children, as well as members of Euto, were asked to come to the altar. UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) announced that the Warrens will serve for two years as IMB Missionaries to Swaziland, South Africa. They are currently attempting to sell their home, saying goodbye to friends and family, and prayerfully preparing themselves for immersion in a foreign culture. Messengers were asked to pray for travel safety for the entire mission team. All pastors in attendance were asked to come forward and lay hands on the Warrens in a commissioning service.

Missions Commissioning Service for UBA Pennsylvania Mission Trip: UBA Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) will lead a mission team to Elizabethtown, PA on August 2-9, 2008. While there, the group will work with Emmanuel Baptist Church and participate in prayer walks, door-to-door witnessing, literature distribution, and a presentation of the "Jesus" film. A tour of Amish country, attendance of the outdoor production "In the Beginning," and a visit to Hersey, PA, will also be included in this trip. The mission team includes Dr. Funderburk, Dustin Knight (Friendly), John and Elise Pressley (Providence), Tiffany Robinson (Philadelphia), Crystal Rowell (Philadelphia), and Donald and Eunice Smith (Mt. Moriah). Dr. Funderburk called all members of the mission team in attendance to the altar. Dr. Byrns Coleman (Wingate) led messengers in prayer during the commissioning service.

Congregational Hymn: "Send the Light."

Offertory: The offering was designated for the Union Baptist Association Missions Resource Center.

Unfinished Business: UBA Vice-Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Philadelphia) called for unfinished business. None was noted.

Musical Meditation: Soloist Mr. Don Brantley (Oak Grove) performed one selection, accompanying himself on the guitar.

Presentation of 2007 Annual: Rev. Hawkins reminded messengers that each year the UBA annual is dedicated in honor or in memory of someone who has faithfully served the association. The decision is made by the UBA Council. This year, the choice of dedication was quick, decisive and unanimous. The 2007 UBA annual is dedicated to UBA Administrative Associate Mrs. Jean Rollins (Mill Creek) and UBA Secretary Ms. Bessie Bent (Mary Elizabeth). The recipients and their families were called forward before a standing ovation. Rev. Hawkins noted that both women are tireless in their dedication to UBA. They work steadfastly to keep the office running smoothly and are always willing to do all that they can to support the association and serve the Lord. Rev. Hawkins noted that Mrs. Rollins newborn granddaughter, Kendall Grace Maulden, faces another surgery tomorrow; messengers were asked to pray for the premature infant, her family and doctors. Rev. Chris Justice (pastor, Lee Park) led those assembled in prayer. Rev. Hawkins closed by noting that annuals will be available for pick-up by UBA churches at the missions resource center beginning on Thursday, July 24.

New Business: Mr. Gary Dohrman (Hermon) shared information regarding "Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University," a 13-week, Biblically-based program that uses video lectures and workbooks to lead participants through a plan for personal debt reduction. Over 70 people have taken this course at Hermon. Mr. Dohrman encouraged other churches to offer the program as well, both to members and as an outreach opportunity. Messengers were provided with flyers detailing the Financial Peace University.

UBA MINISTRY REPORTS

Associate Director of Missions' Report: Rev. Hawkins announced that the UBA outdoor baptism will be held Sunday, August 24 at 3:00 p.m. A UBA Bible conference is scheduled for September 22 at Trinity; speakers will include Dr. Kenneth Ridings (President, Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute), Dr. Byrns Coleman (Wingate University) and Rev. Don Whitener (Pastor, Shiloh). The banquet at this event will honor pastors' wives. A senior adult covered-dish lunch will be held on September 29 and 30 at the Missions Resource Center. Churches are asked to contact the UBA office to register for one of these days.

Volunteer Missions Coordinator's Report: Dr. Funderburk reported that the one-day mission trip to Baptist Children's Homes in Thomasville, NC was a success. Thirty-seven volunteers representing eight UBA churches worked during the morning hours, then toured the facility in the afternoon. Messengers were asked to keep the upcoming mission trips to Elizabethtown, PA and Mexico City in their prayers. Dr. Funderburk asserted that one goal of the trips is to unite churches with strong existing missions programs with churches new to missions outreach. While participation and financial support are vital, the backbone of any mission trip is prayer support. If God is not in it, then the mission outreach will accomplish nothing.

Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator's Report: Rev. Medlin remarked that one of his goals is to elevate the position of bi-vocational pastors, helping others to realize that the ministry is neither "part-time" nor secondary in importance to full-time ministry. Only a small percentage of the 44,223 churches in the Southern Baptist Convention are large or "mega" churches; most are small congregations, and many are led by bi-vocational pastors. Rev. Medlin recently attended a bi-vocational pastor's conference with Rev. Brad Phifer (Pastor, Mt. Olive). He invited Rev. Phifer to remark on the experience. Rev. Phifer noted that this was his first time attending such a conference, and he found it to be a wonderful experience that gave him the opportunity to re-energize and meet many other bi-vocational pastors. He urged UBA churches to give strong prayer support to bi-vocational pastors, then, urged the pastors themselves to "put on your work boots and get busy for Christ." Rev. Medlin returned to remind messengers of the Sunday School Growth Seminar on August 25 at the Missions Resource Center. The event will be led by Dr. Donnie Gamble (pastor, Hermon), who serves as Sunday School Specialist for the Baptist State Convention North Carolina Sunday School Ministries. Long-term events planned for UBA include hosting Dr. Steve Parr, Vice-President of Sunday School and Evangelism, on May 11, 2009. Also, Dr. Tom Ranier, President and CEO of Lifeway Ministries, will come to address UBA in 2010.

Congregational Hymn: "The Lily of the Valley."

Benediction & Adjournment: The Vice Moderator invited all of those commissioned earlier in the evening to come forward for messengers to greet them following the quarterly session. He asked that Dr. and Mrs. Burton be remembered in prayer. Messengers were reminded to complete messenger attendance cards before departing, and Rev. Phil McLean (Pastor, Mountain Springs) led in a closing prayer. The quarterly session adjourned at 8:52 p.m.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

This has been an exciting, busy, and rewarding year for Union Baptist Association. This has been our first full year in our new Missions Resource Center. I can assure you the UBA building is being used. Every week there are group meetings and church staff meetings. Our churches and organizations that we support are here for workshops and training events. I never dreamed this building would be used as often as it is. I wonder, how did we ever make it without this facility? The staff is busier than ever, but I haven't heard any complaints, because we are all here to serve. We have a desire to partner with you in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ here in Union County and around the world.

Our Union Baptist Association Bible Conference was great this year. The conference was held at Trinity Baptist Church on September 22. Dr. Kenneth Ridings, President of Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute (who is retiring at the end of this year), Dr. Byrns Coleman, Chair of the Department of Religion and Philosophy, and Professor of Religion at Wingate University, and Rev. Don Whitener, Senior Pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church in Monroe were our preachers. Rev. David Russell, Minister of Music at the Shiloh, led the music. The Trinity Baptist Church Choir, Victor Dermid, Don and Pam Brantley and The Journeymen provided our special music. The Lord spoke to our hearts and challenged us during this time of worship and praise.

During this year I have had the privilege of being the facilitator for two sessions of the Adrian Roger's Pastor's Training, "What Every Pastor Ought to Know." I have preached fifty times; led Deacon Workshops; had many one on one sessions with pastors and other leaders; and attended many committee meetings.

BAPTIST MEN'S MINISTRIES REPORT

It has been another busy year for the Men's Ministry with hurricanes in Texas. Many have gone on disaster and recovery missions in our area.

We have also been working with CMC-Union and have assisted in building ramps for the patients they have that are in need.

I am looking forward to the coming year for new and exciting plans to be made. Thanks to all for your help and assistance over the past year.

BIBLE DRILL REPORT

On Sunday, April 6, 2008, the UBA Missions Resource Center was host to the 2008 Association Bible Drill Program. Five churches participated: Lakeview, Love, Mountain Springs, Philadelphia, and Weddington-First. A total of 24 children and youth participated.

Mrs. Connie Rape from Mountain Springs serves as our Director of the Bible Drill, and we greatly appreciate her work to conduct this event. The 2008 program consisted of a Children's Bible Drill and a Youth Drill. We also had one participant in the Speaker's Tournament. This is a great program for children and youth—one that builds a strong foundation for life application of the Scriptures. Bible Drill includes a variety of fun-filled experiences and activities that appeal to children and youth as they learn. It is a wonderful plan for learning the Books of the Bible and key passages they will keep in their memory forever. Preparation for next year's program can begin now with a stronger emphasis in January 2009. There are three levels of participation: the Church Drill, the Association Drill, and the State Drill. You choose whether or not to advance. You might choose to promote the church drill your first year and move to the association level the next year. Every participant is a winner in learning and memorizing the Scriptures.

To request more information about the Bible Drill and Youth Speaker's Ministry, please contact Jeanie Whitehead, Drill Ministries Coordinator at the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, 1-800-395-5102, ext. 5652 or email Jeanie at jwhitehead@ncbaptist.org. You can also visit the website at bscnc.org. Click on Congregational Services and scroll down to Bible Drill Ministries. On this website, you will find resources and ideas to help and encourage you to meet this challenge with your children and youth. We encourage more participation from our member congregations.

BIVOCATIONAL MINISTRIES COORDINATOR'S REPORT

Thank you to the Union Baptist Churches, the UBA staff and especially to our Director, Dr. Dennis Burton for the opportunity to serve another year. My goal is to assist the churches and pastors of UBA in fulfilling their church vision.

It has been my pleasure to speak at many of our churches on Sunday mornings, trainings and revivals. As a part of Associational Church Transitional Team (ACTS) we have served in several churches during their transition time.

This past year was declared the year of Sunday School. There were several training events to emphasize the importance of Sunday School. Sunday School Extravaganza, a training event for teachers and leaders was held at West Monroe on November 2-3, 2007. On May 20th, Phil Stone, Senior consultant for NCBSC Sunday School Ministries Department was our guest speaker at our Sunday School Leadership Appreciation Banquet. On August 25 2008, Dr. Donnie Gamble led training at the Mission Resource Center for UBA churches on R.E.A.L. Sunday School. I have enjoyed assisting Donnie with the Sunday School training for our association.

Dotty and I, along with Brad and Sharon Phifer went to Caraway on July 11-13 for the N.C. Bivocational Ministers Conference. The theme was 'Developing the Leader Within You'. Dr. Jim Henry, former SBC president led our conference on marriage enrichment and Rev. Ray Gilder, Bivocational Ministries Director for Tennessee Baptist Convention did workshops on 'Giving Honor to Your Wife'. Dr. Bob Garbett presented a study on 'Time Management'. We are very appreciative to the North Carolina Baptist Convention for the opportunity every year to join bivocational ministers and staff from all over North Carolina in a weekend of fellowship and training.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve the churches and work with the staff of UBA.

Respectfully submitted,
Tony Medlin

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' REPORT
BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
(Previously, General Board Report)

"By God's grace, we will become the strongest force in the history of this Convention for reaching people with the message of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ." These insightful and inspiring words from our State Convention Director and Treasurer will ring true down through the years. They were spoken to the Board of Directors at one of their quarterly meetings. They have become the catalyst for a renewal in the Kingdom's work of North Carolina Baptist. They have served to focus our efforts and ministries on the essentials of reaching the world for Christ. We are still in a transition stage in which new and exciting ministries are being developed and our established and dependable ministries keep making great strides for the Kingdom of God.

The state convention has multiple resources ready to assist North Carolina churches in fulfilling the Great Commission. From seniors' ministries to children's ministry, discipleship to stewardship, multicultural church planting to Sunday School, the convention has a lot to offer local churches. Take the time to visit their website to see for yourself, www.ncbaptist.org.

The coming years hold great promise for our cooperating churches, and the State Convention stands ready to assist churches in accomplishing their task to glorify God.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S JOB CORPS REPORT

The purpose of CWJC is to provide a Christian context in which women in need are equipped for life and employment and a mission context in which women help women. We have now been in our new location (offices provided by Union Baptist Association) for a little over a year, which has given us more room to minister to our participants. At the UBA Missions Resource Center, we were able to join in this year with two other groups and have a mentor training to get our CWJCs ready to minister to the ladies God sends us. The other two groups were Concord and Salisbury, and we had a total of approximately 20 women. We have also been able to have several celebrations for our participants which were enjoyed by all.

- Number of families served in total services offered by this site is 35.
- Number of participants at present is 14.
- Number of mentors working with participants is 8. We need at least the total number of mentors as participants.
- We have had 18 Spiritual Decisions made this year, and we are thanking and praising the Lord for those decisions.
- We have added this year two active volunteers and one new Board member.

We have one graduate that will be graduating this year. She has a job, was able to save her home and obtain a car. This was done with the help of CWJC. We have also blessed one of the ladies with a car, and we are in the process of blessing another lady with a car.

Our Site Coordinator just finished the Level 2 National Certification Training to better help our ladies. We still solicit your help.

CHRISTMAS TOY STORE 2007

Our first Christmas Toy Store was held Saturday, December 8, 2007 at the UBA Missions Resource Center and was a great success. We thank the UBA churches for providing donations and volunteers. This successful team effort was blessed by God, and we were able to serve 33 families.

In October, we began to receive referrals from individuals, churches and schools for families who were unable to buy toys for their children at Christmas. We offered these 33 families the opportunity to purchase NEW toys at the price of ten cents on the dollar value of the toy. By allowing toys to be purchased, self-esteem and dignity of each participant is maintained. Other needs such as food and clothing are also discussed. The plan of salvation is explained to each participant, which is the most important aspect of this ministry. During this special time of sharing at our first Toy Store event, two of the participants made decisions for Christ.

A portion of the toys (not purchased by participants) were packed and sent to Mexico with a local church mission trip. The remaining toys were donated to With Love from Jesus, a local ministry in Indian Trail.

Many volunteers made this event happen. The following responsibilities were met by our volunteers:

- Receive, sort, and mark toys contributed by our churches
- Greeters to make parents feel welcome
- Shoppers' aides, assisting with the toy selections
- Cashiers
- Runners to keep our supply of toys readily available

- Baggers to package the toys and provide Christmas wrapping for the gifts
- Servers to provide refreshments for the participants
- Counselors who spoke individually with participants and shared the Plan of Salvation.

Prayer, commitment, hard work, love, cooperation and God's blessings made our first Toy Store a wonderful successful! We plan to continue this ministry in 2008 with plans to serve 50 families.

THE STATE OF THE UNION
DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

One year into the Missions Resource Center has seen dramatic changes in the Association and its ability to support our member congregations. Dozens of conferences, meetings, planning events, training and educational opportunities have occurred since our last Annual Meeting. We have been greatly surprised by the realization that we have just begun to envision the potential of this marvelous facility. An especially satisfying experience is the number of our churches beginning to use the building and to ask for special events.

Seminary Extension classes were launched this year with Dr. Donnie Gamble as the director, and numerous pastoral training events have been held. Currently, we are conducting a Parish Based Clinical Pastoral Experience (CPE) unit and have a diversity of participants who are learning new pastoral skills. November 15 will see Dr. Peter Steinke, an internationally known and sought after teacher, writer, and trainer who will lead a conference at the Missions Resource Center. We expect to have participants from across several denominational lines.

A new International Baptist Mission was opened this year in Stallings after Grace Covenant closed their ministry and donated their property to the Association. Currently, three International Congregations are worshiping there, and we are in dialogue with another. These cultural groups can grow to about 100, and then we will seek to assist them in finding larger facilities so they can continue to grow and reach their communities. Much volunteer labor and funding has been given to this ministry project through Hopewell Baptist Church and our Baptist men. The facility has been refurbished in and out and is providing a wonderful opportunity to these congregations.

A new volunteer staff member has come on board at the UBA office. Dr. Henry Funderburk is giving much of his time to developing, promoting and even leading mission teams. These are in and out of the country, and he will be delighted to help you plan a mission event for your adults and youth. He has proven to be a faithful servant and has become a valued member of our UBA Team.

A new ministry of benevolence and evangelism this past year was the UBA Toy Store. Many families were assisted, and the Good News was shared with every one of them. Mrs. Donna Pitman and her team broke new ground with this unique tool of outreach.

A new mission project adopted in January was Friendship House. A number of our congregations donated food, bedding and household items as well as received an offering to assist them in their ministry to those struggling with addiction. We will again encourage our member congregations to support this vital ministry in January of the coming year.

No annual report would be complete without recognizing the incredible gifts and contributions of the UBA Team to our Association and Congregations. Mrs. Jean Rollins, Ms. Bessie Bent somehow get it all done and keep us on track. Clyde Hawkins and Tony Medlin give and serve beyond our greatest expectations, and dozens of our churches are the recipients of their Ministry Gifts and decades of Pastoral experience. It is a special treat to serve with all of them. We laugh, cry, pray and dream together, and we praise God for the many opportunities He has given us to serve in His Kingdom.

Our deepest appreciation goes to you – our churches and members. You have blessed us, supported us, and give over and above what we ask for. Thank you. Thank you to our Pastors, Deacons, Members and Mission Partners without whom we could not do this work. God bless you and keep you in His Grace and Presence.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Dennis L. Burton
Director of Missions

EVANGELISM REPORT

On September 13, 2008 a Multi Cultural Festival was held at the Shops Of Nottingham center. There were nine groups participating with most in native costume and offering samples of native foods. The fellowship was exceptional and the international churches did an excellent job of presenting their culture and the methods they used in sharing Christ.

This was a first year experience for the Association and the learning gained from it will be a good spring board for 2009 when it is hoped that more groups will participate and with wider promotion more attendees will take advantage of this unique experience.

H.E.L.P. CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER

The H.E.L.P. Crisis Pregnancy Center is an outreach ministry funded and sustained by individuals and churches in our community. Our goal is to offer practical aid, wise counsel and direction in finding God's forgiveness and healing through introduction to our Lord Jesus Christ. We offer compassionate assistance to the women and families we serve. We desire to be Christ's hands and feet while providing a viable alternative to abortion.

Our purpose – to be a voice for the unborn; to supply help to the lost and needy; to bring hope to hurting, post-abortive women; to encourage young people to decide early to remain sexually pure until marriage and to present the gospel of Jesus Christ to all who come to us.

We are also committed to be a resource to the local Christian community. We provide supportive counseling, training for Christian lay people, an opportunity for evangelism outreach, and in assisting churches to develop a better understanding of the abortion issue from a Biblical, moral, medical and social perspective. We offer resources to the local church concerning teaching abstinence and dating from a Biblical perspective through speakers, videos, and written materials.

Businesses	9%
Churches	24%
Individuals	26%
Fundraisers	36%

Matching gifts and other	3%

It is not always popular in our culture to take up the cause of Christ or the rights of the unborn, but H.E.L.P. Crisis Pregnancy Center has chosen to stand true to our Savior and Lord. We resolve to stand firm and make a difference in our community.

We appreciate the Union Baptist Association and see its member congregations as friends to the lost and hurting in Union County, NC and to this ministry. We trust the Lord will bless you as you stand with Him.

Trusting in His Goodness,
Tara Quinn, Executive Director

Our youth camp, held every year, is always rewarding. We had 35 young people come to know the Lord, many rededications and lasting friendships this year. This is a time for praise and worship, time, time for crafts and time for outdoor activities as well as delicious meals from the kitchen staff. It takes a lot of dedicated folks to have summer youth camp but the rewards are beyond measure.

Our pastor has been with us a year now and we feel closer to the Lord and each other than we have experienced at Hillcrest in a long time. God is working.

HMONG: Three families joined the church.

INDIAN TRAIL FIRST: Began a fourth Sunday morning service in Family Life Center. Ordained three men for ministry. Established a Missions House. Church celebrated Pastor's 25th anniversary here.

LEE PARK: The most significant event during the whole church year occurred on March 2, 2008, when Morgan Mill Road Baptist Church and Lee Park Baptist Church voted concurrently to merge the congregations of both churches with Morgan Mill Road Baptist Church becoming Morgan Mill Road Campus of Lee Park Baptist Church. On January 6, the churches met at Wingate University for a combined service and the unveiling of plans for expansion. Due to the ever-changing needs of the church, these plans for a new building at Lee Park were scrapped. 3 services each Sunday morning (2 at Lee Park and 1 at Morgan Mill Road Campus) commenced.

During the year, the pastor became full-time rather than bi-vocational. Also, the Secretary, full-time Associate, Minister to Families, Visitation Minister, Youth Director and Children's Director, all became full-time employees.

The Lee Park Sanctuary was updated with new pews, choir chairs and new carpet. The lighting, sound, video/recording equipment was updated and made a part of the improvement program. The church voted to purchase an additional 5 acre tract at the rear of the present Morgan Mill Road property and started the renovation on the Family Life Center at the Morgan Mill Road Campus. Plans are to begin two services each Sunday at the FLC and have other activities at the same location.

December 2007 was the unveiling to Lee Park's Living Christmas Tree with 2 performances. Due to the demand, 4 performances have been planned for 2008 and will be at the Morgan Mill Road Campus.

LOVE: Added full-time staff member and additional church office.

MILL CREEK: Called first full-time associate pastor. Brotherhood built a facility for youth & recreational purposes.

MT. OLIVE: Celebrated 175th anniversary on April 20, 2008.

MT. PLEASANT: Ordained Justin Baucom into the ministry. We did local and state missions. A new roof was put on the church and the parsonage. The parking lot was repaved and marked for parking. New handicap ramp was installed. A cornerstone removal service was held on Senior Day. The articles that were placed there fifty years ago were looked at and talked about. They are being restored and will be placed back along with things and articles of today.

MT. ZION: On March 16, 2008, Rev. John Lindsay became our new pastor. Rev. Lindsay came from Poplin Grove Baptist Church in Albemarle, NC. He is married to Cheri Lindsay and they have two daughters, Alyssa and Jessica.

Our Bible School raised money to purchase new playground equipment for our church this year. The congregation paid the remainder of the amount needed to provide our children with the new playground equipment.

PLEASANT HILL: Repaired and expanded the church parking lot and added new striping.

SARDIS: Called Kenn Hucks as our pastor. Ordained Matt Kocher as deacon. Sent messengers to the NC Baptist Convention. Started a Beginner Spanish Class. Senior Men's SS Class started a Seminary Student Scholarship. Participated in the UBA Toy Store. Participated in an Easter Celebration at Suburban Estates community with a Spanish church from Monroe. Members volunteered with Habitat for Humanity. Donated to Crisis Pregnancy Center, Loaves & Fishes, and collected school supplies, etc. and helped distribute items for With Love From Jesus. Some members ministered and witnessed in several states including Florida and Kentucky. Participated in Operation Christmas Child and 16 of our members went to Mexico and distributed shoe boxes and school supplies, toys, etc. provided by our church. One family went to Kenya, Africa and Sardis provided money for a cow and a water system needed by an orphanage. Other mission trips were made to Ethiopia, Honduras, and Lebanon where members of Sardis worked and witnessed. Constructed a new drive thru and covered walk on the Sunday School building.

SANDY RIDGE: July 13-18, 2008, 19 people from Sandy Ridge Baptist Church participated in a mission trip to Dalton, Georgia. We worked with Rebuilding Hope, a ministry working to eliminate substandard housing while spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ in Dalton. Our projects for various homeowners included yard work, painting, roofing, tearing out and replacing floors, repairs on a ceiling, installing carpet and vinyl flooring, rebuilding an unusable porch, repairing a toilet, and repairing kitchen cabinets. We also worked with local volunteers on Habitat for Humanity homes. Other opportunities included prayerwalking a neighborhood, and sharing skits and testimonies with a group of teenagers in a detention center. Our most important work was sharing the gospel, encouraging those in need, and strengthening relationships within our own group. With God's guidance and the financial and prayer support of our entire congregation, God was glorified.

March 27-28 2008, 20 people from Sandy Ridge Baptist Church participated in a mission trip to Grifton, NC. We worked through Grifton Mission Ministries which is a ministry of The North Carolina Baptist Men. We completed two projects. The first one was building a wheelchair ramp for an elderly man who was unable to go outside without any help due to the difficulty of getting up and down his steps. He was thrilled because he would be able to go outside just to sit under his shade tree. The other project was a roofing job. An elderly couple had paid someone $800 to fix their roof and it still leaked. We were able to tear off the shingles and replace rotted plywood and joists. Then we re-shingled the entire roof. It began raining as we were loading our tools. God's timing was perfect.

SOUTH MONROE: Our church sponsors a different "mission project" each month. Sometimes it is monies, other times supplies, or however we can help.

TRINITY: A mission team traveled to Grifton, NC to assist in the rebuilding of homes there. We installed a new roof and steeple on the sanctuary, a new roof on the fellowship hall and we installed a new covered walkway between the fellowship hall and the sanctuary. We called a new youth pastor late this spring.

WAXHAW: Church recognized Pastor Claude Connell as Pastor Emeritus of our congregation. Church licensed Mr. Walt Carraway to preach the gospel. A $25,000 playground was donated & installed for our growing children's ministry. A new land survey/plot plan for all church property & buildings was completed in anticipation of a new building program. Facilities improvements of paint & carpet to educational plant building. A new WMU sewing ministry room was created from a portion of the fellowship hall. WMU made quilts & blankets for homeless shelter, Turning Point, Crisis Pregnancy Center & Caleb Ministries. Also made stuffed toys for hospital, police & emergency rescue departments. Brotherhood was active with projects for elderly in community. Working toward getting our relief trailer & van ready for road trips.

WEST MONROE: On September 7, 2008, the Family Life Center debt was retired.

MISSION COORDINATOR'S REPORT

In obedience to The Great Commission, many of our member churches have been conducting mission trips around the world. Our Churches sent teams to Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ethiopia, Guatemala, Honduras, Kenya, Lebanon, Liberia, Mexico, Peru, South Africa and many other countries. This is in addition to the mission trips conducted in many states across our country.

The role of the mission coordinator is to facilitate mission awareness and personal participation of individuals on mission. We can offer churches with mature mission programs the opportunity to help other churches so that their efforts can be multiplied. We can offer assistance to churches who would like to begin mission efforts, both domestic and international. We can facilitate the pairing of churches for joint mission efforts. And, we can take individuals on Association- sponsored mission trips to equip them with skills they can take back to their own churches.

Our first venture in missions was an associational trip to Mills Home in Thomasville. Thirty-seven participants from the Union Baptist Association worked the Children's Home in Thomasville, NC on Saturday May 24 doing spring spruce-up chores ranging from mulching shrubs to cleaning cottages and washing windows. Nine churches were involved in the project. Following the work the group was treated to a hot dog lunch and program on the Baptist Children's Home.

A mission team from five churches in the Union Baptist Association went to Emmanuel Baptist Church in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania from August 2-9, 2008. The purpose of the trip was to work with Pastor Jim Hess and other church members in prayer walking the vicinity of the church and in an area where a church plant is planned, in witnessing in those areas, to canvas the church community, to worship together with church members, and to help with some maintenance chores in the church building. The greatest satisfaction of this mission was seeing sixteen children make professions of faith in Jesus Christ. In addition to the visible results of salvation, there is no way to measure the value of the prayer walking and evangelistic efforts.

On November 22, 2008 a team of nine people will be working with a church in Mexico City. This trip is a joint venture between the Association and Shiloh Baptist Church. We will be working with a church named "El Buen Pastor" and will be staying in the IMB mission house. The team will be multicultural in that participants will be Hispanic, Black, Korean, and Caucasian. This will involve door-to-door witnessing, prayer walking, evangelism, and helping with a church plant.

A new website www.ubatrips.com is dedicated to the mission trip efforts of the Association and churches within the Association. We would love to publish the mission work of your church on this website. Also, we are beginning to plan for mission trips for 2009 and welcome your suggestions.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Henry Funderburk, Mission Coordinator

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH COMMITTEE REPORT

Brothers and Sisters of Union Baptist Association, 2008 has been a year of growth and blessing for UBA. We have brought two new congregations under watchcare, and the Lord has blessed. The first is a new congregation, Foundation Church, and their pastor is Rev. Victor Dermid. The second is The Asian-Indian Fellowship pastored by Rev. Sam Talluri. Pastor Talluri's congregation is one of four new language congregations that is meeting in the facility that UBA acquired this year.

God has blessed UBA with a church facility in the western part of Union County just off Highway 74. It was given to the association and many volunteers and funds have been given to improve and broaden its use. This facility will be used to help launch different language groups until they grow to the point where they can begin meeting in a place of their own. It is the UBA International Baptist Mission.

Also, this year we elected Dr. Henry Funderburk to be our first Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator. Dr. Funderburk will help to lead teams made up of volunteers from different UBA churches to work together on missions near and far. One of those places could be Phoenix, Arizona. We voted just last October to enter into partnership with several NAMB church plants in the Phoenix area.

As Jesus stated in Acts 1, "You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and to the end of the earth." We have the greatest message in the world; let us all be on mission as we have been commissioned.

By His Grace,
Rev. Joel Collette, Chairman

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

This committee will serve throughout the year to promote stewardship in the Association and in the churches. SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

As Sunday School Director for Union Baptist Association, my mission is to open the Sunday School back up to its original purpose as the primary ministry strategy of the church for building Relationships with people and connecting them to a small group, for doing Evangelism, for Assimilating people into the church and for Life-Changing Bible study. Sunday School, as a ministry strategy, has as its Biblical foundation, Deuteronomy 31:12 and Matthew 28:19-20. These are the two Great Commissions of the Bible, and they challenge us to Gather the people and to Go…and Teach. The ultimate end in both passages is…that they may observe. The REAL purpose of Sunday School is to be the "presence of Christ" in our world to bring about life-changing experiences for people in the world.

A Resolution was adopted at the July 24, 2007 Summer Session of Union Baptist Association, declaring the year 2008 as the Year of Sunday School. In recognition of the "Year of Sunday School", the UBA sponsored a Sunday School Extravaganza which was held on the weekend of November 2-3, 2007 at West Monroe Baptist Church. Many conferences were provided for general leaders, as well as age-group conferences. A conference was also offered to provide new ideas for a welcome center setup along with the ministries of parkers, ushers, and greeters.

The UBA sponsored a Sunday School Leadership Appreciation Banquet held Tuesday, May 20, 2008 at the West Monroe Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Pastors and Sunday School leadership from all UBA congregations were invited to attend this celebration honoring and promoting the Sunday School ministry in our churches. A catered meal was served, Miss Joy Smith from Euto Baptist Church provided beautiful music, Sunday School testimonies were given, and our guest speaker was Rev. Phil Stone, Senior Consultant with the NC Baptist State Convention Sunday School Ministries Department. It was an evening of fellowship, celebration and appreciation, which was well attended and enjoyed by all.

On August 25, 2008, the UBA Missions Resource Center was host to a Sunday School Growth Plan Seminar for the benefit of our member congregations. We shared ideas and facts to assist our churches in their efforts to experience continued growth on an annual basis.

It is my pleasure to serve the congregations of the Union Baptist Association as Sunday School Director. Thank you for your attendance at the events sponsored during this association year. Thank you, also, for the many invitations I have received to visit our churches to work with Sunday School leadership. It has been exciting and encouraging to see the desire of our churches to return to and improve upon their Sunday School ministries. I look forward to the year ahead and encourage you to allow us to be of assistance to you.

On May 11, 2009, we will host another Sunday School Leadership Banquet (location to be announced). Our keynote speaker will be Dr. Steve Parr, who serves the Georgia Baptist Convention as the Vice-President for Sunday School and Evangelism. This will be another opportunity for your church and we hope you will place this event on your calendar and encourage your Sunday School leadership to attend.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Donnie Gamble
Sunday School Director

UNION COUNTY CRISIS ASSISTANCE MINISTRY REPORT

Union County Crisis Assistance Ministry provides vital financial assistance with rent, mortgage, and utility expenses for local families and individuals who are temporarily unable to meet the costs of these essentials, thereby preventing homelessness and utility service interruption for area residents.

During 2007, Union County Crisis Assistance Ministry experienced an increased number of families with children needing assistance due to the alarming rising costs of basic needs such as housing, food, utilities and gasoline. From January-December of last year, our agency provided referrals to 6,261 individuals connecting them with much needed resources in our community.

Rent/Mortgage: 383 families and individuals facing eviction or foreclosure received emergency financial assistance in the amount of $196,337.82, thereby preventing homelessness for these families and individuals in our community that were facing critical times in their lives.
Utilities: 352 families and individuals received utility assistance totaling $112,710.22, therefore preventing utility service interruption for area residents.
Food Assistance: 89 local families and individuals in need, who failed to qualify for food stamps, received emergency food assistance.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY UNION (WMU) REPORT

WMU EMPHASIS THEME 2007-2008: "LIVE THE CALL"

EMPHASIS WATCHWORD: "Walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. Col. 1:10 NKJV

During the two-year theme focus of "Live the Call", WMU emphasized that Christians should hear, understand, embrace and live the mission of God. This theme challenged each of us to consider if the things we respond to make an eternal impact on the kingdom of God. Self-satisfaction may last for a while but will do nothing to help us gain the peace and contentment that comes only through our obedience to the call from God. Our personal mandate from God calls each of us to understand and embrace the Great Commission. He calls us to live, fully devoted to Him, through our professions, activities in the community and service in the church. Living a missions lifestyle and seeking to help others hear His call and respond to Him will result in a pleasing and fruitful walk with our Lord. May this always be the desire of Baptist women, men, girls and boys in the churches of the Union Baptist Association.

Heck-Jones WMU Offering for the North Carolina WMU organization was reinstated after 30 years of receiving support through the North Carolina Missions Offering. Messengers at the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in November voted to remove WMU from the NCMO Offering. February was established as the month to receive the annual offering for WMU operational expenses.

The following events were held, mission projects and scholarships supported by WMU organizations in the association during the 2007-2008 WMU Year.

- WMU Church Leadership Training August 28, 2007 at the UBA Missions Resource Center.
- Windows of the Heart Women's Conference October 20, 2007 at West Monroe Baptist Church. "Here Comes The Bride...of Christ" was presented by Women of Design Ministries. Deepening our love relationship with Jesus and understanding more fully who we are as the Bride of Christ was the focus of this conference.
- Seeing with New Eyes: God's Compassion was the theme for the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer on Tuesday, November 5, 2007 at the UBA Missions Resource Center.
- Annual UBA WMU meeting April 1, 2008, at the UBA Missions Resource Center. Leaders from New Salem, Mt. Zion, and Emmanuel shared Celebration Testimonies of God's amazing power and work through the WMU organizations of their church. A CWJC participant expressed praise and thanks to God for the outreach of this ministry to her during a very difficult time in her life. Allie Simpson from Lakeview shared a personal testimony of God's work through a seemingly tragic situation that brought about a greater good. The presence of the Holy Spirit was felt very strongly during this time of praise and worship and all present were truly blessed. All associational WMU leaders were re-elected to another year of service.
- 2008 Mary Blair Scholarship recipients:
  Heather Lauren Mullis, Calvary Baptist, Parkwood High School
  Kaitlin Danielle Underwood, Hopewell Baptist, Piedmont High School.

YOUTH COMMITTEE REPORT

We have had reports throughout this past year from so many of our churches as youth ministries are a vital part of our church families. It is so exciting to hear of our youth being involved in our community, State, Nation and foreign countries. Your youth council has been involved in meeting and planning projects like our new link on the UBA website. We encourage all churches to call in or email their events that are occurring in our churches. When your church has a great event, let's welcome each other to join in.

Your council has enjoyed this past year and is excited that for our 4th year, we will be joining forces with Samaritan's Purse to work on December 5, 2008, with 400 youth at the Processing Center in Charlotte. We will serve pizza and sodas to all our workers. We were sad that we could only secure this number of spots and felt it fair to limit each church to 30 spots this year. Let's pray that next year we might have a larger limit or maybe two evenings to give all of our churches the opportunity.

As we know, our youth continue to face tough issues and even tougher decisions today. We need churches to stand as a warm and welcoming place for our young people to share in the Love of Christ. Let's make sure that we keep youth ministry at the core of our ministries in all our churches. If our committee can be of assistance to any church in any way, please let us know.

Respectively,
Frank Casstevens, Chairman (New Salem)
Rev. Joey Rowell (Macedonia)
Mr. Ashley Huneycutt (Hopewell)
Rev. Maurice Henry (Elizabeth Missionary)

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA REPORT

Kasey... The life Kasey lived was a sharp contrast from the life she was actually living at school where she was popular and a cheerleader. An abusive stepfather, a distant mother, and the responsibility of caring for her two younger brothers were too much for the young teen. Kasey moved in with her grandmother believing it would help. Instead, as she grew older, she acted out and made dangerous choices that put her at risk.

Kasey's grandmother knew about Baptist Children's Homes and made a call. The teenager now lives at BCH's Oak Ranch near Broadway, becoming the first girl ever admitted into the residential facility that had before only served boys. Today, she is one of seven girls in care.

Kasey likes living at the 755-acre ranch. She loves taking care of the horses. She is taking responsibility for her actions. Kasey is involved in theater at the Harnett County School she attends. Recently, she played a fish in "Seussical the Musical," and she is a member of the school's photography club. Her favorite subject is English.

Kasey reads her Bible and says she prays a lot. "I am a Christian. I have given my heart to the Lord. I tell Him everything."

Kasey is only one of nearly 1,500 children who find hope and care each year at Baptist Children's Homes. Each one has a story. Each one is given an opportunity in the name of Jesus. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for remembering "the least of these."

President Blackwell Marks 25th Year... BCH president Michael C. Blackwell observed his 25th year overseeing the statewide child care Institution on July 1. Blackwell has led BCH to become family-focused and child-centered while never losing sight of the ministry's core Christian values. His accomplishments are too numerous to list here, but the reader is referred to the July 2008 Commemorative issue of Charity & Children for a complete summary. Complimentary copies are available by calling 1-800-476-3669, ext. 1211. Under Blackwell's leadership, BCH now operates facilities in 16 North Carolina cities.

New Transitional Service... BCH introduced a new residential service to specifically aid older children as they prepare for life as independent adults. Transitional living provides care, counseling, and life-skills education to older children in a less restricted residential setting. The service was created in response to the growing need in North Carolina to help transition children from residential care to productive and self-sufficient adult lives. In January, Noel Home in Lenoir became BCH's first transitional living cottage followed by Huffman Cottage at Mills Home in Thomasville.

Developmental Disabilities Ministry in Sanford... On May 18, 2008, more than 300 supporters and BCH staff members gathered for the dedication ceremony of two new Developmental Disabilities Ministry (DDM) homes for developmentally disabled adults in Sanford. The Lanier Home and Mercer Home will provide residence for six special needs adult women and men respectively.

Food Roundup Reaches New High... The annual "Food Roundup" in April exceeded its goal, setting a new mark in the amounts of food, supplies, and gift cards given to BCH. North Carolina Baptists across the state, with the coordination of church leaders and association directors of missions, came together to deliver more than $300,000 in donated items. Another high was set in the month of May when almost 3,000 volunteers and guests visited BCH facilities for work days and special events.

Mills Home Church Renovation... Renovation of the Mills Home Baptist Church in Thomasville was completed with the help of North Carolina Baptist volunteers and a generous estate gift. Church groups renovated the fellowship hall installing new carpet, recess lighting, and expanding and refurbishing the kitchen. Upstairs rooms were painted and new carpet and lighting were added.

BCH Reaccredited...BCH has been reaccredited by the Council on Accreditation of Services for Family and Children (COA). Accreditation through COA means BCH meets the highest national standards and is delivering the best in quality services. BCH received its first accreditation in 1987. The institution has been accredited ever since.

Five Star Rating...Three BCH centers received five star ratings, the highest possible rating, from the North Carolina Division of Child Development. The on-site daycare at Care House in Lenoir, a group home providing care and education for single teenage mothers and their babies, received its license in May 2007. The Fleshman-Pratt Education Center for infants to three year olds and Robert Idol Child Development Center for three to five year olds received five star ratings last summer. Both centers are a part of BCH's Weekday Education program in Thomasville.

Truett Home...A special open house on February 3, 2008 celebrated the opening of the Truett Baptist Association Children's Home in Hayesville. The home represents one of the most unique relationships in North Carolina Baptist life as BCH provides residential child care services at the facility and Truett Association provides funding and leases the property. Truett Association and BCH have partnered to provide help to children and families living in Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties.

Girls Wilderness Camp...On May 20, 2008, President Blackwell made the long-awaited announcement of the establishment of a wilderness camping program for girls. With a major lead gift from the Haskell and Gay Duncan Foundation, BCH has begun fundraising efforts to build Phase One of the camp, which is located near Aberdeen in Moore County.

BAPTIST RETIREMENT HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA REPORT

Thank you, North Carolina Baptists!
Because of your generosity in 2007-2008, Baptist Retirement Homes will be able to provide more than $2,000,000 in funding for benevolent care.

Their lot has been made secure.
Forty percent of our residents are financially unable to pay the cost of the care they are receiving. Month after month, year after year, many of our Assisted Living and Nursing Care residents receive financial assistance from you. Furthermore, our promise to each of our residents helps Baptist Retirement Homes to keep this promise.

Their boundary lines have fallen in pleasant places.
At the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville...at the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston-Salem...at The Taylor House in Albemarle...and at the Gardens of Taylor Glen in Concord, beauty, security, comfort, and compassionate care are found in full measure.

They have a delightful inheritance.
At each of the Homes, the ministry of a Baptist Chaplain lifts the hearts of our residents. The enrichment and recreational activities at each Home make for an enjoyable lifestyle. Day after day the high quality of care that is given speaks of a loving Heavenly Father, helping to make life for our Aging Saints...the Best of Times!

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA

North Carolina Baptists faithfully invest in the lives of others so that the truth of the Gospel may penetrate hearts and change lives. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina staff, under the leadership of Executive Director-Treasurer Milton A. Hollifield, Jr., is committed to helping Baptist churches maximize their ministry outreach for the purpose of building the Lord's Kingdom.

This year the Executive Committee voted unanimously that the ministry of the BSCNC expand to create a new group – the Church Planting and Missions Development Group (CPMD). Formed out of components of the Mission Growth Evangelism Group (MGE), Administration & Convention Relations Group and Business Services Group, this new division will combine Church Planting; Associational Partnerships; Cooperative Program (CP) Missions Development, Stewardship, and NCMO; and the new Women's Ministry under the direction of a new executive leader. As a result of this action, the group formerly known as MGE will be re-named the Evangelization Group and retain its leadership role of evangelism with adults, youth and children as well as the outreach to college and university campuses across the state of North Carolina under Executive Leader Don McCutcheon.

Embrace Women's Ministries and Missions was launched this year. This ministry will embrace God's call to pray for and minister to women, their families and future generations for the building up of Christ's Kingdom. Embrace will focus on ministry to women and families through three major intents: evangelism, discipleship and missions.

Associational Partnerships
Ken Kessler, Baptist State Convention Associational Partnerships Team Leader for the past three and a half years, took a position with the Baptist General Association of Virginia in April 2008. Betsy Roland, Associational Partnerships Ministry Assistant, continues to serve associational staff as we search for a new Team Leader. The Convention serves churches along with 80 associations across the state.

Each year Associational Partnerships host an associational missions summer conference. This year's conference theme was "Living with Urgency: Seize the Divine Moment." Speakers included Hugh Townsend, North American Mission Board; Pedro Rosario, Crown Financial Ministries; and David Mann, LifeWay Network Partnerships Specialist.

Bivocational Ministries also hosts an annual summer conference. "Developing the Leader Within You" was the focus this year, with special emphasis on 1 Timothy 5:2-3. Conference participants at Caraway Conference Center heard from Jim Henry, retired senior pastor; Ray Gilder, bivocational specialist with the Tennessee Baptist Convention; and Diane Gilder, teacher and leader in conferences for ministers spouses. Lester Evans is the BSCNC bivocational ministries consultant. The BSCNC has about 1,400 churches with bivocational staff.

Also sponsored annually is the Associational Staff/Convention Staff Dialogue. Each January, leaders dialogue about common ministry points in associations across North Carolina. Leaders learn from the ideas of others and encourage one another in their evangelism opportunities.

The retired Directors of Missions banquet in December invites leaders and their spouses to Caraway to fellowship and share how the Lord continues to work in their lives.

Associational Partnerships help associations fill ministry positions and provides training for search committees. Through Ministry Partnership Agreements local associations partner with this office in outreach such as church planting, resort ministry and ethnic and language ministry. Another resource offered by this office is demographic services for associations and churches. Understanding the demographics of an associational area can help leaders be more effective in their planning and outreach. Convention churches can access this information through the Percept organization at the Web site www.link2lead.com. This year Percept added advanced features to allow leaders to view demographic data not only in their association, but within a certain mile radius of the association. Leaders can also view the demographics of other associations.

Associational Partnerships allow North Carolina Baptists to serve together and minister in the name of Jesus Christ.

Conference Centers

This year 768 students made professions of faith, 1,804 made rededications and 52 were called to full time ministry during summer youth weeks at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Fort Caswell. During Congregational Leadership Days at Hollifield more than 3,000 North Carolina Baptists came to Lake Hickory for retreats and leadership development. Truett Camp hosted the Western Happiness Retreat, Junior Music Camp and Youth Music Week. Caraway Conference Center and Camp built a prayer chapel and welcomed 23,000 guests to its facilities.

Church Planting

The Lord blessed the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina with a total of 99 new churches last year. This consisted of 77 new church plants and 22 new affiliates. Included were 77 Anglo, 15 Hispanic, eight Asian and eight multi-ethnic churches. Others were African-American, Cowboy, Biker, Montagnard, Hmong and African churches.

For the reporting year, North Carolina Baptist churches baptized 23,122 people.
One of the primary components of the church planting process in North Carolina is Basic Training for Church Planters, a weeklong training event. This year we trained 106 people at this event.

The Church Planting Team also offered a "Partners in Church Planting" conference at Caraway Conference Center, when participants learned the three levels of partnerships in church plants.
Amaury Santos, Hispanic church planting consultant, joined the Church Planting Team.

Eternal Impact

The theme for the 2008 North Carolina Missions Offering and Week of Prayer was "Eternal Impact" (www.ncmissionsoffering.org).This offering is the visible expression of North Carolina Baptists who desire to impact eternity. The offering supports the work of NC Baptist Men, church planting and evangelism, missions education and promotion, associational projects and mission camps. By supporting this offering and week of prayer, North Carolina Baptists work to impact God's world for eternal change to God's eternal glory.

Another way North Carolina Baptists make missions a priority is by giving through the Cooperative Program. Awards were given to the 20 churches leading the Convention in Cooperative Program giving for 2007. Among churches with more than 400 members, Peninsula Baptist Church in Mooresville was first in giving, while the leader among churches with fewer than 400 members was Laurel Springs Baptist Church in Deep Gap.

Making Disciples

Congregational Services has a vision for North Carolina Baptist churches to make disciples resulting in lives changed by the power of God.

Congregational Services assist churches in Sunday School, church administration, church building and planning, music and worship, children's ministry, preschool ministry and family ministry.

Youth who attended music week at Truett Camp were challenged to devote their lives to worshipping the Creator. This year the All-State Youth Choir celebrated 10 years of ministry.
Churches participating in Sunday School leadership training and the Associational Smaller Membership Sunday School Growth Plan saw more people coming to church and hearing the Gospel. Through collaborative leadership, the Pastors Disciple-Making Network, and discipleship conferences such as Transformed Hearts, North Carolina Baptists have been encouraged to go forth and make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Scholarships
A scholarship program has been established and is administered by the Convention for students from North Carolina Baptist churches. This year nearly $1 million was awarded, with more than 700 students receiving scholarships. Students applying for the Baptist Scholarship were required to answer two essay questions: "Give your personal testimony" and "How is the Cooperative Program relevant to today's generation?" Students were also required to submit a letter of recommendation from their church pastor.

Telling the Good News
The Intentionally Evangelistic Church Strategy (IECS) remains the primary strategy for winning North Carolina to Christ. A total of 444 participants and 166 North Carolina Baptist churches participated this year in the IECS and IECS training. The IECS strategy seminars are moving from exclusively state meetings to more seminars on the associational level.
In May, the Office of Prayer for Evangelization and Spiritual Awakening announced the addition of a prayer room at the Baptist Building in Cary. This room serves as a model for Kingdom-focused prayer that seeks to glorify Christ and fulfill His mission.

The annual Revive Us Again statewide prayer conference was held at Hope Community Church in Raleigh and pastors and leaders united in prayer for revival and awakening during eight associational half-day retreats. Regional overnight one-day retreats were also held across the state.

The "Evangelizing Our Culture with the Gospel" conference was held February 25-26 at Lawndale Baptist Church in Greensboro and included equipping seminars, worship and church growth dialogue sessions.

Retirements
Janice Haywood, senior consultant for children's ministry, retired after 30 years of serving North Carolina Baptist churches. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute president Kenneth W. Ridings retired after 11 years as president.

COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

This year at the Baptist State Convention annual session you will hear stories of how North Carolina Baptists are following Jesus' model of ministry to be Caring, Sharing, and Daring. Our theme this year for the annual session will help us remember how our Savior's mission becomes our model for all modern ministry in His name.

The Council on Christian Higher Education invites you to join us as we rejoice in how students on college and university campuses across the state are proving themselves to be Caring, Sharing, and Daring disciples for Jesus Christ. Here are just a few examples of how God is at work at the five institutions of higher education that cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Campbell University: The School of Education marked its first year as a Teaching Fellows program; ninety-five percent of the Norman Adrian Wiggins School of Law Class of 2007 passed the North Carolina Bar Exam; work is nearing completion on the new football stadium complex and the $30 million John W. Pope, Jr. Convocation Center; crews broke ground on the Robert H. and Anna Gardner Buter Chapel.

Chowan University: Campus Ministry founded a new tradition – The Chowan Cares Campaign – launching a campus-wide annual week dedicated to community service and outreach; students participated in lay revival weekends, mission trips and summer missions.

Gardner-Webb University: Overall enrollment was 3,988 for the fall semester, the highest enrollment in history; the GOAL (Greater Opportunities for Adult Learners) program celebrated 30 years of service; the Frank Nanney Hall building, the new home for the Noel Program for Students with Disabilities, opened its doors for the first time; the founding of The Center for Transformational Leadership was announced.

Mars Hill College: The Ferguson Math and Science Center opened with more laboratory and classroom space; the new Day Hall, currently in the planning stages, will be MHC's first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) certified building; renovations will be made to the Wall Science Building and Moore Fine Arts Building.

Wingate University: The University introduced a new master's program in Physician Assistant Studies; introduced the Ed. D in Educational Leadership; more than 430 people attended Wingate's annual fall "Church Youth Day;" 18 students served on short-term mission trips; 300 students participated in campus ministry programs.

We hope you will attend the annual session of the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro November 10-12 and hear more from the Council on Christian Higher Education about how students are living as Caring, Sharing, and Daring.

Your gifts to the Cooperative Program are critical to the success of these institutions and students. This year nearly $1 million was awarded in scholarships, with more than 700 students receiving scholarships. Students applying for the Baptist Scholarship were required to answer two essay questions: "Give your personal testimony" and "How is the Cooperative Program relevant to today's generation?" Thank you for your support and please continue to pray for our college students and faculty.

GUIDESTONE 2008 ANNUAL REPORT

The GuideStone Team of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina exists to educate and inform key lay leaders who are the decision makers in our churches, and to facilitate the delivery of important products and services to the employees of the more than 4,000 churches affiliated with our state convention. Specifically, we use a variety of delivery methods to enhance the procurement of the following for church employees: Insurance Products (Life, Accidental Death & Dismemberment, Medical, Disability, Dental, and Long Term Care), Retirement Products (Church Retirement Plan, Traditional and Roth IRAs, Personal Investments, etc.), Compensation Planning for Church Employees, Tax Issues, etc. In addition, we work closely with GuideStone Financial Resources in Dallas to provide financial assistance to those elderly ministers and widows of ministers who live under financial duress and need ongoing and/or one time assistance through the Mission: Dignity Ministry which is the new term for the very successful Adopt an Annuitant Ministry.

To personalize the importance of our work, please consider the following vignettes. First, consider Pastor A, who had emergency heart bypass surgery this year with no medical insurance. The overwhelming cost of this surgery has placed a tremendous financial burden on him and his family. Furthermore, this pastor was not an active participant in the church retirement plan until recently. With the state convention protection benefits that come with monthly contributions to the retirement plan this pastor, as a retirement participant, now has a survivor and disability benefit in place for himself and his family in case of a debilitating illness, accident or death. Since no underwriting is required to prove evidence of good health, this pastor, his family, and the church he is serving is now protected from another catastrophic event resulting in disability and/or death. In 2007 working with GuideStone we paid the following disability and survivor protection benefits to North Carolina church employees and/or their families: 111 Disability Benefits Totaling $606,708.68 and 39 Survivor Benefits Totaling $391,254.53. This is a powerful example of CARING by our state convention by providing these much needed financial resources for those in need.

Secondly, please note that all church planters who receive financial assistance from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina are now required to be an active participant in the Church Retirement Plan. With this change in policy we have the assurance of protection for all of our church planters, their families, and the churches they are starting in case something happens to them. By DARING to move in this direction our state convention has provided a safety net for those who have stepped out in faith to begin much needed new churches in our state.

Thirdly, consider Pastor C, who has now retired because of poor health. During this past year we qualified him to begin receiving monthly financial assistance from GuideStone through the Mission: Dignity Ministry to supplement his paltry monthly income. In fact, his wife shared with me recently that they would be in deep financial trouble without that monthly financial assistance from GuideStone. As of June 30, 2008, we have 206 persons from North Carolina who are receiving financial assistance through Mission: Dignity. SHARING in this way fulfills the mandate of scripture to provide for those in need. Please assist us in identifying other persons who might qualify for this assistance.

Finally, we wish to serve all of our churches and their employees with the appropriate information and products to meet their needs. For more information call the Baptist State Convention of NC at 1.800.395.5102 extensions 5594 or 5595, visit our Web site at www.ncbaptist.org, call GuideStone at 1.888.984.8433, or visit the GuideStone Web site at www.GuideStone.org.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION REPORT

The mission of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation since its inception in 1920 has been to assist the Convention and its institutions and agencies in increasing an awareness among North Carolina Baptists of Christian estate stewardship principles as a means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission endeavors on a permanent basis. The uniqueness of the ministries and services provided by the institutions and General Board staff merits increased financial support. The Foundation accomplishes these objectives by offering assistance in estate planning counsel, will preparation, planned giving, charitable remainder trusts, endowment funds and church fund management.

Accomplishing this mission does indeed involve Caring, Sharing, and Daring. The Caring of the Foundation manifested itself in 2007 as individuals were assisted in establishing 35 endowment funds and 8 charitable remainder trusts totaling $1.8 million and received $4.8 million in contributions to existing endowments, all of which will ultimately benefit countless Baptist causes on a permanent basis. Programs were provided for churches and associations during the year to promote Make Your Will Month, Christian estate stewardship and church fund management. Approximately $445,000 from churches and institutions came under management to enhance numerous ministries including scholarships, building funds, cemetery funds, benevolence funds, general operating funds and other various mission causes. Overall, the Foundation received just over $7 million in contributions during 2007 for Christian causes.

And, how is this for sharing? During 2007, our distributions totaled $13.9 million, with charity receiving $11.6 million and individuals, through trusts, receiving $2.3 million. During the 86-year hisory of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc., $33.9 million has been distributed to individuals nd $70.8 million to Baptist churches, institutions and mission causes for a grand historical total of 104.7 million.

The Daring is seen in our investing Kingdom money in such a way as to grow the assets while at the same time protecting the principal. To this end, the Foundation employs professionsl money managers to invest these funds according to an investment policy adopted by its Board. Four investment pools are offered: a growth fund, a balanced fund, an income fund and a fixed income fund. The Foundation uses the services of Citi Institutional Consulting, a division of Citigroup Global Markets, to help select top money managers and evaluate performance. As of December 31, 2007, the Foundation held $156.9 million under management.

- Over 28,000 hours of counseling will be provided in 2008, with ministers being among the largest referral sources.
- Our statewide network of 21 CareNet centers covers 80 counties in North Carolina.
- New ministries include services to military personnel and families to help them cope with the stress of combat and extended deployments; residencies to train the next generation of pastoral counselors; and education services to strengthen our care for churches.

The Center for Congregational Health enhances the ministry of churches through Christ-centered consultation and leadership development programs for clergy.

- Our consultants serve nearly 25 churches a month with ministries of conflict reconciliation, strategic visioning and planning, and team development.
- Nearly 600 ministers and church leaders will be better equipped for service in 2008 through the Center's educational programs.
- Over 2,000 ministers have been trained to serve churches through interim ministry.
- "Our church has come through a painful, divisive conflict to renewed hope and excitement for our future thanks to the Center for Congregational Health." – a Baptist deacon

The Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education department provides life-changing education for ministers and compassionate spiritual care for our patients, families and staff.

- "The pastoral education at Baptist was the best training I've ever had in my life." –a Baptist minister
- "I could never say thank you enough to the chaplains for helping me through my husband's illness and death." – a patient's wife
- 62,215 ministry contacts were made by Baptist Hospital chaplains in 2007.
- In 2008, 45 students will complete accredited units of training in Clinical Pastoral Education.

THE MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING: SHARING CHRIST'S LOVE WITH PATIENTS IN NEED

Thanks to the generous compassion of North Carolina Baptists, the Mother's Day Offering received $727,884 in 2007, a new record! Every dollar helps patients in financial need pay hospital bills for care received at Baptist, in the name of Jesus Christ and his love. These patients have no other means of assistance, having too much to qualify for government assistance but not enough to pay their hospital bills. They feel the hand of God lifting their burdens through you, and their gratitude is life-changing.

> "Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for paying my hospital bill at Baptist Hospital. I had just lost my job after working 30 years and didn't know what I would do. God answered my prayers through you. I know he guided you to help me and I praise him for you."
> "My wife and I are thankful beyond words for this gift! Our world changed after the accident. We were so worried about her hospital bill. The kindness of good Baptist people lifted our burden and helped her healing process. They strengthened our faith in God's care."

THE MINISTER'S SUBSIDY

The minister's subsidy covers up to 25% of the hospital bills of ministers (and their dependents) serving NC Baptist churches for care received at Baptist Hospital. $85,151 was provided in 2007 to these ministers, made possible by the Hospital's W.K. McGee Patient Service Fund and the Mother's Day Offering.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT

At Baptist Hospital, our mission of healing is a sacred privilege and responsibility. We bring the best care possible to those who entrust their lives to us, combining medical excellence and simple compassion for those we serve. We see God's healing power at work every day, and we are thankful. We are grateful to North Carolina Baptists for being our partners in the mission that God has given us.

Respectfully submitted,
Donny C. Lambeth
Interim President
Chief Operating Officer
North Carolina Baptist Hospital

Rev. Alex Martin, Pastor

Here at First Baptist Church of Marshville, we believe that our church exists to share and live the Good News of God's kingdom by becoming a family of faith that worships God, grows in Christ and serves others.

The First Baptist Church of Marshville was organized on September 18, 1883, as the Grove Springs Baptist Church. Elders J.L. Bennett and D.A. Snyder preached on alternating Sundays to the 15 charter members under a brush arbor just north of the Marshville cemetery. Reverend Augustus Marsh served at several intervals and made significant contributions to the spiritual growth of the young church.

A building was erected in 1888 and was remodeled in 1903. The sanctuary was completed in 1927. The educational building was added in 1957, and the sanctuary was remodeled in 1960. The basement of the sanctuary was renovated to provide space for a fellowship hall in 1994.

The name of the church was changed from Grove Springs Baptist Church to Beaver Dam Baptist Church in 1888, to Marshville Baptist Church in 1890, and to First Baptist Church of Marshville in 1987.

In March 2009, the church family voted to relocate, building a new and more accessible facility on a larger piece of land a little more than one mile away from its historic site. The facility opened in 2010.

This annual is dedicated to the following:

In Memory of
Rev. Robert Byrd

Rev. Robert T. Byrd was born in Montgomery County, NC, May 2, 1930, but lived most of his life in Union County. He was born near Troy, NC, the son of T. R. and Annie Byrd and married his childhood sweetheart, Jewel 'Jackie' McRae Byrd in 1950.

After working with his father for 12 years in the lumber business, he announced the call to preach, attended and graduated from Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in 1962. He served as pastor of Eldorado, Liberty Hill, and Laurel Hill Baptist Churches in Montgomery County before being called as pastor of Austin Grove Baptist Church in Marshville, NC, in 1964. During the 1960s and 1970s, Pastor Byrd served as moderator of Union Baptist Association and also served in the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Board of Directors. He later pastored Clarkton Baptist Church in Bladen County and then Lee Park Baptist Church in Monroe, NC. In 1971, Rev. Byrd participated in a crusade in Anchorage, Alaska, working alongside pastors from 49 states. He retired in 1995 from the Second Baptist Church of Dillon, SC, after serving 36 years in the ministry.

Pastor Robert and his bride of sixty years spent most of their life doing the thing he loved doing more than anything else: preaching and sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ to anyone that would listen. Pastor Robert T. Byrd, 80, died August 4, 2010, at his home in Wingate, NC, where Jackie still lives. They have two children: Wanda Byrd Denton of Jacksonville, FL and Pastor Barry L. Byrd of Fayetteville, NC, as well as six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Though she misses him dearly, Jackie knows that her husband has reached his ultimate goal – to be at home with his Heavenly Father.

This annual is dedicated to the following:

Rev. Roy Yow

Rev. Roy Yow was born on March 23, 1929, in Union County. He met his eventual wife, Monty Marsh, when he was thirteen years old, and the couple attended school and church together while growing up in the same community. They wed in 1950 and were married for almost sixty years.

Rev. Yow served in the U.S. Navy from 1951-53, during the Korean War. He was stationed in Newfoundland, North Africa and Rhode Island. Rev. Yow answered the call to ministry in 1957 while a member at his home church, New Salem Baptist. He was employed as a meat cutter in Five Points Food Store at the time. He attended Wingate College and also took seminary extension classes. Ordained on August 2, 1964, Rev. Yow was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church for 31 years (1964-1995). Following retirement in 1995, he served alongside Rev. Vance Edwards as co-interim pastor of Secrest Grove Baptist Church (1997-1998). The Lord brought him back to full-time ministry as pastor of Friendly Baptist Church (2000-2009), retiring only when his health demanded it. He also served on several Union Baptist Association committees.

A sportsman, Rev. Yow enjoyed fishing, softball and bowling. He had a passion for golf, and he and son Rod participated in annual tournaments at Camp Caraway. They often brought home trophies.

Rev. Yow went to be with the Lord on October 29, 2010. He is survived by wife Monty, son Rev. Rodney Yow and wife Lorie, granddaughter Melissa Bordeaux and husband Jackson, granddaughter Mallory Parker and husband Jeremy, and four great-grandchildren, Cameron Phillips, Bryson Parker, Conley Bordeaux and Maci Parker. Deceased loved ones include mother Ona Deese, stepfather Bazel Deese, son Kevin Marsh Yow, daughter Joan Lynette Yow, sister Sadie Butner, and brother-in-law Barry Butner.

Monty remembers her husband as a man who loved his family, his church and life. Above all, he loved the Lord whom he served faithfully for decades. Rev. Yow was often known to say, "I wish I could love Him more!" His wife is assured that he is more alive today than ever before.

Bylaws

ARTICLE 1 - AFFILIATED CHURCHES

Those Missionary Baptist Churches which have applied for membership, and by vote of the Association are accounted to be in fellowship with the purpose and undertakings of this body, shall comprise the list of affiliated churches. The vote of the Association to extend fellowship, or to withdraw fellowship, shall be a two-thirds vote.

All churches not affiliated with another Association of like faith may be admitted as members into this union by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided they comply with Article 23 of the Bylaws and make known their desire to become members of the Association at the annual meeting of the Association when the Association will take action on their requests.

All churches composing the body of the Union Baptist Association, and those asking for membership in this body, shall believe and practice the doctrine of the New Testament as interpreted by Baptists through the years: that all churches presently composing this body, and all others seeking membership into the body at a later date, shall practice baptism by immersion only.

Messengers from one-fourth of the churches shall constitute a quorum at all sessions of the Association, and the decision of those present shall be considered the action of the Association.

Failure to report annually to the Association or failure to be represented by messengers for two consecutive sessions without sufficient cause shall raise the question of fellowship. The Association may withdraw fellowship from any church which consistently fails to maintain a spirit of cooperation to support the objects of this Association. It shall be responsibility of the Associational Council to investigate and make recommendations to the Association with regard to withdrawal of fellowship from any member. At all times any action of the Association must conform to the following principles.

(1) The Association shall regard the churches as independent bodies in all their internal affairs and exercise no ecclesiastical jurisdiction or claim any legislative or judicial power over them.

(2) As every church is an independent body, amendable so far as authority is concerned to the Great Head of the Church alone, any church shall have full power to terminate its connection with the Association whenever it may see fit. While, however, a church chooses to continue this connection, the Association must have a relative right to inquire into its standing whenever it may be necessary to do so, and in case of dissatisfaction to withdraw from it.

ARTICLE 2 - OFFICERS

The officers of the association shall be elected at the annual session in October and shall assume their duties, with the exception of the Clerk and Treasurer, at the close of the session at which they are elected and serve until their successors are elected and assume their duties. Officers shall be: Moderator, Vice Moderator, Treasurer, Historian, Discipleship Supporter, Sunday School Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Music Director, Evangelism Director, Youth Director, and other such officers as the Association deems necessary in the continuation of its work. Each officer must be a member of a Union Baptist Association church.

The term of the Moderator shall be limited to two consecutive years; other officers shall be limited to five consecutive years, with the exception of the Treasurer. If for any reason the Moderator cannot serve out his term, the Vice Moderator shall become the Moderator of the Association. When the need arises to replace the Vice Moderator, the Associational Council shall present to the Association a nomination of the person to complete the unexpired term of Vice Moderator. This person shall assume the position of Vice Moderator after the approval of the Association.

The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. (These persons will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the new corporation.)

The Baptist of this Association came directly from the efforts of the early Christian workers of Wales and England. Their first settlements were in Old Welsh Neck section in South Carolina and Old Sandy Creek section in Chatham County. Union County Baptist came from the Old Welsh Section. The Welsh Neck Baptist Church was organized in 1738. In 1793, Lanes Creek was organized about two miles west of Philadelphia Church. This Church was the stock of the Welsh Neck Church. The churches that came out of the Welsh Neck Church organized into the Moriah Association in 1815. For convenience of the North Carolina side of the Moriah Association, the Brown Creek Association was formed in 1854. In 1885, the name of Union Association occurred. The association submitted Articles of Incorporation, which were approved with non-profit status on December 31, 1991, in the name of Union Baptist Association of Union County, North Carolina by the Secretary of State, Rufus Edmisten. These Articles of Incorporation were recorded on February 4, 1992, Book 538, Page 295, in the Union County Register of Deeds office.

PROCEEDINGS

156th Annual Session of Union Baptist Association
October 26, 2010 – Marshville First Baptist Church– 2:30 pm, 7:00 pm

Theme: On Mission

FIRST SESSION: "On Mission"

"Peter fairly exploded with his good news: It's God's own truth, nothing could be plainer: God plays no favorites! It makes no difference who you are or where you're from – if you want God and are ready to do as he says, the door is open. The Message he sent to the children of Israel – that through Jesus Christ everything is being put together again – well, he's doing it everywhere, among everyone." Acts 10: 34-36 (The Message)

Congregational Hymn: "Jesus Saves." UBA Music Minister Rev. Jack Little (Harvest Ministries) led congregational hymns throughout the annual session, with Mrs. Ronda Montgomery (Pianist, Lee Park) providing musical accompaniment.

Call to Order/Words of Welcome: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) called the annual session to order and shared the annual session theme and scripture. He introduced Rev. Alex Martin (pastor, Marshville First).

Scripture and Invocation: Rev. Martin welcomed messengers to the new church building, which has been occupied for one month. He urged messengers to seek him or an usher for any needed assistance, then led an opening prayer.

Roll Call of Churches: UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) conducted the roll call. Quorum was met with 30 churches represented.

Presentation and Adoption of 2010 Book of Reports/Approval of Summer and Special Session Minutes: The clerk made a motion for adoption of minutes from both the UBA summer session held July 27, 2010 at Mary Elizabeth Baptist, and a special called session held September 7, 2010 at the UBA Mission Resource Center (MRC). The motion carried unanimously. The clerk next made a motion for adoption of the 2010 Book of Reports, as presented to messengers with minor corrections. Instructions were given for submitting additional changes. The motion carried without opposition.

Recognition of New Ministers: The moderator recognized the following new ministers: (1) Dr. Phillip Hunter and wife Kay, Mill Creek, and (2) Dr. Chris Baucom and wife Deanna, Benton's Cross Roads.

Recognition of Agency Representatives: Ms. Debbie Pilson of NC Baptist Aging Ministry was recognized as being in attendance.

FIRST BUSINESS SESSION

Church Group Coordinator's Report/Memorials: UBA Church Group One Coordinator Mrs. Brenda Lee (Austin Grove) referred messengers to her committee's report (Book of Reports, p. 20). The association quarterly sessions are scheduled as follows: (1) Winter session – January 25, 2011 at Trinity, (2) Spring session – April 26, 2011 at Lanes Creek, (3) Summer session – July 26, 2011 at Christ, and (4) Annual session – October 25, 2011 at Sandy Ridge. Mrs. Lee led messengers in a moment of silent prayer honoring UBA church members deceased during the year (Book of Reports, p. 30-33). She read from I Corinthians 15, a passage containing Paul's comments on death and the challenge to those left behind.

Miscellaneous Business: UBA vice moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) read the following proposed amendment to the UBA Constitution and Bylaws.

Article 2, Paragraph 4 Current Reading: The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and

Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. (These persons will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the new corporation).

Article 2, Paragraph 4 Amended Paragraph: The Moderator and Clerk of the present Association shall serve as the President and Secretary, respectfully, of the successor Association corporation, and the Vice Moderator and Treasurer shall serve as Vice President and Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the successor Association corporation. The Moderator, or Vice-Moderator, in the absence of the Moderator, will sign all legal documents, including titles, etc., on behalf of the corporation.

The vice moderator called for questions. An inquiry was made regarding where the proposed amendment was written in the Book of Reports. In response, handouts containing the text were distributed to messengers. The vice moderator explained that the recommendation to amend comes from the UBA parliamentarian based on a change in state law. A vote will be taken during the evening session.

Musical Meditation: Rev. Little performed a solo. He welcomed back the accompanist, Mrs. Montgomery, who has suffered recent health issues.

Treasurer's Report: UBA Treasurer and Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) referred messengers to the Book of Reports (pp. 51-52) for the 2011 UBA Missions Budget, then to the Treasurer's Report (pp. 55-58). He noted that total income for the month of September was just under $26,000, with a year-to-date total in excess of $196,000. UBA is spending slightly more than it is taking in, but Dr. Funderburk is confident that God will supply the need if we remain faithful.

Motion From UBA Council: The moderator read the following motion from the UBA Council:

> To loan funds to El Buen Pastor to pay off their mortgage. The note will be at 4% and will be held for up to two years without payment. Funds to retire this mortgage will be borrowed from a businessman. El Buen has agreed to a provision to be placed in the documents that should the church close or leave the association, the property reverts to Union Baptist Association.

The vice moderator called for questions. A question was raised regarding how much is needed to retire the debt. The response: $27,000. A question was raised whether UBA will be responsible for the funds if El Buen defaults. The response: Yes. The vice moderator noted that El Buen Pastor faces hardships largely due to the return of a large number of members to Mexico and a high unemployment rate among remaining members. A vote on this motion will be taken during the evening session.

Moderator's Address: The moderator thanked the association for the opportunity to serve, calling it a great experience and a joy. He commended UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) and the UBA staff as the finest leadership of any association in the state. Messengers were thanked for their prayers and support of UBA. UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) was recognized for his efforts in bringing Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute classes to the Missions Resource Center (MRC). The pastors of the association were thanked for their tireless efforts to preach the Word of God to our community. The moderator recalled a time from his childhood when Sunday School roll call was answered with a memory verse. He was particularly proud to learn John 3:16. In today's world, sin is as widespread as the common cold. The lost need Christians to bring them the truth that, without God, there is the certainty of an eternity in hell. The moderator read Romans 6:23. The Lord is returning for his church, and it will require the use of all Christians' talents to defeat Satan. The task at hand is to watch, wait and work.

Fruitland Testimony: Rev. Dustin Knight (pastor, Friendly) reminded messengers that at Saul's conversion, recounted in Acts 9, God called him "a chosen vessel." Today, there are "chosen vessels" called to spread the Gospel from the pulpit. With this comes a call to prepare, and the Fruitland Baptist Bible Seminary Institute classes now offered at the MRC, are helping pastors and others to do just that. Rev. Knight was given the chance to use the knowledge learned in these classes just two weeks ago when witnessing to a 14-year-old girl on his church playground. She was a foster care child and had been exposed to many world philosophies in her short lifetime. She accepted Christ that day. Rev. Knight believes it is a privilege and blessing for Union and surrounding counties to have Fruitland classes available at the MRC. He expressed gratitude to Rev. Hawkins for his years of work to bring these classes to UBA. It is an invaluable resource, especially for pastors with young families who find it impossible to travel to the Hendersonville campus. The vice moderator urged anyone interested in enrolling in seminary classes to contact Rev. Hawkins for details.

SECOND SESSION: "Our Mission"

"In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I gave them a mission in the world."
John 17:18 (The Message)

Bi-Vocational Ministers' Report: UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) asked messengers to review his report in the Book of Reports (p. 18). He noted that bi-vocational ministers constantly juggle the demands of family, church and job. It is difficult to find a balance, and not all succeed. In addition to this, the economic downturn of the last year has further strained churches. Rev. Medlin urged any church facing conflict to seek Dr. Burton's guidance. Also, the lack of young people in attendance at UBA quarterly sessions concerns Rev. Medlin. He urged association churches to make a strong effort to include a broader range of ages when selecting messengers. Senior members are unquestionably a great asset to our churches, but there is also much to be gained by harnessing the youth and enthusiasm of younger members. They must prepare to lead UBA churches in the future. The vice moderator led a prayer for UBA bi-vocational pastors.

Associate Director of Missions' Report: Rev. Hawkins remarked that UBA has seen an exciting, great year. Five hundred UBA youth will volunteer at the Operation Christmas Child distribution center in December, and plans are underway for another successful year for the Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store. The president of Fruitland has encouraged Rev. Hawkins to refer to local seminary classes as the Fruitland Bible Baptist Institute Monroe Campus, not simply a "satellite." Four classes are currently offered, meeting on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Faculty members are Dr. Stephen Stewart, Dr. Billy Belk, Dr. Ron Lynch and Dr. Mel Winstead. Rev. Hawkins encouraged UBA churches to continue to pray for these classes and their students, noting that perhaps a future Billy Graham is enrolled in these courses today. Rev. Hawkins' complete report is found in the Book of Reports (p. 15).

Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: Dr. Funderburk (Shiloh) directed messengers to his report in the Book of Reports (p. 35-36). He reported that UBA churches have traveled all over the world this year. Numerous trips have been made to Aberdeen, NC, to work on completion of Camp Duncan, a camp for at-risk girls. A group recently returned from Guatemala, and another trip is planned to this region in October 2011. Mission trips to Haiti are planned for February and April 2011. Locally, the next series of Spanish for Missions classes will begin in January 2011. Tracts, evangecubes and copies of the Jesus movie are available at the UBA office.....purchased at bulk rates to offer better prices for mission groups. Dr. Funderburk is optimistic that a disaster recovery class will be offered in Union County in 2012. He closed by offering his assistance to any group needing help in the planning of a mission trip. Dr. Burton praised Dr. Funderburk and Rev. Carrol Anthony (pastor, Philadelphia) for their actions during a recent international mission trip. They encountered a medical team battling an outbreak of ringworm that had infected every member of a village. Both Dr. Funderburk and Rev. Anthony kneeled on the ground to wash and medicate children's feet. Dr. Burton shared that Dr. Funderburk is facing a health crisis, with a mass, cysts and stones recently identified in his kidneys. Exploratory surgery will be performed next week; Dr. Burton led messengers in a prayer for healing.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton referred messengers to his report in the Book of Reports (p. 24). He expressed appreciation to the UBA staff, calling them wonderful servants who are always willing to give 120 %. He has served as UBA Director of Missions for 16 ½ years and has seen many examples of God's grace and blessings during this time. Dr. Burton stressed that God has a mission for each of the 37,000 resident members of UBA churches. Messengers were asked to challenge their churches to be more mission-minded in 2011, reaching further than ever before. Touch lives for God. Plans are still in development stages to offer a Young Leaders Institute in Union County, targeting church members age 35 and younger in whom pastors see leadership potential. The course will be offer one or two nights each week for six weeks. There will be no cost for enrollment. Dr. and Mrs. Burton will depart for South Africa later this week; Mrs. Burton will return earlier, but Dr. Burton will be out of the county until Thanksgiving Day. While in South Africa, Dr. Burton will visit Johannesburg, Cape Town and other locations, working with local church leaders/congregations, seminary students/faculty, and IMB missionaries. The keynote address at tonight's session will be delivered by Dr. Linzay Rinquest, Principal of Cape Town Baptist Seminary in South Africa. Dr. Burton encouraged messengers to attend this meeting, as well as the provided dinner and missions presentations.

Workshop Preview and Room Directions/Benediction and Blessing for Dinner: Rev. Hawkins described upcoming breakout sessions. Mission presentations will be offered in the sanctuary by Hermon and Hopewell. The one-hour personal evangelism crash course – covering topics such as marked New Testament, evangecube, tracts and personal testimony – will meet in the choir room. Breakout sessions end at 5:00 pm, at which time messengers should gather in the sanctuary for the annual sermon. Dr. Burton gave instructions for completion of attendance cards, and Rev. Medlin led a blessing for the upcoming dinner. Breakout sessions began at 3:52 pm.

SECOND SESSION (resumed at 5:00 pm): "Our Mission"

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed "Amazing Grace."

Annual Sermon: Rev. Kenn Hucks (pastor, Sardis) delivered a message describing the "Fundamentals in Following Jesus." (1) Exalt and Confess the Leadership of Christ Through Our Lives: Rev. Hucks read Philippians 2:9. Christians are obligated to continually, consistently and persistently proclaim Jesus as personal Lord and Savior. Attempts to witness will be fruitless unless Christ is predominant in our lives. (2) Love Those Around Us As Jesus Loves: The Christian's love is inadequate unless it is modeled on Jesus' example. There are no limits or exceptions to this type of love.....and no excuses. With Jesus, love never ends. (3) Practice: Christians must be active, not passive, in their walk with Jesus. There will be many obstacles, but no Christian can effectively carry out the mission that God has planned for another. No one can love Jesus for you. The good news is that God calls each Christian to do what they do best....and each Christian does have a calling. It is through Jesus that Christians can put self aside and accept the surrender and sacrifice that are necessary to complete God's plan for their lives. Rev. Hucks closed by leading messengers in prayer.

Dinner/Mission Fair: Dr. Burton gave instructions for dinner and the missions fair. The afternoon sessions adjourned at 5:30 pm.

THIRD SESSION: "His Mission"

"But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that you should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light; Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." I Peter 2: 9-10 (The Message)

Call to Order: The moderator welcomed messengers back and called the evening session to order. He announced the theme of the evening session as "His Mission" and read I Peter 2: 9-10.

Welcome/Scripture and Invocation: Rev. Martin invited messengers to return to his church in the future. He remarked that the afternoon session illustrated that inspiring and creative things are happening within UBA churches. He thanked Rev. Hucks for his annual sermon, then led a prayer.

Second Roll Call of the Churches: The clerk conducted roll call and declared a quorum with 36 UBA churches represented.

Recognition of UBA Council and Committee Members: The moderator reminded messengers not in attendance at the afternoon session to complete an attendance card. UBA Council and committee members were recognized by standing.

Missions and Outreach Committee Report & Bivens/Funderburk Award for Missions Excel-

lence: UBA Mission and Outreach Committee Chairman Mr. T. C. Carter (Hermon) announced Bivens/Funderburk Awards for Missions Excellence recipients. Euto Baptist Church received the church award, with the individual award presented to Rev. Carrol Anthony.

Congregational Hymns: "Oh, How I Love Jesus," My Jesus, I Love Thee," and "I Love You, Lord."

Offertory: The offering was designated to the UBA Missions Resource Center. The vice-moderator led the offertory prayer. Instrumental music, "How Great Thou Art," was provided by Mrs. Montgomery.

Miscellaneous Business (Continued from Afternoon Session): The moderator repeated the motion regarding the El Buen Pastor mortgage as presented to messengers at the afternoon session (see text above). He called for questions; there were none. The motion passed unanimously by show of hands. The vice-moderator read the proposed constitutional amendment as presented to messengers at the afternoon session (see text above). He called for questions. A typographical error was noted from the floor, and a request was made to change the word "respectfully" to "respectively," as it correctly appears elsewhere in the amendment. A motion was made to accept this change; it passed unanimously. The vice moderator called for further questions; there were none. The motion to accept the corrected amendment passed unanimously by show of hands.

Youth Committee Report: UBA Youth Committee Chairman Mr. Frank Casstevens (New Salem) referred messengers to his committee's report in the Book of Reports (p. 65). He believes that a great need in UBA churches is to continue to find ways to effectively reach students. These youth face perils, and they desperately need to be heard and loved by the adults surrounding them. Mr. Casstevens noted that while he requested 600 volunteer slots for the December 3 UBA night at Operation Christmas Child distribution center, he was granted only 500. These slots have already been filled and a waiting list begun. He is optimistic that 600 slots will be granted for 2011, and his goal is to see 1000 UBA youth at the distribution center in a future year. Four major youth events will be planned for 2011, including a Praise and Worship Night at West Monroe in March, Operation Inasmuch in the Spring, a large outdoor fellowship in the summer (location to be determined), and Operation Christmas Child volunteer night in December. Mr. Casstevens stressed that churches must plan to participate in order for these events to be successful. He closed by welcoming four new members to the UBA Youth Council.

Women's Missionary Union (WMU) Report: UBA WMU Director Mrs. Brenda Carter (Hermon) encouraged messengers to read WMU reports, including a list of leadership, in the Book of Reports (pp. 61-64). She thanked the ladies of WMU for their faithfulness and assured messengers that WMU remains strong in UBA churches. Mrs. Pat Haigler (Centerview) was introduced as the new WMU director; she began service in September. She thanked association pastors and congregations for their support of WMU projects during her years of service as WMU director.

Resolutions and Nominating Committee Reports: Dr. Burton requested that messengers read the Resolutions Committee report in the Book of Reports (p. 49). He stated that the Nominating Committee report appears in the Book of Reports (pp. 38-47) as well; elected officers begin service at the close of this evening's session.

Election of Officers: Dr. Burton announced that both the moderator and vice moderator are eligible for re-election to their respective offices. The floor was opened to nominations for moderator. Mr. Gene Williams, current moderator, was nominated for re-election. No further nominations were made, and messengers unanimously approved the motion. Next, nominations were taken for vice moderator. Current vice moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) was nominated. No further nominations were made, and messengers unanimously approved the motion.

Introduction of Keynote Speaker: Dr. Burton recalled his first sabbatical in Cape Town, South Africa when he taught for three months at a small college. He met the college registrar, Linzay Rinquest, who now serves as principal of Cape Town Baptist Seminary. The seminary, which has struggled under Apartheid, includes a mixed culture of international students. Most students attend on scholarship, and few are able to afford to buy textbooks. Dr. Rinquest faithfully leads faculty and students who sacrifice to work and attend the seminary. He and his family are making a real difference in South Africa. UBA churches are encouraged to pray for them.

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed "When We All Get to Heaven."

Annual Sermon: Dr. Rinquest began by thanking Dr. Burton and UBA for their partnership with his seminary. UBA support, both prayer and financial, has had a tremendous impact. He delivered a message titled "The Nature of Christian Ministry," focusing on scripture from John 13: 1-17. Dr. Rinquest is dumbstruck by the mercy principles shared by Jesus in this passage. The Lord washes His disciples' feet, then instructs them to follow his example. Church politics too often fall into the system of "survival of the fittest." Leaders struggle to keep their churches "on top," forgetting that the Lord's instruction is to serve, not to be served. In fact, Christian ministry is best summarized by the word "serve." It is the ultimate Christian attitude. Dr. Rinquest declared that there are Three Ministry Principles Illustrated by Jesus: (1) The Motivation of Jesus' Ministry was Love – Jesus' love was, above all else, self-sacrificing. This level of love requires more than mere words. It mandates action. (2) The Method of Jesus' Ministry was Service – Jesus illustrated that true ministry is the equivalent of servitude, and it requires a blend of self-sacrifice and action. Today's Christians often become misdirected, seeking position and title. (3) The Manner of Jesus' Ministry was Humility – Washing the feet of another was considered humiliating servants' work, yet Jesus did not hesitate to kneel before his disciples and do just that. For Christians to follow this example, we must overcome a natural tendency to strive for importance. Dr. Rinquest shared that each graduate at his seminary is presented with a towel as a tangible reminder of this lesson. He urged messengers to remember three important words – love, service, humility – then closed in prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Wherever He Leads I'll Go."

Benediction: The vice moderator thanked messengers for their attendance, then issued a challenge to "leave in humility and love and go in service of our Lord Jesus Christ." He led a closing prayer, and the annual session adjourned at 8:32 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins

The Bivens-Funderburk Award for individual excellence in missions was presented to Rev. Carrol Anthony, pastor of Philadelphia Baptist Church. He is a true example of someone committed to missions, having traveled with mission trips to Mexico, Honduras, Guatemala, South Africa and many other locations. He has also served in the past as moderator for UBA. Rev. Anthony leads his congregation to engage, support, and pray for missions at every level. He is active in disaster relief efforts, and his active social ministries include an affiliation with many service agencies in the community. He is always willing to serve, give and go as called by the Lord.

The many outreach projects supported by Euto include Belarusian childrens ministry, after-school program, disaster relief, literacy education, Operation Christmas Child, sports programs, Harvestfest, back-to-school activities, prison ministry, food pantry, motorcycle ministry, Peru missions, and more.

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
WINTER SESSION MINUTES
January 26, 2010 – Ebenezer Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Welcome/Invocation: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) welcomed messengers and gave instructions for the completion of attendance cards. He announced the session theme as "A Living Faith of Hope and Service," then read scripture from Jeremiah 17: 7-8. The moderator extended thanks to the ladies of church group 6 for providing the meal. Rev. Tim Rogers (pastor, Ebenezer) added his words of welcome.

Musical Meditation: UBA Music Director Rev. Jack Little (Harvest Ministries) introduced the Taylors, a vocal quartet of siblings from Lillington, NC. He encouraged UBA churches to invite the group to perform for their congregations. The Taylors sang two selections.

Call to Order: The moderator called the session to order and recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Annual Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 34 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA annual session held October 27, 2009, at Monroe First Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Recognition of New Ministers: The moderator recognized Dr. Maurice Henson as the new pastor at East Campus.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report: UBA Treasurer and Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) asked messengers to review the December 2009 Monthly Church Contributions Report. He brought a recommendation from the Stewardship Committee that the group be authorized to continue monitoring the 2010 budget and make changes as necessary. There was no discussion; the motion carried unanimously. A second motion was brought on behalf of the Stewardship Committee and Staff Relations Committee that the UBA staff be granted a 3% raise for the 2010 calendar year. Raises have been frozen for two years, with compensatory time granted in 2009. This will necessitate a revision to the 2010 budget. Dr. Funderburk stated that the increase is affordable based on current UBA income, but the Stewardship Committee reserves the right to freeze raises in the event of economic downturn. Rev. Chris Justice (pastor, Lee Park) noted that it was gracious for the UBA staff to relinquish raises in past years. He suggested that the motion be amended to include an opportunity to seek financial cuts elsewhere in the budget before freezing raises. Rev. Bill Fogarty (pastor, Weddington

First) suggested a further amendment that the budget status be presented at each quarterly session, charging the messengers with making the decision to suspend raises. A motion was made to add the two amendments to the motion; it passed unanimously. The subsequent vote on the revised motion was likewise unanimous.

Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: Dr. Funderburk asked messengers to review flyers describing several mission opportunities. Union Baptist Church is sponsoring a trip to Sisseton, South Dakota on June 12-20 to conduct an American Indian summer camp, Dakota Sonshine. Cost for participation will be under $300. Volunteers will be needed to conduct Bible school, prepare meals, witness and assist with construction projects. Mr. David Seymour is seeking additional volunteers in the construction of Duncan Girls Camp in Aberdeen, NC. Teams are assembling to work on March 6-8 and March 18-20. Information on an October trip to Guatemala will be presented at a later date. Dr. Funderburk noted that the mission trip to Mexico may be cancelled in order to channel all available resources into Haiti earthquake relief. There will be large-scale emphasis on Haiti within UBA, including mission trips into the region once the infrastructure can support volunteer efforts. Messengers were provided with a preparation list – including topics such as passports, vaccinations, insurance, travel and lodging – for volunteers planning to travel to Haiti. There is a great need for both physical and spiritual relief in that country.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Missions and Outreach Committee Report: UBA Missions and Outreach Committee Chair Mr. T. C. Carter (Hermon) brought a motion on behalf of his committee that New Life Brazilian Baptist Church be received into UBA watchcare. The church is located in the Ballantyne community. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously. New Life Brazilian's lay pastor, Jean Paul Faria, who is currently completing seminary training, briefly addressed messengers on behalf of his congregation. A second motion was made that Harvest Ministries of Monroe, NC, pastor, Rev. Jack Little, be received into UBA watchcare. This is a new church plant partnering with Lee Park. Current average attendance is 20. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously. Mr. Carter recognized Rev. Rogers to discuss a third motion that Foundation be moved from watchcare status to full fellowship within UBA. The church, led by Rev. Victor Dermid, originated within Ebenezer. There was no discussion; the motion passed unanimously.

Congregation Hymn: "I Love You, Lord." Rev. Little led congregational hymns throughout the evening, with Mrs. Pam Grooms (pianist, Indian Trail First) as accompanist.

Offering: The offering was designated for Haiti disaster relief. The moderator led an offertory prayer. The offering totaled $1008.65.

Unfinished Business: UBA Vice Moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) gave praise to God for the church plants supported by the association. He proceeded to bring the following motion from the Community Baptist Church Property Study Committee:

- That the property be sold for the best attainable price
- That the proceeds be used to
    - a. Retire the mortgage of $120,000 on the property
    - b. Retire the mortgage of the UBA Missions Resource Center
    - c. The majority of the remaining balance be invested and utilized through the Baptist Foundation for the missions causes of Union Baptist Association

The vice moderator informed messengers that the UBA Council met in a called session on October 15, 2009, and was informed that the members of Community voted to disband. A clause in the church's covenant stated that the property would revert back to UBA in the event that the church cease operation. A $120,000 mortgage remains on the property, which is located in a prime location off of Old Charlotte Highway. UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) spoke regarding this issue, noting that the UBA study committee appointed to oversee the Community property has obtained an independent appraisal valuing the property in excess of $1 million. After several meetings and much discussion, the study committee concluded that sale of the property would be in the best interest of the association. Based on past experience, the committee was not confident that other church starts would succeed in that location. A layman has paid the Community mortgage at no cost to UBA, offering a two-year period to the association for sale of the property. The building has been secured and insured. The moderator called for questions. There were none. The motion passed unanimously.

New Business: The vice moderator called for new business. None was noted.

Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) remarked that he counts it a great privilege to work with the UBA staff and member churches. He recently preached at Mt. Olive in the absence of the interim pastor. Five people told him of the positive impact that UBA has had on them and their church. Rev. Hawkins introduced Mr. Duane Helms, a member at Mt. Olive, to messengers.

Associational Testimony: Mr. Helms described his 177-year-old church as very small (25-30 members), led by a bi-vocational pastor. He thanked the UBA staff for their willingness to offer guidance through any problem, either large or small. The church has sought assistance with pastor search procedures, Bible study workshops, growth classes, conflict resolution, and more. Mt. Olive is making great strides as a friendly and Christ-centered congregation of believers. Mr. Helms noted that it is a great comfort to know that UBA is an association willing to stand behind and assist its member churches. He also recommended that churches contact Rev. Hawkins when a guest preacher is needed.

Director of Missions' Report: Dr. Burton thanked messengers for their support of the motions and recommendations brought before them tonight. He noted that a Dell projector is overdue for return to the UBA office; timely return of borrowed equipment is important as there is frequent demand for it. Dr. Jim Ballard will offer a training class "Pastoral Counseling and How to Conduct an Assessment" on February 9 at the MRC. Fellowship is at 9:30 a.m., followed by the class at 10:00 a.m. Dr. Ballard briefly addressed messengers, extending an invitation to visit his office to any church leader or lay person in need of counseling. Dr. Burton encouraged messengers to attend a personal finance seminar led by Mr. Jimmy Godwin, president and CEO of Forms and Supply. Topics will include paying off debt, saving, tithing, missions support, and more. The 1 ½ hour seminar will be offered at the MRC on February 16, with a repeat session at Community Baptist on February 23. Dr. Burton asked UBA churches to engage in earnest prayer and preparation for Haiti disaster relief efforts. Churches will take special offerings during the month of February. There is also a great evangelistic need in that country, which does not host any International Mission Board missionaries. Dr. Burton urged messengers to exercise caution in donating to the many available Haiti relief funds; many funnel little of the money received into actual relief efforts. He noted that 100% of funds donated through the Baptist Men relief agency are sent directly into Haiti; there is no reduction for overhead. Dr. Burton closed by encouraging messengers to visit the MRC.

Musical Meditation: The Taylors performed two selections. They also described the "Taylors on Mission" project, which assists soup kitchens and homeless shelters in Vermont. Sixty-three professions of faith have resulted from this outreach. Rev. Little thanked the group for their performance, noting that the siblings received no financial compensation for this evening. He urged those in attendance to visit the Taylors' display/sales table in the church foyer. All proceeds will be donated to the "Taylors on Mission" fund.

Message: Rev. Shad Hicks (pastor, Mount Pleasant) delivered a message titled "Learn How to Walk," with scripture from Romans 13: 10-14. In this letter, Paul instructs Romans on Christian conduct. He tells them to walk properly with God in order to arrive where He wants them to be. The same instruction holds true for today's Christians. Rev. Hicks asserted that there are five steps for learning to have a proper Christian walk: (1) Christians must respond to each other in love, seeking to do no harm to one another, (2) Christians must perform self-evaluation to determine their hearts' true condition, (3) Christians must clothe their lives in the proper attire, putting away sin in favor of living holy, (4) Christians must begin walking in righteousness and holiness, turning their backs on lust, strife, jealousy, alcohol, lewdness, fighting and other sinful behaviors, (5) Christians must rely on what God can do in their lives every day, which is far superior to what the individual can achieve. Rev. Hicks closed by remarking on the supernatural power of God to do all things. His is a hand that will never shorten. Nothing is impossible through God.

Congregational Hymn: "Lord, Be Glorified."

Benediction & Adjournment: Rev. Little led messengers in a closing prayer, and the session adjourned at 9:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins
UBA Clerk

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
SPRING SESSION MINUTES
April 27, 2010 – Midway Baptist Church – 7:00 pm

Welcome/Invocation: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) welcomed messengers. He thanked Midway for hosting the quarterly session and the ladies of Church Group 3 for providing the meal. UBA Vice-Moderator Rev. Eric Cook (pastor, Midway) led an opening prayer.

Musical Meditation: UBA Music Director Rev. Jack Little (Lee Park), his wife and daughter performed one song.

Call to Order: The moderator called the session to order and recognized UBA Clerk Mrs. Ashley Hawkins (Sandy Ridge).

Roll Call of Churches/Approval of Winter Session Minutes: The clerk declared a quorum with 32 UBA churches represented. Minutes from the UBA winter session held January 26, 2010, at Ebenezer Baptist Church were approved as distributed to messengers.

Stewardship/Treasurer's Report & Mission Trip Coordinator's Report: UBA Treasurer and Volunteer Mission Trip Coordinator Dr. Henry Funderburk (Shiloh) asked messengers to review the March 2010 Treasurer's Report. He noted that year-to-date revenue totals are "fair." There is a need for continued support. Dr. Funderburk announced plans for an assembly in front of the Union County Courthouse in recognition of the National Day of Prayer on May 6. This will be a short prayer meeting open to the public. A medical/construction mission team will depart for Haiti on May 9. Though this trip is closed to new participants; there will be other opportunities to volunteer in the earthquake ravaged region. There is an upcoming mission trip to West Virginia, sponsored in conjunction with the Stanly Baptist Association. Guatemala is the destination for an October 2010 mission trip. Volunteers will work with the Hearts for Heaven mission group to feed impoverished children. Three "blitzes" have been held to date to complete construction of Camp Duncan, an at-risk girls' camp, in Aberdeen. A UBA Youth Blitz is planned for June 2010. WMU is planning to oversee cleaning prior to the facility opening. In addition, many UBA church groups and individuals are volunteering their time at the camp. Dr. Funderburk urged any church interested in beginning a missions' ministry to contact him for help with logistics.

COUNCIL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Council Recommendation/Associate Director of Missions' Report: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) brought forth a recommendation from the UBA Council that the association enter into a covenant agreement with Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute to offer its program of pastoral education. These courses are to begin in the fall of 2010 and will be applied toward an Associate's Degree." The vote was taken and the recommendation passed unanimously. Rev. Hawkins explained that two classes will be offered at the UBA missions resource center (MRC) on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. UBA will provide the facility and utilities. Most work will be completed locally, with students required to travel to Fruitland for a two-day, Friday and Saturday, session. Local, qualified teachers will be used. Cost of classes, which represent Fruitland's first satellite program, will be $150 per course. Rev. Hawkins noted that 25% of North Carolina pastors are Fruitland graduates. He asked for prayerful support of this venture, which will have an impact for generations to come. Anyone interested in registering for courses should contact Rev. Hawkins.

WMU Report: UBA WMU Director Mrs. Brenda Carter (Hermon) announced that a plant and bake sale benefiting Christian Women's Job Corps will be held at the MRC on Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1. Ladies groups willing to donate cakes, pies and cookies should contact Ann Dora Rollins. A community Fun Day is scheduled for May 29 at the apartment complex behind Bojangles, across from the Union County Bus Garage. Volunteers are needed to interact with the neighborhood children. Events for the day include clown entertainment, music, games, snacks, fellowship and Bible stories. Mrs. Carter encouraged UBA women to attend the Windows of the Heart Conference on October 9 at Marshville First Baptist Church. Phyllis Elvington will be the guest speaker. She is a dynamic and powerful speaker whose sessions at Ridgecrest are always popular. A fee of $18 includes registration, lunch and breakout sessions. Mrs. Carter shared that, following a recent conference focusing on the power of prayer, she was convicted of failing to pray for our nation as God commands. She issued a call to UBA women in the April newsletter to pray for the U.S. in the month of May. She also prepared a "Suggested Prayer Guide for our Nation," which was provided to messengers. In 2 Chronicles, God promises that He will heal a land if the people appeal to him via prayer. Mrs. Carter encouraged all UBA churches and families to make prayer for the nation a focus in the month of May.

Congregation Hymn: "Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)." Rev. Little led congregational hymns throughout the evening.

Offering: The offering was designated for Union Baptist Association.

Unfinished/New Business: The Vice Moderator called for unfinished business. None was noted. He called for new business. None was noted.

Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator's Report: UBA Bi-Vocational Ministries Coordinator Rev. Tony Medlin (Euto) declared his appreciation for powerful lay leaders in the association. He also expressed concern over low attendance at some associational training sessions, such as the recent Vacation Bible School training clinic. He urged churches to better support those elected to leadership in UBA committees. A two-hour seminar titled "Sunday School in a Transformational Church" will be offered by UBA on May 10 at Lakeview. It will be led by Dr. Thom Ranier, President and CEO of LifeWay Christian Resources. Rev. Medlin called the meeting "a rare -- perhaps once in a lifetime -- opportunity." He appealed to UBA pastors to promote the event extensively within their churches. The Bivocational Ministers Conference will be held July 9-10 at Caraway. The cost is $50 per person, which includes lodging, three meals, speakers and breakout sessions for wives. Registration forms will be mailed to pastors.

Director of Missions' Report: UBA Director of Missions Dr. Dennis Burton (Shiloh) stressed that the upcoming Fruitland satellite courses are open to lay people as well as church pastors and other leaders. He noted that Dr. Jerry McGee, President of Wingate University, has agreed to open his school's library to enrollees. Dr. Burton recognized the UBA staff. Food and cleaning supplies are being collected this week at the MRC for Baptist Children's Homes. Additional volunteers are needed to organize donations. Dr. Burton urged UBA church members to participate in the National Day of Prayer gathering at the Union County Courthouse on May 6. He reiterated Mrs. Carter's plea to pray for the nation, thereby demonstrating ourselves to be proud, not bashful, Christians. The Community Baptist Church property continues to generate interest. Several parties have toured the facility, and a special session may be called in the event that an offer is made. Dr. Burton announced a change of location for the summer session on July 27. There is a conflict due to construction at Weddington First. Messengers will be notified once a new site is selected. The format for the meeting may be changed to include a covered dish supper, music and fellowship with minimal business. The Union County Health Department is compiling a volunteer database to be used in the event of a public health emergency. Registrations forms were provided to messengers. UBA church members were encouraged to frequently visit the association website, www.unionbaptist.com, for a wealth of current information. Dr. Burton noted that this week marks 16 years of service with UBA for him and his wife. He closed by noting two prayer requests: (1) UBA clerk Ashley Hawkins: upcoming hand surgery following an auto accident, and (2) Robert Byrd: hospitalized in intensive care unit at CMC-Charlotte.

Recognition of New Ministers: The vice moderator led a standing ovation in honor of the Burtons' years of service to UBA. The following new ministers were recognized: (1) Rev. Marty Quick, Mt. Olive, began service on March 7, and (2) Rev. John Miller, Pleasant Hill, began service on March 28.

Musical Meditation: The Littles performed one selection.

Message: Dr. John Hewett, Senior Pastor at First Baptist Church Monroe, brought a message titled "Where the Lord Looks," with scripture from 1 Samuel 16:1-13a. The scripture tells the story of Israel as a nation experiencing pain. Israelites had entered the Promised Land, only to find their loose collection of tribes quickly falling apart. God established a sanctuary in Shiloh, but the Israelites turned to pagan worship led by corrupt priests. Two civil wars followed. The Israelites cried out to God for a young leader, and God answered their pleas by sending King Saul. He proved to be a disappointment. Eventually Samuel followed God's command, embarking on a journey to Bethlehem to anoint a new king. Dr. Hewett used Samuel's journey to reveal five truths regarding how today's Christians can become people after God's own heart. (1) Faith often means letting go of a painful past and going into the future: This is often one of life's hardest lessons, (2) God does not leave us to do the difficult tasks He calls us to on our own: God always provides guidance and instruction, (3) When Christians obey God specifically, He never fails to provide protection: The result of disobedience is spiritual dryness, (4) One must be patient for God's revelation: Attempting to "get ahead of God" always leads to regret, and (5) Only God has the ability to see beneath the surface to the heart of a person: As Christians, we must allow God to see for us rather than indulging in our own flawed reactions. Dr. Hewett closed in prayer.

Congregational Hymn: "Draw Me Close."

Benediction & Adjournment: Rev. Little led messengers in a closing prayer, and the session adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ashley H. Hawkins

UNION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
SUMMER SESSION MINUTES
July 27, 2010 – Mary Elizabeth Baptist Church – 6:30 pm

Welcome/Invocation/Call to Order: UBA Moderator Mr. Gene Williams (Mountain Springs) welcomed messengers and called the session to order. He thanked Mary Elizabeth for hosting the covered dish supper preceding the business meeting. Tonight's session will be fellowship-oriented, with minimal business conducted. Rev. Curtis Laney (pastor, Mary Elizabeth) added his welcome, then led messengers in an opening prayer.

The annual is dedicated in memory of Mrs. Donna Pittman, the driving force behind creation of the association's Christmas toy store in 2007. It was her dream and vision to reach out to families in need, giving parents the opportunity to provide Christmas gifts to their children for pennies on the dollar. The gospel is shared with each participating family. In addition, Mrs. Pittman was active in both music and missions at Faulks Baptist Church, participated in a prison ministry, served as WMU director and volunteered on the association's WMU Council as church-wide missions consultant. Shortly before cancer claimed her life in March 2009, the UBA toy store was renamed the Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store and a memorial fund was established at her request. Dr. Burton presented the 2009 UBA annual to Mrs. Pittman's son Gabe and family friend Mrs. Teresa Polk.

Stewardship Report/Motion to Approve 2011 Budget: UBA Stewardship Committee member Rev. Shad Hicks (pastor, Mt. Pleasant) requested that messengers review the provided 2011 proposed budget. A motion was made that the budget, recommended by both the stewardship and staff relations committees, be approved. There were no questions; the motion passed unanimously.

Presentation of Award: Dr. Burton presented an award to Rev. Caroll Anthony and Philadelphia Baptist Church. This church leads the association in cooperative program contributions, and is among the top 50 congregations per capita of North Carolina's 4700 Southern Baptist churches.

Norris Family Concert: The Norris Family performed 10 selections. This group is comprised of Tim (vocals/guitar) and Sandy (vocals) Norris and their three sons, Coy (vocals/bass fiddle), Dusty (vocals/mandolin) and Tanner (vocals/5-string banjo). Songs included "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "He Touched Me," "I Saw the Light," "Beulah Land," "I'll Fly Away," and "Amazing Grace."

Update on Fruitland Partnership: UBA Associate Director of Missions Rev. Clyde Hawkins (Sandy Ridge) announced that Fruitland seminary extension classes will begin in October at the missions resource center. Registrations are required now for anyone wishing to enroll.

Prayer Requests: Rev. Hawkins shared the following prayer concerns: (1) Neil Hawkins: Recovering from thymoma surgery -- pathology on tumor was benign, (2) Kendal Maulden: Recovering from esophagus surgery, (3) Mrs. Deane Baucom and (4) Rev. Robert Byrd.

Benediction & Adjournment: Rev. Raymond Owens (Union Grove) led a closing prayer, and the session adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

This has been a very busy, thrilling, and rewarding year for our Union Baptist Association. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute began a Satellite School in our UBA Resource Center at 1744 Williams Road, October 5. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute is owned and operated by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and is dedicated to helping those who are called of God to become "workmen that need not to be ashamed." (II Timothy 2:15)

Fruitland is dedicated to serving the needs of students without regard to previous academic preparation. In the classroom and in the total experience of preparation for ministry, Fruitland seeks the spiritual development of its students.

Those of us who have been students at Fruitland can and will tell you about, "The Fruitland Experience."

During this first quarter, four classes are being offered: New Testament 101 (Professor Steve Stewart) and Research 101 (Professor Billy Belk) on Tuesday evenings; Theology 101 (Professor Ron Lynch) and Old Testament 101 (Professor Mel Winstead) on Thursday evenings.

I want to urge you to pray for Fruitland, the students, the faculty and your UBA Staff as we enter into this new ministry. It is an honor and a privilege to be a part of the Union Baptist Association. The Lord continues to bless this Association. I am grateful for the Staff that I have to work with and all of our churches.

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." II Corinthians 13:13 HCSB

BAPTIST MEN'S MINISTRIES REPORT

The Baptist Men in Union County have worked on several projects this year—from helping erect a wilderness camp in Aberdeen to building wheel chair ramps in needed areas for residents in Waxhaw, Monroe and Marshville. A couple of area churches have Handyman Ministries within their group that reach out regularly to the needs in our local communities. We applaud all of you guys…and gals… for taking time out of your busy schedules to assist those less fortunate. These small acts of service prove to the world that you are living the call—to serve God through the selfless act of helping others.

"And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!' Matthew 25:40 (NLT)

Thank you for your willingness to serve!

BIBLE DRILL REPORT

On Sunday, March 28, 2010, the UBA Missions Resource Center was host to the 2010 Association Bible Drill Program. Ten students from Lakeview Baptist Church and Weddington Baptist Church participated.

Mrs. Connie Rape from Mountain Springs Baptist Church served as our Bible Drill Director. This year, she was assisted by Mrs. Angie York from Lakeview Baptist. The Association thanks both of these ladies for their work to promote and conduct this program.

We would like to encourage churches to consider implementing this program for your children and youth. The Bible Drill program includes a variety of activities that appeal to children and youth while providing them a strong foundation for life application of the Scriptures.

To request more information about the Bible Drill and Youth Speaker's Ministry, please contact Deborah Robson, Bible Drill Coordinator for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, at 1-800-395-5102, extension 5652 or email Deborah at drobson@ncbaptist.org.

The Baptist State Convention also includes information on their website at bscnc.org. Click on Congregational Services and scroll down to Bible Drill Ministries. On this website, you will find resources and ideas to help and encourage you to meet this challenge with your students.

BIVOCATIONAL MINISTRIES COORDINATOR'S REPORT

It is my privilege to serve the UBA again this year. Most of my service has been in the bivocational and small church arena.

Some of the churches are doing well while others are struggling financially and in attendance. I have discovered many people like the small church community rather than the big church setting. Either way, many are seeing decline in financial support and growth.

I want to say "Thank You" to all bivocational pastors and wives. They work a regular job and still minister to the people. This involves preparing a message for Sunday morning, possibly Sunday night and Wednesday night. It is a struggle balancing family time, church and work.

We were sorry to inform our association that Thom Rainer had to cancel his plan to be with us on May 10, 2010. Nashville, TN had a flood, and Dr. Rainer's home was damaged. The meeting was three years in the making and changed in one day. Special thanks to Dr. Donnie Gamble and his efforts in promoting Sunday School in Union Baptist Association.

I also serve on the state board as the Secretary Treasurer of the Bivocational Ministers. I serve with the Bivocational Conference as Vice-President. I work to encourage the state conference, a helpful tool for the bivocational pastor and wife. Our last conference was "Church Relationships: Stretching Our Faith While Surviving the Stress".

For the past six years I have stressed the importance of evangelism in associational VBS training. I believe "as the twig is bent so the tree is inclined". It has been my privilege to work with the associational VBS directors in promoting evangelism. Two of the greatest outreach avenues of the church are VBS and Sunday School.

Many thanks to all those in our association who have been assisting me in serving this year.

Rev. Tony Medlin

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S JOB CORPS OF UNION COUNTY

Christian Women's Job Corps was founded by the Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1994. CWJC of Union County is a ministry of the Union Baptist Association. The purpose of the ministry is to provide a Christian context in which women in need are equipped for life and employment and a mission context in which women help women.

We are accomplishing this task by ministering to the total woman spiritually, physically, emotionally, and educationally. Each woman is paired with a mentor. The mentor commits to spend time with the client each week. This accountability is provided until she graduates from the program.

At the present time we have 5 clients and only 3 active mentors. Our greatest need is additional mentors. Please pray for God to meet this need, perhaps through you.

WAYS YOUR WOMEN ON MISSION CAN HELP CWJC

1. Pray for the Ministry.
2. Volunteer to be a mentor. Training will be provided to equip you for ministry.
3. Adopt a client and her family for Christmas. Provide gifts and/or food.
3. Adopt a client for a year by providing a Bible and Bible Study materials.
5. Donate Walmart or Gas Cards for clients to use.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS' REPORT

THE CHALLENGE OF BEING MISSIONAL

I need to begin this report with a confession. In a year where money is extremely limited and people are struggling to even meet basic needs, it is easy to think in terms of retrenchment. Even the office has had a few months where we were cutting it close to try and make ends meet. I have found myself thinking more than once, "When this recession is over we can begin to do more in the way of missions." There have been times when I have wondered how we were going to fulfill even the commitments we have made this year and have felt they were a stretch.

I have had an opportunity to remember that the New Testament is full of mission experience where there were no resources but faith available to those who first told the Gospel Story to their world. I, also, in preparing to return to South Africa, have been reminded of former students who have gone into Prisons, Squatter Camps, Tribal Regions and City Slums with no funding, buildings, materials – only a Bible and themselves and they are reaching thousands for Christ.

The last church Gay and I served began at the close of the Civil War and many of the turn-of-the- century clerk's minutes survive. Reading the minutes of the church during the Great Depression often brought many tears as I saw their faith, commitment and service. Many pledged only a dime a month and often could not make that contribution.

Perhaps, today, there is an opportunity for us to not only rediscover the providence of our Lord, but also His simple mandate to go and be His living presence in the midst of a lonely world. It costs little or nothing to share His love and comfort with those in grief, only our time is needed to visit and listen to a home bound person and only a willingness to go and serve a meal at the Homeless Shelter. Jesus, in a prayer for his followers (and all who would come after them) offered a prayer to the Father in John 17. The eighteenth verse is more than applicable to us today: "In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I gave them a mission in the world". That mission has never changed. There are still those who simply accept and believe the Lord when he instructed us, "This is why I tell you: "Don't worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothing?" (Matthew 6:25) The first disciples and many in the body today, have taken ministry and mission at its face value. It is the most valuable opportunity on the earth today.

The state of the Union is solid, and we have a clear vision of where the Lord is leading us. Every member of the UBA Team is committed to supporting the ministry and mission of our member congregations. Every effort, conference, class or use of the Mission Resource Center is available to assist our churches in reaching our world for Christ. As never before, let us go on mission. Let us do missions. Let us support missions. Let us pray for missions. Let us be missions.

Thank you for the privilege of serving you in the calling you have given to Gay and me. It has been and is the most rewarding of our lives.

Dennis L. Burton, Director of Missions

THE DONNA PITTMAN CHRISTMAS TOY STORE

The Toy Store ministry began in 2007, under the direction and leadership of Mrs. Donna Pittman, a faithful WMU worker and member at Faulks Baptist Church. After an extended illness, Donna passed away in March 2009. Before her death, the Toy Store was named in her honor, The Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store. A memorial fund for the Toy Store was established and has enabled this ministry to continue.

The third annual Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store was held on Saturday, December 12, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center, beginning at 8:00 am and ending at 7:00 pm. Many dedicated women and men volunteered for this ministry. Many individuals and church groups provided toys and food items for this event, along with prayers for the success of this ministry to families in Union County.

All parents come to shop at the Toy Store by referral. Referrals are received from church members, pastors, community leaders, school counselors, teachers, and agencies. In 2009, we were blessed to serve 75 families and 192 children.

A large variety of age appropriate, new toys, games, books, bicycles and tricycles were provided through generous donations. The UBA Missions Resource Center becomes a beautiful and colorful Christmas Toy Store, opening the doors to parents who cannot afford to buy toys for their children for Christmas. The parents are allowed to shop for new toys offered at the price of 10¢ on the dollar value of the toy. But, before leaving the Toy Store, each parent meets with a Counselor (a UBA pastor or lay leader) who shares the plan of Salvation and offers to pray with them to accept Christ as their Savior. It is a blessed event for those who shop and those who volunteer.

There is a place for everyone to be involved in this ministry. Contact the UBA Missions Resource Center for more information. Plans are well underway for the 2010 event which will be held Saturday, December 11, 2010. Monetary contributions continue to be received, payable to the Union Baptist Association for The Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store.

"To God be the glory, great things He hath done."

Teresa Polk, Director

EVANGELISM REPORT

In Matthew 9:37 Jesus said to His disciples, "The harvest is truly plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

As long as we are in the world the work of evangelism is never done. Gospel laborers are always needed because the need is so great. Sadly today very few Christians actively share their faith on a regular basis.

This past year the association has focused on preparing our church members to go into the harvest fields wherever, whenever, and however they could. Three major training events have been held to equip individuals with skills and resources to share their faith. For the second year we have offered the Personal Evangelism – "Crash Course" which is a training session intended to equip believers to share their faith in a variety of ways. These sessions are only the beginning. Our hope is that churches would have their own training sessions and teach every member how to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

These sessions were held at West Monroe, Euto and here during our annual Meeting. In a one- hour period, four methods of personal evangelism were offered:

The Personal Evangelism "Crash Course" Included:

• Using The EvangeCube	Led By:	Henry Funderburk
• Giving Your Personal Testimony	Led By:	Brenda Carter
• Using Gospel Tracts	Led By:	Ted Wright
• Using a Marked New Testament	Led By:	Clyde Hawkins

Following one of the training events, the youth group of Midway Baptist went out to use what they had learned the following weekend and witnessed to several people!

We appreciate all those whose time and effort helped to make these events a reality and a witness for Christ. Our prayer is that God would use our efforts to further the Kingdom of God in Union County through the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Ted Wright, Chairman
Evangelism Committee

God has blessed us as we have seen a total of 92 folks saved since Jan. of 2010, even though not all have joined our church. It is such a blessing to see how God is working in lives. We have licensed two men into ministry – Gene Mullis Jr. (Bubba) and John Terry, which we support them in their work.

The summer camp held every year is always a blessing. We are so very thankful for all the volunteers who work so hard every year to make this successful. Especially when souls are saved, friendships & memories are made to last a lifetime. Our older youth are amazing in their spiritual growth. Even in the valleys of life we all are finding more and more that God is so good! In 2010 we were also blessed with additional staff. Rev. Miguel Santos has been added to lead our Spanish-speaking congregation. Maleah Fraley has been brought on as a full-time Director of Children’s Ministry. Josh Farley has been added to our Youth Department as an Associate of Student Ministries. Robin Hargett and Lorraine Matthews have joined our staff to work in the office. We also have had great volunteer work in the office from Joanne Biggers and Judy Moore.

Small group Bible study space has been limited in our current facility. To help deal with growth issues, we have expanded our small groups – or Link Groups-to Wednesday night and Sunday night. Again, our people have adapted extremely well to the changes.

Also this year, the membership at Lee Park has voted to move forward with plans to build a new Worship Center. We are calling our program Vision 2010. The building has been approved, additional land has been purchased, and we are now in the process of negotiating a loan for the project. Our hope is to begin construction sometime in 2011.

As we look forward to 2011, we are excited about the addition of an Executive Pastor, more office help and a Facilities Manager. We're excited about even more changes in 2011 as God continues to lead.

WAXHAW: Purchased new church sign.

MISSION COORDINATOR'S REPORT

Acts 1:8 and Matthew 28:18-20 are worded differently but give the same message. These are some of the last words Jesus said before He ascended into heaven. If we are soldiers in the Christian army, these scriptures must be viewed as God's marching orders. There may be scriptures that we can debate and not fully understand, but nowhere in the Bible is the language any more clear than in Acts 1:8 nor in the Great Commission. Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments."

When Jesus gave these orders, the church was hardly greater than the small group of disciples who watched Him return to the Father. There was technically no church until the Holy Spirit empowered this small body of believers at Pentecost. And, what power they had. The church went from zero to three thousand in one day. People were witnessing. People were doing miracles. People were being saved, all under the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus gave the command. The Holy Spirit empowered the church. And, we are to obey and share the gospel with a lost and dying world. Although we worship in separate buildings and even in separate denominations, we are all members of one church which is the bride of Christ. It is the responsibility of that bride to reach people for Christ. The UBA is pleased that member congregations are doing wonderful mission projects all over the world.

We have many full time missionaries from Union County, some of whom are putting their lives on the line every day. Many missionaries are commissioned by the International Mission and North American Mission Boards and many others are raising their own funds. Some are Baptist and some are not. Nevertheless we should pray regularly for all of our Christian missionaries.

Many of our member churches send people on short term mission trips to one or more countries. When you consider all the countries aided by so many of our mission teams and missionaries, you can see that much of the world is covered by Union County Baptists alone. Several of our churches have taken on specific areas and are partnering with churches in Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Liberia, South Africa and other nations.

During the 2010 year, there has been a significant focus on Camp Duncan, a camp in Aberdeen for at-risk girls. David and Frances Seymour were the construction coordinators for North Carolina Baptist Children's Homes. There were teams from the association and from various churches as well as individuals who went to do grading, fencing, electrical, painting, roofing, plumbing, HVAC, carpentry, demolition and other kinds of work, all for the purpose of helping to build a camp in ministry to these girls. This camp is similar to the boys' camp, Camp Cameron.

We have conducted classes in Spanish for Missions and have plans for new classes beginning in January of 2011. We buy mission aids such as tracts, evangecubes, and the Jesus Movie at bulk prices and make them available at reduced prices.

Church teams have worked separately and in collaboration with UBA in construction projects in Union County. Two of the most notable projects involving the UBA were Help Crisis Pregnancy Center and Community Health.

In 2010 the UBA sponsored two foreign mission trips. One was to Guatemala to feed hungry children and to share with them and their families the message of Jesus Christ. The other was in response to the devastating earthquake on January 12, 2010. The Union Baptist Association sent 279 five-gallon buckets of food to Haiti in the statewide Buckets of Hope program. A construction mission team sent by the UBA saw many of those buckets in use as Haitians were using them to port water from communal wells. This team of six along with five Haitians hired by N. C. Baptist Men built 20 frame houses covered with tarp material and tin roofs. Union County Baptists gave over $12,000 as disaster relief for Haiti. There are plans for similar trips to these and other countries in 2011.

UBA makes resources available for churches planning mission trips.

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH COMMITTEE

(Title Missions) - This committee shall function in three areas of work (new church, church starts, and missions ministries).

In the area of new church, this committee shall receive applications from all churches desiring to affiliate with the Union Baptist Association. The committee shall make such investigation as is needful into the Statement of Faith and Order of the applicant, and at such time as it deems proper, shall make a recommendation to the Association that the applicant come under the watchcare of the Association for the period of at least six months. During this period, the church shall appoint the pastor and one lay member who shall attend the Association sessions and give a brief report of the work of their church including cooperation with the Association and Conventions. At the end of this period, the Missions and Outreach Committee shall make further recommendations to the Associational Council for their joint recommendation to the Association concerning the applicant's request.

In the area of church starts, this committee shall meet periodically to survey areas for possible future missions and/or churches, and shall conduct the necessary census and surveys to determine the needs. When such need has been determined, the Committee shall, with the approval of the Association, purchase such lands as are desirable for the future development of missions and/or churches at such time as a sponsoring church can be found and is deemed appropriate by the Committee.

In the area of mission ministries, this committee shall determine the need for ministries (benevolence, literacy, ethnic, blind, deaf, etc.) which are too large to be sponsored by one church. The committee would study the need and determine the associational resources needed to provide the ministry. The committee would recommend to the Association the approach to providing a ministry in this area.

This committee will assist churches in planning, conducting, and evaluating their mission efforts and keep churches informed as to special mission projects being conducted by the Baptist State Convention and by the Southern Baptist Convention. A written report will be presented at the Annual Session on work accomplished during the year. This committee shall be composed of a minimum of fifteen (15) members.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Sunday School exists to assist the church in accomplishing its God-given mission of making disciples. Sunday School's disciple-making process is best implemented as an open small group ministry strategy with intentional evangelism, foundational discipleship and life-changing Bible study at its core. Every local church should be committed to providing the best in resources and leadership development in order to make Sunday School a successful ministry.

There are several learning opportunities made available to our association to further develop the leadership skills of our Sunday School leaders. Here's a list of what is offered:

- Regional REAL Leadership Training: this conference focuses on Relationships, Evangelism, Assimilation, and Life-changing Bible study through Sunday School ministry.
- Sunday School Growth Plan Seminar: this three-hour seminar is for church leaders and pastors who want to customize a Sunday School growth plan. Additional coaching by a specialist is provided beyond the seminar.
- Sunday School Mentoring: A Sunday School mentor works with up to 10 churches for 12 months and provides training, accountability, and continuous coaching. Mentors give each church action steps to complete before the next meeting. Each church receives an on-site, individual mentor consultation.
- PowerUP Your Sunday School Conference: This two-hour conference introduces PowerUP to your Sunday School. This is a seven-week, evangelistically driven plan for enrolling new people in Sunday School and culminates with a high attendance Sunday.
- Coaching: Coaching is a one-on-one approach in which one coach works with one church in three to four sessions to identify ways the Sunday School can become a disciple-making ministry.

If your church is interested in additional information regarding any of these equipping models, please contact the UBA Resource Center to arrange a consultation.

Respectfully submitted,
Donnie Gamble, UBA Sunday School Director

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL REPORT

The UBA VBS Clinic was held Saturday morning, April 24, 9-11 am at the Missions Resource Center. The Saddle Ridge Ranch Theme was presented, Roundin' Up Questions and Drivin' Home Answers. The VBS theme was based on James 1:5. "Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives to all generously and without criticizing, and it will be given to him."

Our VBS Team put together an informative, motivational clinic. From 17 UBA churches, 58 people attended.

The 2010 Team members are listed as follows. And, we thank each one of them for their diligent work, cooperation and dedication to the task of presenting the curriculum and all the rotation areas to complete a Vacation Bible School for our member congregations.

Our thanks to Sonya Gaddy (Antioch) VBS Director, for her enthusiastic leadership again this year. She put together a great team as follows:

Rev. Tony Medlin, (Euto) our resident cowboy, shared an evangelistic emphasis with those in attendance, generating this responsive comment..."The Cowboy's job is to take care of the cattle, and our job is to take care of the children!"

The VBS theme music with sign language was demonstrated by Megan & Anna Spurlock, Katie Nicholson, Amber Privette, & Kelsey Drake. These young ladies, from Antioch, willingly and cheerfully shared their musical gifts.

The theme-related refreshments were prepared by Anne Arp and Catherine Fowler, (Lakeview), assisted by Catherine's daughters, Christi, Sarah and Laura. Recipe cards were on display and samples prepared.

Holly Sadowski (Antioch) provided instructions for the crafts. She and her Mother, Cathy Kiker, made the crafts to display and made themselves available for helpful tips for VBS Craft Departments within the churches.

The literature was displayed by Kelly Hamilton (Lakeview), who made herself available to answer curriculum related questions.

A new item of instruction on the agenda was "Global VBS" given by Beverly Austin (East Campus). Beverly shared a mission trip experience to Trinidad last year where East Campus members conducted a Vacation Bible School using extra materials collected from our churches. How wonderful to see the materials used to make a difference in children's lives in Trinidad.

Dennis L. Burton
Director of Missions

WMU EMPHASIS THEME 2009-2010: "CALLED TO LOVE"

EMPHASIS WATCHWORD: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:37-39 NIV, adapted)

In the second year of this WMU theme, WMU members were challenged with the call in verse 39 to "love our neighbor as ourself". Loving others begins with a response to God's overflowing love to each of us. We are to freely give what we have freely received relentlessly, faithfully, and patiently. It is hard to love someone we do not know or understand; however, we can as we allow the Holy Spirit to help us see others with His eyes, think with His thoughts, and feel with His heart.

The following events were held, mission projects and scholarships supported by WMU organizations in the association during the 2009-2010 WMU Year.

- WMU Church Leadership Training September 28, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. Leadership Team members shared new ideas and updates on the work of WMU.
- Windows of the Heart Women's Conference was held October 24, 2009 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. Zoe Elmore, Proverbs 31 Ministries shared from her life experiences, "Discover God's SECRET to Inner Beauty". Approximately 45 women attended this conference.
- Seeing God's Creation with New Eyes was the theme for the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer on Tuesday, November 2, 2009 at the Union Baptist Association Missions Resource Center. Total offering for North American Baptist Women's Union was $226.00.
- Annual WMU Celebration, March 29, 2010 at the UBA Missions Resource Center. A focus on Mission Friends was celebrated as Shirley Davis, Mt. Pleasant Church shared personal experiences of teaching young children about missions and ways they can participate in sharing Jesus' love. A report of Mission/Ministry Activities by WMU ladies of Mill Creek was inspiring and challenged all present to be more mission minded. Lisa Warren, Euto Baptist Church was the guest speaker. Lisa shared about God's call on her life to be involved in the work of Operation Christmas Child and then the opportunity for her family to be International Service Corp members from August 2008 until August 2009 in Swaziland, Africa. Her family has a heart for the Swazi people and looks forward to returning to this mission opportunity as God leads and directs their steps. Becky Simpson presented The Leadership Team report for the new WMU year. The following women were elected to serve as Associational leaders. WMU Director – Pat Haigler, Women on Mission/Adults – Brenda Carter, Churchwide Missions – Bobbie Lee, Acteens/Youth – Lynn Gentry, GA's/Children – Crystal Rowell, Missions Friends - Shirley Davis.
- 2010 Mary Blair Scholarship recipient:
  Rebecca Ellen Stegall, East Campus First Baptist Church-Indian Trail
  Rebecca was a Home Schooled student with a passion for music. This $500.00 scholarship will be used to pursue a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education at Wingate University.
- Mission Projects:
  "Red Box" Christmas ministry to NC Correctional Institute and Raleigh Correctional Center for women inmates. (Toothpaste)
  Collection of "Personal Hygiene Kits" for local community ministries.
  The goal was 100 kits – over 260 kits were received. These kits were shared with Turning Point, Community Shelter, Dorcas Ministries Inc. and D-Vine Ministries.
  "Donna Pittman Christmas Toy Store" for needy families December 12th
  "Fun Day" at the Apartment complex on Venus Street on May 29th

For more than 20 years, WMU worked with the UBA Prison Ministry at the North Carolina Correctional Center located on Sutherland Avenue. One of the major mission projects for WMU was collecting personal items for Christmas gift boxes and providing home-made cakes for a Christmas Party to approximately 100 inmates. This project received the largest percentage of participation by our churches than any other mission project supported by our association. In the summer of 2009, the North Carolina Department of Corrections announced that the Union County facility would be closed in October, 2009. This was a big disappointment to those who had embraced this ministry; giving much time but receiving so many blessings during this long period of partnership. Only God knows the number of people whose lives were touched through this act of kindness and expression of His love. Thank you to everyone who participated in this mission endeavor.

Thanks be to God for the blessings He has bestowed on the work of WMU through the churches of Union Baptist Association and the lives that have been changed as people responded to God's "call to love". TO GOD BE THE GLORY!!!

Serving with Others in His Strength,
Brenda Carter, UBA WMU Director

YOUTH COMMITTEE REPORT

As another year is being written in the books, we celebrate the awesome work that so many of our local congregations are providing through youth ministry. Last Dec. in 2009, we witnessed 450 students and their leaders from over 23 congregations, join together to represent the UBA at "Operation Christmas Child" operations center in Charlotte, NC. This year, our 7th year to attend, we have over 500 registered and our prayer is to see this grow and possibly double one day. We will enjoy pizzas and drinks and the fellowship of working for His glory through a simple box. Pray for this team on Dec. 3, 2010.

Our committee shared in a Christmas social together in January and then have met throughout 2010. We were excited to hold our first ever Praise and Worship Night at West Monroe Baptist with 275 in attendance. The service had two bands, a youth choir and guest speaker from Fruitland. It has been the prayer of myself as chairman to see our committee strive to have more opportunities to worship, minister and be together with our students. The committee that has just finished service has set that in place with 4 events planned for 2011. We will have a second annual Praise and Worship Night in March at West Monroe, "Operation In as Much" mission blitz in the spring, a county wide outdoor event in Sept. at Belk Tonowanda Park and hopefully 600 for "Operation Christmas Child" in Dec. 2011. We need all of our churches to join with us as together we can be a mighty force to reach our students.

If anyone of our youth committee can be of assistance, maybe you have new leadership, need new ideas, would love to just talk, call us, that's why we are here. Please let the UBA know of all events for students and invite other groups to attend. Our prayer is that every church will love their students and young adults and lead them in the paths God has intended for them. What is most needed by so many of our students today, you ask? We believe it is someone to listen. Let the students talk, ask questions. If you are confused, reflect on what the student says and take time to really listen. Prayerfully give Christ centered responsive feedback that is possible for them to accomplish. We may not know what lies ahead for each of them, but we should know and teach, they do not have to walk alone. Let's Love our students!

SBC and BSC AGENCY ANNUAL REPORTS

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA REPORT

(July 2009-July 2010)

LaShanda is thankful. Her path to the future is brightly marked. This past year the young woman walked across the stage and received her college diploma. LaShanda dreams of operating her own day program to help adults with disabilities. Her possibilities are wide open.

LaShanda could not have imagined this future years earlier. While the path forward reveals opportunity to realize goals and dreams, the road behind her was shrouded in darkness, uncertainty and pain.

"I was filled with doubts and fears," LaShanda reveals. "I felt all hope was gone." Since age five, LaShanda suffered abuse from the adults she trusted the most. She remembers going to bed so hungry she could not rest. Her past includes a drug-addicted mother, the inappropriate advances of an adoptive parent, and feelings of being unloved and abandoned.

The darkness dissipated once LaShanda came to Baptist Children's Homes. At Mills Home in Thomasville, Christian houseparents showed her the love and care she needed. Most importantly it's through BCH's Christ-centered ministry that LaShanda encountered God. Her relationship with Jesus empowered LaShanda to put the past behind her and forge ahead towards a bright future.

Today, LaShanda is active in her church leading the praise team and serving as a youth leader. She is grateful to North Carolina Baptists for their unwavering support and to BCH where she embraced a loving Savior.

"I am thankful to everyone for believing in me and for letting their love shine," LaShanda says. "Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for giving me a future."

BCH Celebrates 125th Anniversary…Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina observes its 125th anniversary, or "Quasquicentennial," on November 11, 2010. In preparation for the historic occasion, BCH president Michael C. Blackwell formed the "Committee of 20," a group of staff members and trustees leading a year-long celebration of events to commemorate BCH's milestone in ministry. All current residents and all staff from BCH's statewide locations gathered together on June 15 for "Family Gathering 3," a celebration day at Mills Home in Thomasville, the organization's first residential campus. Anniversary events culminate the week of the 2010 Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro. The "Growing Hope Tapestry," comprised of approximately 10,000 squares of artwork created by North Carolina Baptists, will be displayed. Staff members and residents make a dynamic 30-minute presentation to messengers at the meeting's evening session on Monday, November 8. A special "11/11 Celebration" occurs the following Thursday at Mills Home.

Volunteers Construct Girls Camp...Camp Duncan is a reality thanks to more than 2,000 church volunteers who lent their talents and resources to renovate the 700 acres of property in Aberdeen. In partnership with North Carolina Baptist Men, almost every aspect of BCH's new wilderness camp for at-risk girls was constructed through volunteer efforts. A final gift from the Gay T. and Haskell A. Duncan Foundation, which provided the property for the project, completed BCH's fund-raising campaign for Camp Duncan, which will be officially dedicated on October 30.

Children Accept Christ...In 2009, 65 children in Baptist Children's Homes' statewide care accepted Jesus. BCH remains committed to Christ-centered ministry through all its programs to children and families. Residents attend church, participate in daily devotions led by their child care workers, and North Carolina Baptists frequently visit BCH's residential locations helping encourage and minister to boys and girls.

Churches Tackle Renovations...Volunteer workers from statewide churches are helping BCH with much-need renovations across the state. Associations and churches organized to refurbish Stokes Cottage, York Cottage, the parsonage, and the Development and Communications building at Mills Home in Thomasville. Groups assisted with projects at Developmental Disabilities Homes in Winston-Salem and Marshville. Volunteers are also renovating Williams Cottage at Kennedy Home in Kinston which will become BCH's fourth transitional living home to assist older youth.

Baptists Empower Northeastern Home...BCH held a groundbreaking on April 25 for Britton Ministries in Ahoskie, a new group home providing residential services in northeastern North Carolina. The small congregation of Connarista Baptist Church in Aulander led a charge of support by giving a $10,000.00 gift for the new home, the largest financial contribution in church history. Other area churches followed in Connarista's footsteps pledging their own support to help the nine children who will call Britton Ministries "home." Construction of the home is nearing completion and will accept its first residents in early 2011.

Blackwell Is Longest Tenured BCH Leader...On July 1, 2010, Michael C. Blackwell observed 27 years as President of Baptist Children's Homes in North Carolina. Blackwell, who joined BCH in 1983, is now the longest tenured leader of the 125-year-old ministry, eclipsing former BCH general manager Martin Luther Kessler who served in the role from September 1, 1905 to August 19, 1932.

BAPTIST RETIREMENT HOMES OF NC, INC., REPORT

They shall be fresh and flourishing....

"Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall bear fruit in old age; they shall be fresh and flourishing.

Psalm 92: 13-14 (NKJV)

At Baptist Retirement Homes, our mission is to make life or older adults "...the best of times." For over 59 years now, we have been giving consistent, compassionate care because we believe that each individual is a unique child of God and as such should be given a chance to remain fresh and to flourish!

- Daily activities designed to refresh and renew body, mind, and soul.
- Baptist chaplains stationed on each campus to assist with spiritual vitality.
- Financial assistance to some 40% of "Homes" residents.
- Annual Benevolent care in excess of $2 million, helping to provide the opportunity for lifetime care to every resident, and making admission possible to many of the poor elderly in our state.

At Baptist Retirement Homes, we work to keep those among us who have been "planted in the house of the Lord" the longest "bearing fruit." We are grateful to generous North Carolina Baptists and Baptist churches for their help in making our ministry possible.

BIBLICAL RECORDER ANNUAL REPORT

Equip your Great 8 with the tools they need.

How do you prepare your members to face the relentless challenges that rise with every sun? People face uncertain futures best who are equipped with knowledge. In Baptist life, the best source of knowledge – of inspiration, information and ideas for ministry – is in the Biblical Recorder, the newspaper for North Carolina Baptists since 1833.

Each member of your leadership team needs to receive the Biblical Recorder to be exposed to the ministry ideas of other churches; to be encouraged by the Kingdom advances detailed in its pages and to be equipped to face the issues with which each local church, association, state convention and national convention is dealing.

The Southern Baptist Convention just endorsed the findings of its Great Commission Resurgence Task Force. If the recommendations are implemented by the entities to which were referred, they have the potential to prompt significant changes in how Southern Baptists promote and conduct missions and how entities relate to each other. Where will you find North Carolina Baptist response to these issues outside the Biblical Recorder?

Because the best indicator of an informed, involved and animated membership is an informed leadership, it is vital that those in your congregation who lead the mission, education and worship areas of your church be informed leaders. As a "thank you" to North Carolina Baptists for their Cooperative Program support of the Biblical Recorder, we send each church a copy of the newspaper. But your leadership team of Sunday School Director, men's and women's mission leaders, deacon chair, other church staff and worship leaders all need also to receive the paper.

The Biblical Recorder's board of directors has created a special "Great 8" subscription price of just $96 if you add eight subscriptions for your leadership team.

The Recorder was honored with first place awards in all the significant categories in 2010 competition in the Baptist Communicators Association, including the grand prize for news writing. Economic conditions prompted the early retirement of one staff member and the continuing vacancy in another position. Recorder staff is responding to these challenges with dedication and commitment to their ministry to North Carolina Baptists.

Readership on our online version at www.biblicalrecorder.org continues to grow. A complete redesign in 2008 is proving inadequate and the Recorder is implementing a change to a better architecture to serve the growing audience online. Eventually the Recorder will have to find a way to make its online service financially viable to counter the trend lines of its print edition, which provides the bulk of revenue required to provide the service.

You will find in every issue of the Biblical Recorder stories about fellow Baptists who encounter God and engage the culture to change lives. Our great and constant prayer is that these stories inspire you to "go and do likewise."

Biblical Recorder readers are an interactive community. Writers submit letters and guest columns; staff covers news and plans features and welcomes story ideas from others. There are Sunday school lessons and church news and other information that keep North Carolina Baptists informed about each other. We want to publish photos of your mission trips and special events in our online photo albums. Send us 8-12 photos with identification of the event and we'll put them up for the world to see. Your Kingdom efforts, whether next door or in another nation, deserve a wide audience to help readers of the Recorder be inspired, informed and immediate.

The Recorder was privately owned and operated for most of its history, then in 1939 became a Convention agency. As it has from its founding, the Recorder serves as the official news publication of the BSCNC, and serves the full spectrum of its churches.

As a BSCNC agency, the Biblical Recorder receives annual support from Cooperative Program contributions from churches, making it possible to offer the Recorder at subscription rates below the actual cost of production. You can receive a free three-month subscription for yourself and your friends. Contact:

INTERNATIONAL MISSION BOARD 2009 ANNUAL REPORT

In 2009, churches and individuals responded to the International Mission Board's (IMB) theme "Who's Missing? Whose Mission?" The emphasis led people to respond personally to the call to pray, give and go. Missionaries and volunteers crossed geographic barriers as they continued strategies to plant churches within affinity groups and focus on unreached peoples.

In spite of increased urgency to reach the peoples who are missing from God's family, Southern Baptists took a hit from continued economic hardships in the U.S. IMB trustees made the painful decision to reduce the number of missionaries being sent and temporarily suspended programs such as International Service Corps and the Masters Program. This initiated a gradual reduction in missionary numbers. IMB remained committed to its pledge not to recall any personnel or lay off home office employees, but to accomplish the reduction of personnel through completions of service, retirements and resignations.

A weakened U.S. economy did not stop the work of the Holy Spirit, however, or IMB's commitment to reach the missing. Southern Baptists stayed true to their passion for evangelizing the nations by giving $148.9 million to the 2009 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering®. It is the third-largest Lottie Moon offering in history.

"We are not disappointed as God proves His faithfulness through Southern Baptists, and giving through Lottie Moon reflects the heart of our churches and their Great Commission commitment," said Jerry Rankin, IMB president. "Constituting more than half of the IMB's annual budget, the Lottie Moon offering dramatically impacts our ability to take the Gospel to the lost world. I am deeply grateful for the increase in giving, some $7.6 million above the 2008 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, and for the sacrifice made by Southern Baptists during these difficult economic times."

More than $4 million came from a special offering challenge issued in the summer of 2009 by Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary President Daniel Akin and others. The extra funds allowed the IMB to send missionaries placed on hold by financial shortfalls earlier than planned and prevented even deeper reductions in IMB's global missionary force. World Hunger and General Relief fund receipts totaled $5.8 million, proving that Southern Baptists don't stop caring for a world in need when times are tough.

While a troubled economy saturated the news, the Holy Spirit was sweeping the globe and Southern Baptists joined the work. IMB missionaries reported that they shared the Gospel among 1,089 people groups and were a part of 24,650 new churches planted and 506,019 believers baptized. At the end of 2009, the total number of missionaries serving through IMB was 5,344.

IMB's passion to reach the lost also didn't waiver with the September 2009 announcement of Jerry Rankin's retirement as president, effective July 31, 2010. As IMB awaits new leadership, it remains committed to the vision of providing all peoples the opportunity to respond to Jesus Christ's offer of salvation. Latest global research data indicates 6,426 unreached people groups which still have not had that chance. Southern Baptists remain committed to seeing that number decrease each year. Giving through the Cooperative Program and to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering makes it possible for Southern Baptists to have a hand in seeing God's kingdom grow to the uttermost parts of the earth.

IMB is a Southern Baptist Convention entity supported by the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

At the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, we believe everything we do will immediately or eventually impact Kingdom causes because our mission is to increase awareness among North Carolina Baptists of the importance of Christian estate stewardship as a vital means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission efforts on a permanent basis. More than ever before resources are needed to evangelize, to grow disciples and to mobilize God's army. We see the work of the Foundation as an important part of meeting the mission challenges that are before us.

This year the Foundation marks a milestone as we celebrate our 90th birthday. We're the oldest state Baptist Foundation, officially established by the Baptist State Convention at the annual session in 1920. After 42 years, in 1962, the Foundation Board of Directors employed the first two staff members, an executive director and an administrative assistant. By that time, assets had reached a quarter of a million dollars. By 1972, when Ed Coates was employed as the second executive director, assets had grown to $2.6 million. When Ed retired in 1997 assets had reached $70 million. In the last 12 years assets under management have grown to $133 million.

The Lord continues to bless our ministry! Even in the midst of the recent recession we had contributions to accounts in 2009 of %5.4 million. Even more impressive is the fact that we distributed $1.8 million to individuals through charitable trusts and $6.4 million to Christian causes. Since the establishment of the Foundation 90 years ago, some $37.9 million has been distributed to individuals through trusts and more than $84.3 million to Christian causes, making a grand total of some $122 million in distributions.

Even as we approached our 90th year, the Foundation had the joy of beginning a new ministry in 2009 when we established North Carolina Baptist Foundation Services. Through May 2010 our Loan Committee has approved 18 loans totaling nearly $15 million. There is another $7 million in loans already approved. Individuals, churches and associations have invested over $9 million in our Church Growth Investment Fund which provides funding for the loans.

We have so much to celebrate and so much to be thankful for, but also so much to look forward to. In speaking of his church, pastor David Jeremiah said, "Our dreams are greater than our memories." That can also be said of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. We are thankful for what the Lord has done through this ministry in the past 90 years, and we eagerly wait for what he will do through our ministry in the next 90 years.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

LEGACY AND VISION

In 1919, God inspired the leaders of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina (BSCNC) to build a hospital that would extend the healing ministry of Jesus Christ. Expert medical care and compassion for patients in need formed the foundation for the 88-bed hospital that opened in 1923. In 2010, the founder's legacy continues to unfold. North Carolina Baptist Hospital (NCBH) is an integral part of one the nation's leading academic medical centers, Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. We are humbled to see God at work, bringing healing and hope to those we are privileged to serve.

THE MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING

North Carolina Baptists generously gave $663,013 to the Mother's Day offering in 2009! Your gifts change fear into hope, helping our patients in serious financial need pay their hospital bills. They "fall between the cracks," having too much for government assistance but not enough to pay their hospital bills. Fearing financial disaster, they receive a letter from NCBH that says, "Your hospital bill has been paid by compassionate and mission-minded N.C. Baptists in the name of Jesus Christ and His love."

> "There aren't enough words to thank North Carolina Baptists for helping us pay our daughter's hospital bill. They have reminded us that God keeps His promises never to leave us nor forsake us."
>
> "We are so thankful to God for the Mother's Day Offering. We were worried sick—and this was the answer to our prayers. I had felt far away from God but now he's always been there. Thank you with all our hearts."

THE MINISTER'S SUBSIDY

Ministers, and their families, serving N.C. Baptist churches receive a subsidy of up to 25% for their hospital bills for care received at Baptist. This support is made possible by the earnings of our W.K. McGee Patient Service Fund, with help as needed from the Mother's Day Offering. The subsidy will surpass $110,000 in FY 2010.

CLOSING WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT

We are grateful as a Hospital and Medical Center family for the dynamic partnership in ministry we share with North Carolina Baptists. We are privileged to build on the legacy of our Baptist founders, representing Christ and extending His healing power. God bless you for all of your prayers and support. Please call on us if we can ever be of service to you or your family.
